SF RISE will develop a plan to address learning loss during distance learning, increase enrollment of San Francisco youth in SFUSD schools, and enhance enrichment activities like music, arts, and sports at SFUSD schools. The SF RISE Working Group is charged with creating the plan and is made up of representatives from SFUSD's Superintendent, the Educators Unions working in SFUSD schools, the Department of Children Youth & their Families, and experts in the fields of child health, education philanthropy, and out of school academic and family support programs. The SF RISE Working Group will continue to meet throughout this academic year to refine its recommendations. However, the Working Group will present its preliminary recommendations prior to the commencement of the 2021-22 Academic Year.

Requesting a hearing on the Preliminary Recommendations of the SF RISE Working Group. Asking members of the Workgroup to present as well as representatives from SFUSD and the Department of Children Youth & their Families to discuss how the initial plan will be implemented.
