9

10 WHEREAS, The new Federal Building at 90 7th Street opened its doors in the spring of 11 this year; and

12 WHEREAS, The new state of the art building requires around the clock maintenance 13 to support the building's longevity and overall value; and,

14 WHEREAS, For years, union janitors have cleaned and maintained on federal and 15 state owned buildings in San Francisco; and

16 WHEREAS, The Government Services Agency (GSA) of the Federal Government 17 provides workspace for tens of thousands of federal employees and manages federal building 18 assets such as the new Federal Building; and,

19 WHEREAS, The GSA contracts out building maintenance services for the new federal 20 building and had been contracting with American Building Services (ABS), a union janitorial 21 contractor for this service; and,

22 WHEREAS, On Thursday, September 27, 2007, ABS received notice from the GSA 23 that starting October 1, 2007 they would no longer hold the janitorial contract for the Federal 24 Building; and,

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

1 WHEREAS, The GSA awarded the cleaning contract to Exemplar Enterprises which 2 refused to maintain on its payroll the 19 union janitors who had been responsible for the 3 maintenance at the Federal Building; and,

4 WHEREAS, On Friday, September 28, 2007, these janitors received notice from ABS
5 that they would no longer be working at the building, just three days before the new Exemplar 6 crew would start; and,

7 WHEREAS, The Services Employees International Union Local 87 has made
8 numerous attempts to negotiate with Exemplar Enterprises to reinstate the former crew of 19 9 janitors to no avail; and,

10 WHEREAS, The SEIU Local 87 has been holding daily pickets outside the federal 11 building since October 1st, demanding the reinstatement of the 19 janitors; and,

12 WHEREAS, On October 2, four Federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)
13 Agency officials attempted to confiscate union equipment and that same day two federal 14 helicopters hovered above the picketers in an apparent attempt at intimidation; and,

15 WHEAREAS, Picketers continue to feel that they are under heavy surveillance from 16 Homeland Security Police; and,

17 WHEREAS, To this day the 19 janitors have not received any wages for janitorial work 18 since, September 28, 2007; and,

19 WHEREAS, Congresswoman and Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi has an 20 accomplished record of supporting working people's and labor struggles; now, therefore, be it

21 RESOLVED, That San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby calls upon Exemplar
22 Enterprises to reinstate the 19 union janitors under a collective bargaining agreement with 23 SEIU Local 87; and, be it
