8

9 WHEREAS, On May 16, 2023, San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency
10 (SFMTA) announced the phasing of the citywide meter hours extension beginning in July 11 2023 without an extensive community outreach effort and overall economic impact report; and

12 WHEREAS, According to San Francisco’s Status of the San Francisco Economy
13 Reports, multiple economic indicators show that San Francisco economy has yet to recover; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, According the employment growth indicator in the San Francisco Status of 16 San Francisco Economy the April report, the leisure and hospitality industry was the most 17 impacted industry between February 2020 to March 2023; and

18 WHEREAS, Extension of metered parking into the evening and Sunday will 19 disproportionately affect the restaurant and entertainment industry because the proposal will 20 increase parking cost and risk of parking fines for patrons and staff who relies heavily on 21 personal vehicles as primarily mode of transportation; and

22 WHEREAS, According to SFMTA 2019 Survey, 32% of lower-income household do not 23 have access and ability to park in a garage, which subject them to higher likelihood of parking 24 fines; and

25

1 WHEREAS, SFMTA, through various fees and fine reduction programs to low-income
2 residents, recognizes that parking fees disproportionately affect historically low-income 3 communities and people of color; and

4 WHEREAS, SFMTA recognizes the negative impact of the meter hour extension to 5 low-income neighborhoods and will implement their plan last in historically disenfranchised
6 neighborhoods; however, phasing in of the program does not mitigate the adverse impacts;
7 and

8 WHEREAS, SFMTA should work with merchant groups, religious leaders, 9 neighborhood groups to find ways help the city recover that is sensitive to the needs of local 10 business and residents; and

11 WHEREAS, San Francisco should capitalize on continued positive economic trends, 12 including increased volume on the bridge usage and domestic and international air travel, and 13 incentivize visitors to patronize local businesses; now, therefore, be it

14 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the San Francisco Municipal 15 Transportation Agency (SFMTA) to delay implementing meter hour extension until the 16 completion of an independent economic impact report that specifically analyzes the projected 17 impact to San Francisco small businesses, City revenues, and the City’s overall economic 18 recovery and said report is reviewed by the Board of Supervisors and the SFMTA Board.
