Attn: San Francisco Board of Supervisors

Re: 2166 Market Street (dba: The Academy)
San Francisco, Ca. 94114

Type 57

Dear Honorable San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

The Academy is the only lgbt brick and mortar social club in the country, and is shaping the future of San Francisco as a gay mecca. It is also a unique business in that it is a subscription model. Unlike the many bars and restaurants that dot the area, members of The Academy can gather and interact with their community without needing to consume anything. What we do offer however, and the reason we believe this type 57 licence is not only a convenience but a necessity, are various courses and experiences. These courses include “The art of tying a bow tie” and “LGBT history”, but also “Reserve Wine tasting”, “Variations on Japanese whiskeys”, “Scotch pairing” and similar events with an aim to foster interaction in an environment outside that of the typical bar culture. One of the things our community needs most are events and places where people meet, interact and engage where the profit model isn’t based on the volume customers consume. The Academy offers its members and their guests the opportunity to form a more refined relationship with spirits and uses these educational opportunities to foster community. To offer these experiences as well as host community fundraising events, community art openings and even weddings from within our membership, the Academy is seeking this type 57 licence, not to open a new bar in the castro, but to create a new more engaging type of community center, and a more rounded community.

Respectfully,

Paul Miller
