Grant Subaward Budget Narrative

Grant Subaward #: PU 22 010380

Subrecipient: City and County of San Francisco Adult Probation

How the project's proposed budget supports the objectives and activities.

The proposed budget for the Probation Specialized Unit (PU) Program will be used exclusively for staffing. It will dedicate one Deputy Probation Officer (DPO) 0.37 FTE and one full time Public Service Aide (1 FTE). Training and travel related to these positions will be paid for by the grant.

How funds are allocated to minimize administrative costs and support direct services.

The Public Service Aide position will minimize administrative costs and will add value to the Program by supporting the DPO in preparing and distributing educational materials to victims, record contact with victims during the offender's term of probation, schedule contacts with clients on behalf of the Probation Officer, and logging all activities related to the PU.

How shared costs are allocated.

Cost allocations are based on a percentage of the total actual time each employee works on the assigned program.

How program-funded staff duties and time commitments support the proposed objectives and activities.

The San Francisco Adult Probation Department (SFAPD) proposes to develop a caseload of high needs/high risk clients who have been involved in crimes of domestic violence. This caseload will have a reduced size of 40 active clients, focusing on clients who require a higher level of supervision, services, and oversight through the Domestic Violence Court and through their assigned DPO. The focus of this caseload is to implement evidence-based practices to address the criminogenic needs of clients who reside in the following San Francisco neighborhoods: Potrero Hill in Districts 9 and Bayview, Hunters Point, Dogpatch, Central Waterfront, Sunnydale, Potrero Hill in District 10 the Bayview Hunters' Point District and adjacent areas. The goal is to deliver rehabilitation programs to diminish risk factors and provide effective supervision in the form of case management and case planning, that will ultimately reduce recidivism on SFAPD's clients and enhance victims' safety.

Similarly, the assigned PU team will offer support and resources to victims of domestic violence, when allowed by the victims.

The necessity for subcontracts and unusual expenditures.

Need for mid-year salary range adjustments.

Project Narrative

Problem Statement

This proposal is consistent with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) committee's recommendation to enhance specialized units within the California Probation Departments to intensively supervise small caseloads of probationers with a higher emphasis on domestic violence crimes.

Focus on Domestic Violence Cases

The SFAPD prioritizes the supervision of domestic violence clients. There are two Domestic Violence (DV) Units devoted to supervising clients with domestic violence cases. The two DV Units consist of two Supervising Deputy Probation Officers, nine Deputy Probation Officers and one Public Service Aide. One of these DPOs is a Domestic Violence Court Officer, assisting with all matters related to the Domestic Violence Court, which aims to hold individuals accountable to change behavior through effective interventions. A Deputy Probation Officer and a Public Service Aide is assigned to the Domestic Violence Probation Specialized Unit (PU) Program currently funded under this grant. This PU has a reduced caseload dedicated to supervise the most serious domestic violence cases in San Francisco's predetermined geographic area most afflicted by domestic violence cases (i.e., Districts 9 and 10). This funding will allow the SFAPD to maintain an enhanced level of supervision provided by this Specialized Probation Unit Program, which includes:

1. Implementing Principles of Evidence Based Practices (EBP): EBP have been implemented by the SFAPD domestic violence probation specialized unit program and DV Units in general to improve services to clients and victims.
2. Risk and Needs Assessment: Individuals awaiting sentencing for whom the Superior Court requests a presentence investigation are assessed using a validated risk and needs assessment tool. In November, 2017 the SFAPD began implementing a secondary risk assessment tool for clients convicted of DV offenses. As part of this project, deputy probation officers in the DV Units are administering the Ontario Domestic Assault Risk Assessment (ODARA) tool. The ODARA is a validated domestic violence risk assessment tool designed to assess the risk of future intimate partner assault, as well as the frequency and severity of these assaults. The project, which has now turned into a mandated function, has informed our supervision practices and has provided additional DV-specific risk information to the court and deputy probation officers.

3. Individual Treatment and Rehabilitation Plan (ITRP): DPOs develop an ITRP for each client under their supervision based on the criminogenic needs identified in their risk and needs assessments. The ITRP defines the treatment needs, expectations, successful completion of program elements, as well as the consequences for non-participation.
4. Evidence-Based Response to Conditions Violations: The San Francisco DV Court has adopted an evidence-based progressive sanction and incentive program model. The SF DV Court's response to violations consists of a graduated continuum of both sanctions and services. Our goal is to implement the sanctions swiftly, fairly and consistent with the level of the violation.
5. Develop Multi-Model Strategies: The multi-models approach includes cognitively based batterers intervention programming in combination with substance abuse programs (when needed). This is consistent with EBP of targeting multi-criminogenic factors to improve treatment outcomes.
6. Apply the Principles of Effective Reentry Practices: The SFAPD ensures a seamless continuum of management, supervision and intervention; we identify and collaborate with our community and law enforcement partners to establish a collaborative case management approach.

7. Adopt a Victim-Centered Approach: The SFAPD takes very seriously the safety of victims of domestic violence crimes. In the same way, we strive to honor the wishes of victims with regards to contacts with law enforcement, including deputy probation officers. Upon cases being assigned to domestic violence probation specialized unit program and DV Units in general, DPOs make an initial contact with victims to:

- Notifying them of the case assignment;
- Deliver the SFAPD's victim safety and resource guide and restitution rights information;
- Explain the role of the probation officer;
- Discuss the terms and conditions of the offender supervision;
- Assure them of their rights as victims.

During this initial contact, DPOs offer services to victims should they so desire.

DPOs respectfully request the victim's permission to be contacted on a regular basis by the SFAPD during the supervision term of the offender in order to serve as a conduit for resources and support systems. Only when victims agree to such contacts and level of support does the DPO follow through accordingly. An analysis of the geographic distribution of the department's DV clients, shows that 30% of clients reside in Districts 9 (Mission) and 10 (Bayview Hunters Point); specifically the following neighborhoods seem to be the most impacted: Potrero Hill in District 9 and Bayview, Hunters Point, Dogpatch, Central Waterfront and Sunnydale in District 10. Based on this geographic distribution and the department's current resources (office space on the border of Districts 9 and 10), the existing DV specific program receives only clients from these two geographic areas.

DPO Qualification/Training for Probation Specialized Unit (PU) Program Caseload

The minimum qualification for the PU DPO is at least two years' experience supervising high risk cases. The DPO assigned to this caseload is required to attend 40 hours of annual training, which includes 12 hours of specific DV training. The SFAPD's Training Manager maintains all training records and ensures the DPO completes these hours. The DV Units receive training in preparing assessment tools, how to develop an ITRP, re-assessment processes, use of sanctions and incentives/rewards and motivational interviewing. In addition, every year the DPO assigned to the PU attends at least one educational conference on subjects related to the effective supervision of domestic violence offenders and supporting victims of such crimes. Every effort is always made to have the DPO attend these conferences in state.

Protocol for Case Assignment to the PU Program Caseload and Determination of Serious Violent Crimes

All new cases are screened and reviewed by the Community Services Division and Specialized Services Division Directors for assignment. The DV Unit supervisors then assign cases to the PU caseload on the following priority order:

- 1) DV probationers from the Bayview Hunters Point and Mission Districts;
- 2) violent felony crimes;
- 3) violent misdemeanors (reduced from felonies) and
- 4) misdemeanors with an established DV pattern.

The SFAPD considers all domestic violence convictions as serious. All serious violent crimes are listed under sections 1192.7 and 667.5 of the California Penal. Although domestic violence is not listed as a serious or violent felony, intimidation of a witness, criminal threats, inflicting great bodily injury, assault with a deadly weapon are listed and our clients may have these charges or convictions related to domestic violence cases. The risks assessments completed can also identify the most serious and violent crimes (DV Crimes against person and spousal violence) and probationers that have the highest propensity for dangerousness and lethal behavior. By focusing on these two districts and using these targeted approaches, the SFAPD can ensure that the program's caseload is limited to a small and manageable number of clients.

Projected Statistics during the Performing Period

The SFAPD projects that the DPO assigned to the DV PU caseload will complete the following:

a) Number of Supervised Cases: During the grant period, the SFAPD will provide intensive probation services to a caseload of no more than 40 clients convicted of domestic violence crimes that are ordered to complete 52 weeks of Batterers Intervention Program treatment. The probation specialized unit program will allow the SFAPD to continue to deliver intensive services to the 40 highest priority active clients. No more than 20% of the clients will be inactive according to the grant's definition for inactive cases (the client is in custody or warrant status for longer than 30 days and remains assigned to the unit). At a minimum, the DPO will document all attempts to complete 40 field visits, 80 office visits, 40 telephone contacts and 40 substance abuse tests on a monthly basis on the specialized caseload. The DPO will document all contacts and attempted contacts with clients and/or collateral contacts (e.g., attorneys, the court, family members, and service providers –including batterers' intervention programs, among others). The first face-to-face contact with the client will be made by the DPO within 7 working days from the date the case is assigned.

Within 14 days from the date the case is assigned, the DPO will make a face-to-face contact at the client's residence. All office contacts will include an electronic review of police records and tests for substance use (at least once per month). The DPO will conduct field visits during normal business hours, nights and/or weekends. When a case is reassessed to less intensive supervision, the supervisor will transfer the case to a general DV caseload. The DPO will continue to conduct periodic court reviews of active clients and their files.

b) Number of Contacts Made with Victims: During the grant period, the DV PU Program will make an initial contact with all victims of clients assigned to the caseload. If granted permission from the victim the DV PU deputy probation officer will contact victims on a regular basis (weekly or monthly) as requested by the victim and using each victim's preferred mode of contact (in-person: house, community, office, or by telephone, email or mail). Either way, the PU DPO or Public Service Aide will maintain a thorough victim contacts log clearly indicating whether the victim desires to be contacted or not, and the victim's name and contact information, date, time, and method of contact or attempt to contact, a brief description of successful contacts, and any assistance provided to the victim. Based on completed and reported total contacts to victims on in previous years, the SFAPD projects that at least 104 total contacts will be made to victims.

The SFAPD PU team also provides packets of educational information to victims of the clients assigned to the PU caseload. The DPO or Public Service Aide will log the dates the materials were distributed for tracking purposes. The SFAPD has developed a safety guide that includes resources for victims. The guide contains information about the San Francisco District's Attorney's Victim Services, Victims' Bill of Rights, DV resources, a Safety Plan questionnaire, stay away orders information, victim restitution rights, and a victim satisfaction survey. This guide and SFAPD's restitution brochure is sent to each victim of a client on the PU caseload.

Approach to Compliance with Firearms Prohibition

The San Francisco Adult Probation Department Proposition 63 Unit provides a defendant with the Prohibited Persons Relinquishment Form (PPRF), and along with the form, informs the defendant about his or her obligation to comply with the law. The Prop 63 Unit investigates if the defendant owns firearms and if those firearms have been relinquished. The Prop 63 Unit accesses various automated systems that include the Department of Justice (DOJ) Automated Firearm System (AFS) to determine if the defendant has complied with the law. Also, the Prop 63 Deputy Probation Officers collect the PPRF form from the defendant and any records showing the relinquishment of firearms. The Prop 63 Unit informs the Court if the defendant owns, has surrendered firearms to law enforcement, sold to a licensed firearms dealer, transferred to a firearms dealer, or if the defendant has complied with the law. Further, the PPRF form informs the defendant pursuant to Penal Code Section 25135 that cohabitants must store all firearms in accordance with the law. Before a final disposition or sentencing in the case, the Court must make findings concerning whether the probation officer's report indicates that the defendant relinquished all firearms as required, and whether the Court received the completed California Department of Justice documents, along with accompanying receipts, if appropriate.

The PU DPO will also conduct records checks of in the AFS on all 40 clients on in the DV probation specialized unit caseload, each quarter, after the person is sentenced and placed on probation to determine if a client is in possession of a firearm. An AFS log will be maintained to track queries in the AFS. In the event that a records check of the Automated Firearms Systems (AFS) determines a client is in possession of a firearm, the matter will be referred to the San Francisco Police Department to recover the firearm.

The SFAPD routinely works with the District Attorney's Office' Victims Services Unit and the San Francisco Police Department to distribute materials on regarding the firearm prohibition and confiscations laws regarding persons convicted of domestic violence charges. The DPO or Public Service Aide will keep a log of location and dates of materials distributed for tracking purposes.

Capabilities

Administrative and Physical Infrastructures

The SFAPD has the administrative infrastructure necessary to track multiple grants to ensure that the funds are used appropriately and that the goals and objectives for the respective grant programs are monitored to achieve desired outcomes.

The current DV Units operations and staffing protocols have been revised to reflect Evidence Based Practices and to establish DPO contact specifications for clients and victims.

Collaboration with Other Law Enforcement Partner and Victim Services

Grant Subaward Programmatic Narrative

Grant Subaward #: PU 22 01 0380

Subrecipient: City and County of San Francisco Adult Probation

The SFAPD will continue to collaborate with the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD) the San Francisco Sheriff's Department (SFSD), the San Francisco District Attorney's Office (SFDA,) and the San Francisco Public Defender's Office on a number of grants. Deputy Probation Court Officers and Sheriff's and other Criminal Justice Partners' Liaison Officers provide support to five Collaborative Courts, including the Domestic Violence Court.

The SFAPD collaborates with the SFDA Victims Services Unit, the SFSD Victim Restoration Project, the Domestic Violence Consortium, La Casa Shelter, SF's Family Violence Council, Department of Public Health, Child Protective Services, the San Francisco Department of Children, Youth and their Families, the San Francisco Department on the Status of Women, Bay Area Legal Aid, and other agencies to aid in the development of domestic violence protocols and to address system-wide issues and concerns.

The SFAPD respectfully requested that this grant funding be sustained in order for the department to continue to strengthen the services available to clients and victims and to fully measure the impact of this program of public and family safety as well as the wellbeing of victims of domestic violence in the targeted areas.
