6
7 WHEREAS, Deputy City Attorney Matthew D. Davis has served as a Deputy City
8 Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco for more than nine years, and is leaving his 9 City service for new opportunities; and

10 WHEREAS, Matthew has been one of the City's most effective litigators during his 11 tenure, representing the City in many significant lawsuits of great public interest; and

12 WHEREAS, Last year Matthew displayed his talents in a federal court in Florida, and in 13 short-lived litigation in that forum protected the City's right to preserve the name of the Joe 14 DiMaggio Playground in honor of its famous native son, fending off attempts to separate the 15 revered name from the playground; and

16 WHEREAS, Matthew served as a lead deputy in the successful prosecution of 17 consumer fraud actions against several title companies (most notably Old Republic Title 18 Company), obtaining a multi-million dollar award in favor of home buyers, the People of the 19 State of California, and the City; and

20 WHEREAS, Matthew was a core member of the team that successfully sued Bank of 21 America for millions of dollars in damages for false claims made against a host of public 22 entities, including the City, and for other unfair business practices; and

23 WHEREAS, Matthew achieved the quick and effective abatement of IBM's advertising 24 campaign that consisted of vandalizing public property with street graffiti; and

25 WHEREAS, Matthew has been an unfailing friend and colleague to his fellow deputies,

1 and has always had time to brainstorm creative litigation approaches and solutions; and

2 WHEREAS, Matthew has been an innovator in the use of computer technology in 3 furtherance of efficient legal representation of the City; and

4 WHEREAS, Matthew has been an impressive and entertaining contributor to at least a 5 dozen continuing in-house legal education programs and law practice manuals; now, 6 therefore, be it
