Form 700 — Excel Spreadsheet Instructions

Excel spreadsheet schedules may be used as an alternative to completing the standard Form 700 filing schedules. Filers should use the most recent version of Excel, and any technical questions relating to the Excel software program should be referred by the filer to his/her agency's information technology staff.

The following tips address questions frequently asked by filers when completing the Excel spreadsheet schedules.

Using the Excel Schedules

1. Cover Page:
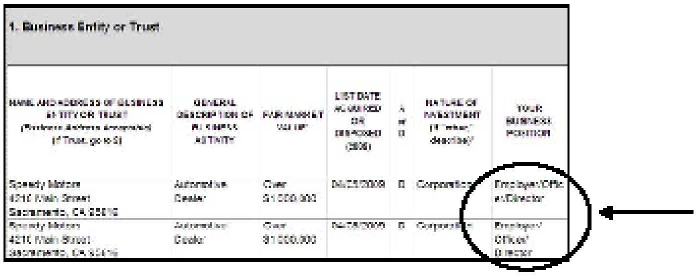
   - The standard Form 700 Cover Page (2nd tab on worksheet) must be completed with an original signature. Attach applicable Excel schedules before submitting the form to your filing officer.
   - The Form 700 Cover Page is in a PDF format rather than an Excel format, so it cannot be automatically saved. You must print the Cover Page as soon as you complete it. Otherwise, the Cover Page information you entered may be cleared.
2. All standard Form 700 instructions apply to the Excel spreadsheet schedules. For quick tips on completing a particular cell, sweep your mouse over that cell's heading where a pop-up box may appear.
3. On Schedules A-2 and B, use the "A or D" column to specify whether an investment or interest in real property has been acquired (A) or disposed (D). Otherwise, leave column blank.
4. If it is necessary to report more than ten sources of income on Schedule A-2, Part 3, use the "Comments" page.
5. Use the "Comments" page to include additional explanatory information.
6. Before printing your form, ensure that there are no BLUE fields. If so, you must complete that cell.
7. After printing, please review your form and discard any unused schedules.

Excel "Help Desk" Tips

1. To enter multiple rows within a cell (such as an address or multiple gifts from the same source), press Alt + Enter.
2. Rows will automatically resize as you enter data.
3. It is common for completed rows to scroll off the screen when making multiple entries on a schedule.
4. Avoid running words together (for example, enter Employer/Officer/Director as Employer/ Officer/ Director – see illustration below).



5. For easier viewing, click the "View" tab on your toolbar and select the "Zoom" feature.
6. To print all the schedules at one time, click the "Entire Workbook" print option. Schedules should be printed on standard 8½ x 11 paper.
