Dear Mr. Young,

I am submitting a public comment to support the reappointment of Frances Abigail (Abby) Cabrera in the research/medical institution seat #4 for the Sugary Drinks Distributor Tax Advisory Committee.

I have known Ms. Cabrera for many years and collaborated with her through the UCSF Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute. It was under these auspices that I spent 2009-2016 working with BOS members Eric Mar and Scott Weiner as a scientific advisor to craft and see to fruition the original San Francisco Sugary Beverages Distributors Fee. This important health policy has not only brought documented health benefits to the population of San Francisco but has encouraged a broader soda tax movement in the Bay Area and across 117 nations and territories.

Ms. Cabrera has had the enduring support of scientists such as me in her work on the SDDTAC, allowing her to make recommendations that use the latest evidence to optimize community investments of soda tax proceeds in continued health improvements for San Franciscans. She has served the committee diligently, and with a sincere commitment to health equity and public transparency. Based on her strong track of serving on the SDDTAC, I strongly encourage you to retain her on the committee, ideally, in her current role as a co-chair.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to me for further comment,
