[Reasonable rates for California electric consumers.]

Resolution urging the California Public Utilities Commission and the California Legislature to ensure reasonable electric rates and deny utility requests for additional rate increases.

WHEREAS, California is experiencing unprecedented, high wholesale power prices on a sustained basis; and

WHEREAS, Pacific Gas & Electric Company and Southern California Edison Company continue to seek from the California Public Utilities Commission, the California Legislature, and the State and Federal courts authority to pass their high wholesale costs on to their customers; and

WHEREAS, California's electric restructuring law guaranteed frozen rates for customers during the transition to a competitive market; and

WHEREAS, the California legislature adopted the electric restructuring law to bring lower rates to California electric customers; and

WHEREAS, Pacific Gas & Electric Company and Southern California Edison Company have collected in rates at least $17 billion dollars in excess revenues since the rate freeze began in 1997; and

WHEREAS, Pacific Gas & Electric Company and Southern California Edison Company each earned several billion dollars just during 2000 from sales of electricity; and

WHEREAS, the California Public Utilities Commission ordered a rate increase on January 4, 2001, in response to the high wholesale prices and utility claims of financial hardship; therefore, be it
