3 Resolution supporting California Assembly Bill No. 328, authored by Assembly Member 4 David Chiu, and co-authored by Assembly Members Ash Kalra and Buffy Wicks, and 5 co-authored by Senator Scott Wiener, to establish the Reentry Housing Program.

7 WHEREAS, On January 27, 2021, Assembly Member David Chiu introduced California
8 State Assembly Bill No. 328 (AB 328), and co-authored by Assembly Members Ash Kalra and 9 Buffy Wicks, and co-authored by Senator Scott Wiener, to establish the Reentry Housing 10 Program by repurposing funding from the closure of state prisons to provide evidence-based 11 solutions to house people experiencing homelessness with histories of incarceration; and

12 WHEREAS, People on parole are seven times more likely to recidivate when homeless 13 than when housed; and

14 WHEREAS, Evidence shows that “supportive housing,” or housing that is affordable to 15 people on parole living in extreme poverty that does not limit length of stay and offers tenants 16 services promoting housing stability, reduces recidivism; and

17 WHEREAS, Data show that housing decreases recidivism rates by 60%, when 18 compared to control groups, and reduces rearrests by 40%; and

19 WHEREAS, About half of people experiencing homelessness report a history of 20 incarceration; and

21 WHEREAS, Formerly incarcerated people are 27 times more likely to be unstably 22 housed or homeless than the general public; and

23 WHEREAS, African Americans are almost seven times more likely to be homeless than 24 the general population in California, driven by systemic racism that includes disproportionate 25 incarceration, and discharges from prisons and jails into homelessness; and

1           WHEREAS, Projected population decline in California’s state prisons in the next few 2 years is expected to reduce future cost growth for the Department of Corrections and 3 Rehabilitation (CDCR) both through a reduction in incarcerated individuals and staff, as well 4 as the closure of two state facilities; and

5           WHEREAS, California’s incarcerated population is currently at about 94,000 compared 6 to 123,100 in February 2020, a number the California Legislative Analyst’s Office predicts will 7 hold steady for the next several years due to recent efforts to reform the criminal justice
8 system including Proposition 47 in 2014, Proposition 57 in 2016, and the COVID-19 9 pandemic; and

10           WHEREAS, In the short term, the CDCR will save several hundreds of millions of 11 dollars due to a decrease in incarcerated population, which decreases per person costs for 12 clothing, food, etc. and the closure of at least two state correctional facilities between 2021 13 and 2024 would yield savings in utilities, staffing, and equipment, as well as a reduction in the 14 incarcerated and ward population; and

15           WHEREAS, The California Legislative Analyst’s Office estimates $1.5 billion in total 16 savings by 2025 as a result of these changes, freeing valuable resources that can be 17 repurposed for sustainable criminal justice solutions through the CDCR; and

18           WHEREAS, The California Department of Housing and Community Development, with 19 its expertise in overseeing grant programs for housing and services, and counties and 20 continuums of care, which often have experience providing housing and services to people 21 exiting incarceration, is an appropriate entity to administer programs offering evidence-based 22 housing and services interventions to people on parole experiencing homelessness; and

23           WHEREAS, AB 328 will determine protocols to prevent discharges from prison to 24 homelessness and establish guidelines to determine funding availability, five-year renewability 25 requests, and a scoring criteria for applicants in the program; and

1           WHEREAS, AB 328 will allow individuals in the program to use program funds for long-
2 term rental assistance in permanent housing, operating subsidies in affordable or supportive
3 housing units, housing incentives like security deposits and holding fees, assistance services 4 for accessing permanent supportive housing, and service providers offering health and 5 housing stability; and

6           WHEREAS, Participants in the Reentry Housing Program will have access to case 7 management services, parole discharge planning, other services like education and 8 employment services, benefit entitlement application and appeal assistance, transportation
9 assistance to access services, identification assistance, Medi-Cal funded mental health 10 treatment, substance use disorder treatment, and more based on the individual's specific 11 needs; now, therefore, be it

12           RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby supports California
13 Assembly Bill No. 328, Reentry Housing Program, and urges the California State Legislature
14 to pass this bill; and, be it

15           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors hereby directs the Clerk of the 16 Board to transmit a copy of this Resolution to the California State Assembly and the California
17 State Senate as well as the Bill's primary sponsor, Assembly Member David Chiu.

An act to add Chapter 2.9 (commencing with Section 50492) to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 328, as introduced, Chiu. Reentry Housing Program.

Existing law establishes the Department of Housing and Community Development in the Business, Consumer Services, and Housing Agency and makes the department responsible for administering various housing programs throughout the state, including, among others, the Multifamily Housing Program, the Housing for a Healthy California Program, and the California Emergency Solutions Grants Program.

This bill would establish the Reentry Housing Program. The bill would require the department to, on or before July 1, 2022, take specified actions to, upon appropriation by the Legislature, provide grants to counties and continuums of care, as defined, for evidence-based housing and housing-based services interventions to allow people with recent histories of incarceration to exit homelessness and remain stably housed.

The bill would require the department to score applicants to the program competitively according to specified criteria. The bill would require recipients of funds from the program to use those funds for, among other things, long-term rental assistance in permanent housing, incentives to landlords, and services to assist participants in accessing permanent supportive housing. The bill would require the department to distribute funds allocated by executing contracts with awarded entities for a term of 5 years.

The bill would require a recipient of the program to submit an annual report to the department. The bill would require the department to hire an independent evaluator to assess outcomes from the program and would require the department to submit that analysis to specified committees of the Legislature.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the 2 following:
3 (a) People on parole are seven times more likely to recidivate
4 when homeless than when housed.
5 (b) Evidence shows that “supportive housing,” or housing that 6 is affordable to people on parole living in extreme poverty that 7 does not limit length of stay and offers tenants services promoting 8 housing stability, reduces recidivism. In fact, data show 9 evidence-based housing decreases recidivism rates by 60%, when 10 compared to control groups, and reduces rearrests by 40%.
11 (c) About half of people experiencing homelessness report a 12 history of incarceration.
13 (d) Formerly incarcerated people are 27 times more likely to be 14 unstably housed or homeless than the general public.
15 (e) African Americans are almost seven times more likely to be 16 homeless than the general population in California, driven by 17 systemic racism that includes disproportionate incarceration, and 18 discharges from prisons and jails into homelessness.
19 (f) Projected population decline in California’s state prisons in 20 the next few years is expected to reduce future cost growth for the 21 Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) both 22 through a reduction in inmates and staff, as well as the closure of 23 two state facilities. In the short term, the CDCR will save several 24 hundreds of millions of dollars due to a decrease in prison
25 population, which decreases per person costs for clothing, food, 26 etc. The closure of at least two state correctional facilities between

1 2021 and 2024 would yield savings in utilities, staffing, and 2 equipment, as well as a reduction in the inmate and ward
3 population. The Legislative Analyst’s Office estimates $1.5 billion
4 in total savings by 2025 as a result of these changes, freeing
5 valuable resources that can be repurposed for sustainable criminal 6 justice solutions through the CDCR.

7 (g) It is the intent of the Legislature to repurpose funding from 8 the closure of state prisons to provide evidence-based solutions to 9 house people experiencing homelessness with histories of 10 incarceration.

11 (h) The Department of Housing and Community Development, 12 with its expertise in overseeing grant programs for housing and 13 services, and counties and continuums of care, which often have 14 experience providing housing and services to people exiting
15 incarceration, is an appropriate entity to administer programs 16 offering evidence-based housing and services interventions to 17 people on parole experiencing homelessness.

18 SEC. 2. Chapter 2.9 (commencing with Section 50492) is added
19 to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

12 January 1, 2021, for units by number of bedrooms, that must be

22 by the department.

27 to undertake those eligible activities in accordance with the 28 requirements of the program.

29 (q) “Supportive housing” means permanent housing with no
30 limit on the length of stay that is linked to onsite or offsite services 31 that assist the supportive housing residents in retaining the housing, 32 improving their health status, and maximizing their ability to live 33 and, when possible, work in the community. “Permanent supportive 34 housing” includes associated facilities if used to provide services 35 to housing residents.

36 (r) “Voluntary services” means services offered in conjunction 37 with housing where the housing is not contingent on participation

4 Program. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of 9 following to create the program to, upon appropriation by the
