

San Francisco, CA

Experience

MIG, Inc.

Senior Preservation Specialist

Berkeley, CA

February 2022 – Present

Project Manager and principal investigator in the Cultural Places Studio. Project highlights include: Bear Gulch Cultural Landscape Report (Pinnacles National Park), Chief Petty Officers' Neighborhood Historic American Landscapes Survey (Pearl Harbor National Memorial), Thousands Cabins Determination of Eligibility (Yosemite National Park), Keys Ranch Cultural Landscape Report (Joshua Tree National Park), Camp Namanu National Register Nomination (Sandy, OR).

ICF

Senior Architectural Historian

San Francisco, CA

October 2018 – January 2022

Project Manager and principal investigator in the Cultural Resources Group. Project highlights include: Capitol Park Historic Resource Evaluation (Sacramento, CA), Golden Gate Village Character Defining Features Study (Marin City, CA), Market Street Cultural Landscape Evaluation and Better Market Street CEQA compliance (San Francisco, CA).

National Park Service

Historic Preservation Planner

Washington D.C.

April 2017 – October 2018

Compliance coordinator and historic preservation technical lead for three federal grant programs administered by the American Battlefield Protection Program.

The Cultural Landscape Foundation

Project Manager

Washington D.C.

April 2016 – March 2017

Development and technical lead for a national photographic exhibition on the landscape architecture of Lawrence Halprin. Primary author of the 89-page gallery guide on Halprin's body of work, contextualizing thirty landscapes across ten states.

Page & Turnbull

Associate Architectural Historian

San Francisco, CA

May 2013 – March 2016

Architectural Historian in the Cultural Resources Studio. Project highlights include: The Olympic Club Historic Resource Evaluation (San Francisco, CA), Park Merced Historic American Landscapes Survey (San Francisco, CA), Downtown Sonoma Historic Preservation Design Guidelines (Sonoma, CA), 1 Kearny Street National Register Nomination (San Francisco, CA).

Leadership

California Garden and Landscape History Society

Vice President, Annual Conference Co-Chair, and Events Committee Co-Chair

California (statewide)

September 2020 – Present

The National Trust for Historic Preservation

Conference speaker: Climate Adaptation for Buildings and Landscapes (September 2022), Planning for Change at the National Mall (November 2023), Exploring New Orleans' Bayou as Cultural Landscape (October 2024)

Nationwide

California Preservation Foundation

Program presenter: The Secretary of the Interior's Standards – An Intensive Online Series for Planners, Commissioners, and Architects (July - September 2023), Understanding and Evaluating Cultural Landscapes (forthcoming, July 2025)

California (statewide)

Education

Columbia University

M.S. Historic Preservation

New York City, NY

2010

University of California, Santa Cruz

B.A. History

Santa Cruz, CA

2006