No Unusual Circumstances

CEQA identifies exceptions to the use of categorical exemptions. These exceptions include projects that present unusual circumstances that could result in a significant effect.

Based on CEQA precedent, the department applies a two-part analysis:

Part 1 Question: Do unusual circumstances exist?

Answer: No, there are no unusual circumstances surrounding the project.

Part 2 Question: Would the project result in significant effects due to unusual circumstances?

Answer: Not applicable - there are no unusual circumstances.
