Dear Supervisor Yee,

I am writing to support the reappointment of Ms. Kimberly Brandon to the San Francisco Port Commission. Kim has been a leader on the Commission using her skills and expertise to ensure that our Port remain strong and continues to create diverse opportunities for San Francisco.

Kim is a naive San Franciscan invested both personally and professional in this city. She has served our city as a Port Commissioner for over 15 years. She has the courage to make decisions that promote the visual beauty of our waterfront while being keenly aware of the need to support smart business opportunities.

Kim is active on numerous non profit boards; most notably she is a committed member of the board of directors for the Museum of the African Diaspora and the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA in her neighborhood.

I believe Kim will continue to work effectively with her colleagues and the staff of the Port to ensure San Francisco's waterfront continues to showcase the beauty of the City.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Smith, MA
Director of Community Affairs

RE: Reappointment of Commissioner Kimberly Brandon to the Port Commission

Dear Supervisor Breed:

As I am currently out of the country and unable to be present at the Rules Committee, I am writing you today to express my strong and unequivocal support for Kimberly Brandon and to urge you to reappoint her to the Port Commission.

I have served on the Port Commission since May 2011 with Kim Brandon. She has impressed me as an exemplary commissioner in terms of her knowledge, commitment and attendance. As the longest serving Port Commissioner, she has ensured great continuity at the Port and provides me and our fellow commissioners with important historical insights. She has excellent community ties and is very conscientious in advocating for the LBE community in all of the Port's initiatives. We have an excellent working relationship and she is currently serving ably as my Vice President. Kim has held officer positions, including President, with the Commission in the past and demonstrated her leadership abilities and balanced judgment. Kim is also well regarded and highly recognized as a leader in the community by other key stakeholders on the waterfront.

As you know, the Port Commission has a very full but exciting agenda to address on the waterfront. Currently, the Commission is comprised of commissioners with a variety of backgrounds and skill sets. We collaborate well with each other, with the Executive Director and Port staff. We complement each other extremely well and Kim Brandon is a valued contributor on the team.

For all of the above reasons, I strongly recommend that her term be renewed for the good of the Port, the Commission and the City of San Francisco.

If you should have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 415-203-8023.

Sincerely,

Doreen Woo Ho
President, San Francisco Port Commission
