Resolution commending John Avalos for his work empowering children, youth, and families in San Francisco.

WHEREAS, John Avalos has worked tirelessly on behalf of children and youth, working families, and other city residents to make City Hall more responsive to their needs; and

WHEREAS, John Avalos has been one of the driving forces in bringing more public participation and openness to the City’s budget process; and

WHEREAS, John Avalos is a recognized leader in the burgeoning movement for greater self-determination for previously disenfranchised communities in land use and planning decisions; and

WHEREAS, John Avalos has been the catalyst for a citywide coalition of community groups, young people, and blue-collar working families based in the City’s historically underserved southeast sector; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED That the Board of Supervisors commends John Avalos for his continued contributions in building a multi-ethnic movement for economic and social justice.
