A BILL

To address the fundamental injustice, cruelty, brutality, and inhumanity of slavery in the United States and the 13 American colonies between 1619 and 1865 and to establish a commission to study and consider a national apology and proposal for reparations for the institution of slavery, its subsequent de jure and de facto racial and economic discrimination against African-Americans, and the impact of these forces on living African-Americans, to make recommendations to the Congress on appropriate remedies, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE:

4 This Act may be cited as the “Commission to Study
5 and Develop Reparation Proposals for African-Americans 6 Act”.

7 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

8 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

9 (1) approximately 4,000,000 Africans and their 10 descendants were enslaved in the United States and 11 colonies that became the United States from 1619 to 12 1865;

13 (2) the institution of slavery was constitu-
14 tionally and statutorily sanctioned by the Govern-
15 ment of the United States from 1789 through 1865;

16 (3) the slavery that flourished in the United 17 States constituted an immoral and inhumane depri-
18 vation of Africans’ life, liberty, African citizenship 19 rights, and cultural heritage, and denied them the 20 fruits of their own labor;

21 (4) a preponderance of scholarly, legal, commu-
22 nity evidentiary documentation and popular culture
23 markers constitute the basis for inquiry into the on-24 going effects of the institution of slavery and its leg-

1       acy of persistent systemic structures of discrimina-
2       tion on living African-Americans and society in the 3       United States; and

4               (5) following the abolition of slavery the United 5       States Government, at the Federal, State, and local 6       level, continued to perpetuate, condone and often 7       profit from practices that continued to brutalize and 8       disadvantage African-Americans, including share
9       cropping, convict leasing, Jim Crow, redlining, un-10      equal education, and disproportionate treatment at 11      the hands of the criminal justice system; and

12              (6) as a result of the historic and continued dis-
13      crimination, African-Americans continue to suffer
14      debilitating economic, educational, and health hard-15      ships including but not limited to having nearly 16      1,000,000 black people incarcerated; an unemploy-
17      ment rate more than twice the current white unem-18      ployment rate; and an average of less than  $\frac{1}{16}$  of 19      the wealth of white families, a disparity which has 20      worsened, not improved over time.

21      (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to estab-
22      lish a commission to study and develop Reparation pro-23      posals for African-Americans as a result of—

24              (1) the institution of slavery, including both the 25      Trans-Atlantic and the domestic “trade” which ex-

1       isted from 1565 in colonial Florida and from 1619
2       through 1865 within the other colonies that became 3       the United States, and which included the Federal 4       and State governments which constitutionally and 5       statutorily supported the institution of slavery;

6           (2) the de jure and de facto discrimination 7       against freed slaves and their descendants from the 8       end of the Civil War to the present, including eco-
9       nomic, political, educational, and social discrimina-
10      tion;

11          (3) the lingering negative effects of the institu-
12      tion of slavery and the discrimination described in 13      paragraphs (1) and (2) on living African-Americans 14      and on society in the United States;

15          (4) the manner in which textual and digital in-16      structional resources and technologies are being used
17      to deny the inhumanity of slavery and the crime 18      against humanity of people of African descent in the 19      United States;

20          (5) the role of Northern complicity in the 21      Southern based institution of slavery;

22          (6) the direct benefits to societal institutions,
23      public and private, including higher education, cor-
24      porations, religious and associational;

1           (7) and thus, recommend appropriate ways to 2           educate the American public of the Commission's 3           findings;

4           (8) and thus, recommend appropriate remedies
5           in consideration of the Commission's findings on the 6           matters described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), 7           (5), and (6); and 8           (9) submit to the Congress the results of such 9           examination, together with such recommendations.

10 SEC. 3. ESTABLISHMENT AND DUTIES.

11           (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established the Com-12           mission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for 16           lowing duties:

17           (1) Identify, compile and synthesize the relevant

19           tion of slavery which existed within the United 20           States and the colonies that became the United 21           States from 1619 through 1865. The Commission's 22           documentation and examination shall include but not 23           be limited to the facts related to—

24                   (A) the capture and procurement of Afri-
25                   cans;

1 (B) the transport of Africans to the United
2 States and the colonies that became the United 3 States for the purpose of enslavement, including 4 their treatment during transport;

5 (C) the sale and acquisition of Africans as 6 chattel property in interstate and intrastate
7 commerce;

8 (D) the treatment of African slaves in the 9 colonies and the United States, including the 10 deprivation of their freedom, exploitation of 11 their labor, and destruction of their culture, 12 language, religion, and families; and

13 (E) the extensive denial of humanity, sex-
14 ual abuse and the chattelization of persons.

15 (2) The role which the Federal and State gov-
16 ernments of the United States supported the institu-
17 tion of slavery in constitutional and statutory provi-
18 sions, including the extent to which such govern-19 ments prevented, opposed, or restricted efforts of 20 formerly enslaved Africans and their descendants to 21 repatriate to their homeland.

22 (3) The Federal and State laws that discrimi-23 nated against formerly enslaved Africans and their 24 descendants who were deemed United States citizens
25 from 1868 to the present.

1           (4) The other forms of discrimination in the 2 public and private sectors against freed African 3 slaves and their descendants who were deemed 4 United States citizens from 1868 to the present, in-5 cluding redlining, educational funding discrepancies,
6 and predatory financial practices.

7           (5) The lingering negative effects of the institu-
8 tion of slavery and the matters described in para-
9 graphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6) on living Afri-

11           (6) Recommend appropriate ways to educate

14 eration of the Commission's findings on the matters

16 (6). In making such recommendations, the Commis-
17 sion shall address among other issues, the following
18 questions:

19           (A) How such recommendations comport 20 with international standards of remedy for

22 include full reparations and special measures,
23 as understood by various relevant international 24 protocols, laws, and findings.

1 (B) How the Government of the United 2 States will offer a formal apology on behalf of 3 the people of the United States for the per-4 petration of gross human rights violations and 5 crimes against humanity on African slaves and 6 their descendants.

7 (C) How Federal laws and policies that 8 continue to disproportionately and negatively 9 affect African-Americans as a group, and those 10 that perpetuate the lingering effects, materially 11 and psycho-social, can be eliminated.

12 (D) How the injuries resulting from mat-
13 ters described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), 14 (5), and (6) can be reversed and provide appro-
15 priate policies, programs, projects and rec-16 ommendations for the purpose of reversing the 17 injuries.

18 (E) How, in consideration of the Commis-19 sion's findings, any form of compensation to the 20 descendants of enslaved African is calculated.

21 (F) What form of compensation should be 22 awarded, through what instrumentalities and 23 who should be eligible for such compensation.

24 (G) How, in consideration of the Commis-
25 sion's findings, any other forms of rehabilita-

2           warranted and what the form and scope of
