

1 [Urging the Continuation of the Anchor Brewing Company Legacy, Supporting Anchor
2 Workers, and Preserving Production, Distribution, and Repair Zoning]

3 Resolution urging the continuation of Anchor Brewing Company’s legacy, supporting 4 Anchor workers, and preserving Production, Distribution, and Repair zoning and 5 spaces at 1705 Mariposa Street and 495 De Haro Street.

7 WHEREAS, Anchor Brewing Company is a 127-year-old San Francisco institution, 8 located at Potrero Hill in District 10, at 1705 Mariposa Street and 495 De Haro Street, since 9 1979; and

10 WHEREAS, Anchor Brewing Company was establish in 1896 in San Francisco by 11 German brewer Ernst F. Baruth and his son-in-law, Otto Schinkel, Jr., who bought the old
12 brewery on Pacific Street near Russian Hill and named it Anchor; no one knows why Baruth 13 and Schinkel chose the name Anchor, except, perhaps, its indirect but powerful allusion to the 14 booming Port of San Francisco; and

15 WHEREAS, In an uncanny year of misfortune, co-owner Ernst Baruth died suddenly in 16 February 1906, and two months later, the devastating fire following San Francisco’s great 17 earthquake consumed Anchor Brewery; in January 1907, just as Anchor Brewery was 18 opening at its new location south of Market Street, Otto Schinkel, Jr., was run over by a 19 streetcar; fortunately, German brewers Joseph Kraus and August Meyer, along with liquor 20 store owner Henry Tietjen, were able to keep Anchor Brewery going; and

21 WHEREAS, Prohibition effectively shut Anchor Brewery down in 1920, although there
22 may have been a few “activities” during Prohibition and the era of bootlegging, but there is no 23 record of Anchor Brewery doing anything—legal or illegal—during this time; and

24 WHEREAS, After Prohibition ended in April 1933, owner Joe Kraus began brewing 25 Anchor Steam Beer after a 13-year hiatus and as luck would have it, the brewery went up in

1 smoke the following February; Kraus re-opened Anchor Brewery in an old brick building with a 2 new partner, Joe Allen, just a few blocks from where the historic brewery is today; and

3 WHEREAS, Kraus and Allen valiantly and lovingly kept Anchor afloat until Kraus's
4 death in 1952; by 1959, American tastes had changed, with mass-produced, lighter beers
5 driving consumer demand; this took a toll on Anchor's sales; in July of 1959, at the age of 71, 6 Joe Allen shut down Anchor for what would, thankfully, be a brief period; and

7 WHEREAS, Lawrence Steese bought and re-opened Anchor in 1960 at yet another
8 nearby location, retaining Joe Allen to carry Anchor's craft brewing tradition forward; but one 9 of Anchor's oldest accounts, the Crystal Palace Market had already closed its doors; and 10 Steese had an increasingly difficult time convincing loyal Bay Area establishments to continue
11 serving Anchor Steam; by 1965, Steese—like Allen six years before—was ready to shut 12 Anchor down; and

13 WHEREAS, During a meal at the Old Spaghetti Factory, a young Stanford grad named 14 Fritz Maytag learned that the makers of his favorite beer Anchor Steam Beer were soon to 15 close their doors forever; despite the primitive equipment and financial condition, Fritz rushed 16 to buy 51% of the historic San Francisco craft brewery—rescuing Anchor from imminent 17 bankruptcy; and

18 WHEREAS, In 1971, one-hundred years after Gottlieb Brekle founded the brewery that 19 became Anchor, Fritz began bottling Anchor Steam Beer—the first bottled Anchor Steam in 20 modern times; and

21 WHEREAS, By 1975, Anchor had produced four other distinctive beers, Anchor Porter, 22 Liberty Ale, Old Foghorn Barleywine Ale, and the first annual Christmas Ale; though the terms
23 “microbrewing” and “craft brewing” had yet to be coined, it was clear that Anchor was leading 24 a brewing revolution in San Francisco; and

1 WHEREAS, By 1977, Anchor had five products, a dozen employees and had nearly 2 outgrown its most recent brewery on 8th Street; after a long search, owner Fritz Maytag
3 purchased a wonderful old coffee roastery, built in 1937, on nearby Potrero Hill; on August 13,
4 1979, Anchor brewed its first Steam Beer at its new Mariposa Street home, which remains 5 their home today; and

6 WHEREAS, In 1993, Anchor Brewing became the first brewery in the world with its own
7 in-house distillery, Anchor Distilling, doing for micro-distilling what Anchor Brewing had done 8 for microbrewing; and

9 WHEREAS, After 45 years, Fritz Maytag, announced his retirement with the sale of 10 Anchor Brewing to Keith Greggor and Tony Foglio; Anchor's new owners made plans to 11 preserve and expand the iconic brand's operations and cement its position as a leader in craft 12 brewing; and

13 WHEREAS, In 2017, Anchor Brewing opens Anchor Public Taps, an innovation
14 brewery and public taproom located in Potrero Hill; Public Taps serves as the epicenter of all 15 new beer development at Anchor Brewing; and

16 WHEREAS, In 2017, Historic Japanese brewery Sapporo purchases Anchor Brewing
17 Company, vowing to keep Anchor in San Francisco to preserve its rich legacy and tradition, 18 and invest in it's bright future; and

19 WHEREAS, In 2019, Anchor employees voted to Unionize through the International 20 Longshore and Warehouse Union (ILWU), Local 6, and the pioneer of the craft beer 21 movement became the pioneer of the craft beer union movement; and

22 WHEREAS, In 2021, Anchor celebrated its 125-year anniversary with a fresh new look, 23 and a revelation of its golden future, rooted in Anchor's unique history; and

24 WHEREAS, On July 12, 2023, Sapporo abruptly announced the termination and cease 25 operations at Anchor Brewing and is in the process of negotiating an arrangement with an

1 Assignee to retain as part of a California Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors (ABC), an 2 alternative to filing for bankruptcy; and

3 WHEREAS, Since the announcement that the brewery will cease operations, 4 approximately two dozen investors, individuals and companies have expressed interest in 5 some or parts of Anchor Brewing; and

6 WHEREAS, On July 19, 2023, workers at Anchor Brewing and ILWU Local 6 7 announced an effort to pursue worker ownership of the company in order to keep the historic 8 facility in operation; and

9 WHEREAS, When workers organized to unionize in 2019, they organized because 10 their wages, benefits, and working conditions at Anchor Brewing went from generous to 11 skimpy with paid sick leave, 45 minute paid lunches, and 3% matching retirement taken away; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, Instead of remaining neutral, Sapporo hired union busters to try to 14 dissuade union organizing but the workers persevered and voted to unionize through ILWU 15 Local 6; and

16 WHEREAS, If there is no new ownership or transition, the workers at Anchor Brewing 17 will lose their employment by the end of this month; and

18 WHEREAS, The location of Anchor Brewing and Anchor Public Taps at 1705 Mariposa
19 Street and 495 De Haro Street have been zoned for Production, Distribution, and Repair 20 (PDR) through Planning; and

21 WHEREAS, PDR spaces are limited in San Francisco and are concentrated in District
22 10; and

23 WHEREAS, Under the Planning Code, preservation of PDR spaces is also an 24 important City policy and is intended to encourage the introduction, intensification and 25 protection of a wide range of light and contemporary industrial activities, therefore new

1 housing, large office developments, large-scale retail, and the heaviest of industrial uses,
2 such as incinerators are prohibited; now, therefore, be it

3 RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors encourages Sapporo and 4 the California Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors to work with the approximately two 5 dozen investors, individuals and companies who have expressed interest in some or all parts 6 of Anchor Brewing to reach a deal so that the legacy of Anchor Brewing may continue in San 7 Francisco for many generations to come; and, be it

8 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors urges Sapporo
9 USA to work cooperatively and transparently with their employees through the process of co-10 op conversion, including allowing them enough time to create the legal framework for their 11 cooperative, and raise sufficient funds for purchase, and to not sell off the business's assets
12 before these workers have had sufficient chance to place a fair bid on such assets; and, be it

13 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors encourages 14 whomever the new owners of Anchor Brewing to retain or rehire the existing staff as well as 15 respect future contract negotiations with ILWU Local 6, who represent the workers, to ensure 16 that workers continue to have employment and living wages and good benefits; and, be it

17 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors urges the City
18 and County of San Francisco to preserve the PDR zoning at 1705 Mariposa Street and 495
19 De Haro Street as aligned with City policy intended to encourage the introduction, 20 intensification, and protection of a wide range of light and contemporary industrial activities.
