Resident of San Francisco Yes No If No, place of residence: _____

Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

For over three decades, I have served diverse economically challenged communities in the BAY AREA. For much of the last two decades, I have served in SF, beginning during the 90's with the SF Historical and Cultural Society, where I instituted a HOMEWORK, HOMEWORK PROGRAM for the Fillmore area PUBLIC HOUSING youth. As a result (then) Mayor Brown, and (then) State Senate Pres. Kevin Shelly, along with the SF Public Library awarded me an Unsung Hero Award. More recently, I have been doing Cultural Anthropological Studies in the Tenderloin area. From such, I have developed several methodologies to assist criminally justice challenged individuals to overcome much of what is ailing them. Also, I have been extremely politically active where my company has made much of my income, and worked at the El Hill Hutch Center

Business and/or professional experience:

In '86 I licensed DuPres Consults "we get results." My company has worked as a political, business and community relations consultant in various places in the U.S. i.e. Louisiana, Texas, Nevada, California. In the BAY AREA, I have consulted as a GOTV (Get Out the Vote) specialist. I have worked with the Public Housing Tenant Association in the 90's, at one time producing a higher voter turnout percentage than any other single category during a previous Mayoral race in the 90's. As of late, through my company, I have consulted and worked with many community grass rooted groups. I also served as a DEPRECORPS/USTA

Civic Activities:

From age 19 when I served as the (at that time) youngest Executive member as 2nd Vice President of the Daly City chapter of the NAACP, to serving at the Center for African Af. Am. Art and Culture (now the Af. Am. Cultural Center) and also as a committee board member of the Af. Am. Committee for the CA Museum of Oakland, I have been active in civic activities. I have also worked with residents of the Hispanic and Asian community and nearly all political groups. I am also proficient in French. It is my goal to always be as civically active as possible, as community study and work is my volition.

Have you attended any meetings of the Board/Commission to which you wish appointment? Yes No

Not only am I formerly incarcerated and live in San Francisco, but I am also the Director of Reintegration of a SOIC(3), "The Alliance for Change", which runs leadership and mentoring programming in San Quentin State Prison and assists affiliated men with their reintegration into the community upon release. Part of our vision statement is that we "...work to eliminate prejudice and discrimination based on stigmas as varied as race, gender, nationality, sexual orientation, age, disability and faith..."

Business and/or professional experience:

Not only do I personally assist and support men with their reintegration, but also organize other community members to assist also. I have knowledge about transitional housing both in San Francisco and the East Bay. I guide both pooled Alliance affiliated men and Prison University Project alumni through their first months of needs and provide continued support afterwards, including teaching how to use cell phones, and computers.

Civic Activities:

Not only am I co-founder of the Alliance for Change, which was founded within San Quentin, I was ^{also} instrumental in making it a non profit organization in the outside community. I was also instrumental in starting Alliance clubs both in the University of San Francisco, (The USF Alliance for Change), and at San Francisco State University (The Alliance for Change at SFSU). These clubs provide community awareness in social justice issues and a source of volunteers.

It is a requirement that all appointees to Seats 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Reentry Council have been an inmate in the San Francisco County Jail, a California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation facility, and/or a United State Bureau of Prison facility. Please answer all of the following questions.

1. Have you ever been an inmate of (check all that apply):

San Francisco County Jail? yes

California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation* facility? yes

United States Bureau of Prisons facility? yes

California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) operates the facilities previously operated by the California Department of Corrections (CDC) and the California Youth Authority (CYA).*

2. The person appointed to Seat 2 must have expertise in providing services to individuals exiting the criminal justice system. Do you have experience or expertise in providing services to individuals exiting the criminal justice system? yes no If yes, please describe:
I have been assisting men paroling from San Quentin State Prison with their reentry and reintegration into the outside community. Assistance ranges from pick up to acquiring phones and computers, identification cards, bikes, and technical assistance and emotional support.

Board of Supervisors Supplemental Application for Appointment to the Reentry Council

(Form effective July 2011)

3. The person appointed to Seat 3 must have been released from custody within two years of his or her appointment. If you were released from custody within the last two years, on what date were you released? December 27, 2011

4. The person appointed to Seat 4 must have served multiple terms of incarceration. Multiple terms could include more than one term served in the same facility, or more than one term served in different facilities. Have you served multiple terms of incarceration? yes no

5. What was your experience transitioning back to San Francisco after having been incarcerated? What helped you? What were the barriers? Establishing a support system before paroling helped me tremendously. They were able to assist with clothing and technological needs; they also spent time with me as I learned my way around the city by using bike paths and public transportation. Barriers were having no road map to inform me of what services are available in San Francisco. As I've found them, I have been able to document them for others, but I'm finding it difficult for some people to make a detailed life plan without knowing exactly what is available to them.

6. How can we help other people transition from prisons and jails more successfully? How can we help people permanently exit the criminal justice system? More accurate assessments. Current assessment practices seem too generalized so that more specific personal needs get overlooked. We can also encourage transitional programs to adopt more flexible policies so as to best serve populations that they have not traditionally served; such as those who do not have substance abuse or gang issues, but who's greatest need is to reconnect with the community and have better access to their support systems.

7. What do you hope that the Reentry Council will achieve? I hope that the Reentry Council will surpass ensuring reentry services and will ultimately assist in not only the economic, but emotional and psychological reintegration of formerly incarcerated people into the fabric of the community.

If necessary, please attach supplemental sheet(s) and/or attachments.

1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Rm 244

Dear Board of Supervisors,

My name is David Cowan, and I am interested in serving on the San Francisco Reentry Council as a formerly incarcerated member. I have attached my application and one support letter.

I have experience starting, running and facilitating a variety of programs inside of prison, as well as similar experience in the community. I work for the Prison University Project, which runs the college program in San Quentin and I am a co-founder and the Director of Reintegration for the Alliance for Change, a nonprofit that runs programming inside of San Quentin and assists men with their reintegration into the community upon release.

I hope to be of valuable service to the Council as well as learn much from it.

Thank you,

David Cowan

Dear Ms. Moore-Jordan:

I am writing to strongly recommend David Cowan for appointment to the Reentry Council of San Francisco. He has deep personal and professional experience in this field and a strong creative and organizational skill set that will enormously benefit the Reentry Council.

I have enjoyed working with David in a variety of professional circles, most notably:

- 1) Providing much needed professional support for the educational and rehabilitative programs at San Quentin State Prison.
- 2) Developing reintegration services for the Alliance for Change – a non-profit he co-founded in 2009.

While I was a fulltime volunteer with the Office of Community Partnerships at San Quentin, David was the primary support available for scheduling and logistics needs for the rehabilitative and educational programs at the prison. In addition to his regular job supporting the college program at San Quentin, David maintained and regularly improved the databases that coordinated over 100 secular programs, and freely offered assistance to maintain and update the religious program databases, as well. More importantly, he was known universally as a skilled, efficient and friendly resource who would bend over backward to make sure the programs continued to run and attendees had access to their classes every day. Upon his departure, his formal and informal duties were divided up among 2 full-time and 3 part-time clerks – a testament to the amount of work David was able to manage so well.

Little did I know at the time how deeply his involvement in rehabilitative programs at the prison ran. As I'm sure David can tell you himself, he thought strategically and critically about how to best serve the population inside San Quentin, particularly in preparation for and beyond each man's release. Dissatisfied with the effectiveness of existing classes and interventions, David and a few close friends, in collaboration a group of volunteers from local universities, designed their own curriculum and formed a cross-walled community of positive-minded men and women dedicated to being a force of growth and renewal in the communities in which they live and to which they would return. This community became the non-profit organization, Alliance for C.H.A.N.G.E. (Creating Hope and New Goals Ethically).

David embodies the type of community member his organization envisions. He is generous with his time and personal resources – he teaches men how to use a cell phone and the internet, he offers both informational and emotional support to newcomers through 1:1 and small group “adventures” on public transit and throughout the city, and he looks for opportunities to connect recently released people with employment opportunities. He also freely volunteers his time to community improvement projects such as refurbishing the transitional home he began his own journey in 2011.

David and I have worked together to translate this personal generosity into formal services offered by the Alliance for CHANGE’s reintegration services. For example, we have instituted the Alliance’s “Day 1” services including:

- 1) picking men up from the gate upon release from San Quentin and going out for a first breakfast
- 2) providing a phone (paid up for 1 month) on each person’s first day out to ensure their safety and enable them to reconnect with distant family and celebrate this hugely emotional transition
- 3) transporting each man to his parole office and transitional house to make sure the important early check-ins happen on time
- 4) most importantly, providing emotional and logistical support during what can be a stressful and confusing day.

David has been and will continue to be a great resource for men transitioning from incarceration into the San Francisco Bay Area; his participation on the Reentry Council of San Francisco will broaden his ability to be a force for good in his community, and greatly expand the Council’s ability to make effective, rational and responsive services available to the men and women who so greatly need them.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Carter, PhD

5. What was your experience transitioning back to San Francisco after having been incarcerated? What helped you? What were the barriers?
I found it difficult to transition back into normal life. There are a lot of restrictions placed on people labeled "ex-offenders", which includes a lot of stigma. Thankfully, I had an awesome support team to fall back on; I'd find it nearly impossible to have to try to do it on my own and/or homeless!

6. How can we help other people transition from prisons and jails more successfully? How can we help people permanently exit the criminal justice system?
I feel that having a strong support network for the formerly incarcerated to access is crucial. This network should hopefully consist of family and friends of the client, but also include social workers and advocates, Doctors and Mentors.

7. What do you hope that the Reentry Council will achieve?
I hope the Reentry Council will achieve success rooting out the causes of failure for those reentering society. Once those roots are identified, I further hope the Council will make recommendations and take action to ensure that they are eliminated, so each person has a fighting chance to succeed!

If necessary, please attach supplemental sheet(s) and/or attachments.

It is a requirement that all appointees to Seats 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Reentry Council have been an inmate in the San Francisco County Jail, a California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation facility, and/or a United State Bureau of Prison facility. Please answer all of the following questions.

1. Have you ever been an inmate of (check all that apply):

San Francisco County Jail? yes

California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation* facility? yes

United States Bureau of Prisons facility? yes

California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) operates the facilities previously operated by the California Department of Corrections (CDC) and the California Youth Authority (CYA).*

2. The person appointed to Seat 2 must have expertise in providing services to individuals exiting the criminal justice system. Do you have experience or expertise in providing services to individuals exiting the criminal justice system? yes no If yes, please describe:

I have 5+ years experience working in HIV/AIDS research with participants exiting the SF County Jail system. I have also conducted research with formerly incarcerated women exiting the SF County Jail system to help identify barriers to successful reentry. I am the first author of Santa Clara County's 2012 Strategic Reentry Plan for which I conducted extensive literature reviews on evidence-based practices to prevent recidivism in high risk offenders. In addition, I taught a non-credit course for the City College of San Francisco; all of my students were court mandated to attend due to Proposition 36, The Substance Abuse and Crime Prevention Act.

3. The person appointed to Seat 3 must have been released from custody within two years of his or her appointment. If you were released from custody within the last two years, on what date were you released? N/A

4. The person appointed to Seat 4 must have served multiple terms of incarceration. Multiple terms could include more than one term served in the same facility, or more than one term served in different facilities. Have you served multiple terms of incarceration? yes no

5. What was your experience transitioning back to San Francisco after having been incarcerated? What helped you? What were the barriers? I aged out of the system. I was truly tired of going back forth to jail. JVS worked with me to find a job paying a living wage, so I could adequately support my family. After I was on the job, my co-workers, whom happened to be medical professionals, encouraged me to go to college. College gave me hope, and I excelled. I was able to obtain a Masters Degree in Education with an emphasis in Adult Education. There were many barriers. The first barrier was it took me two years to find a decent job. The second barrier was I lived in public housing, which was drug infested and had a high level of criminal activity. The third barrier was there no place I could afford to live in San Francisco that was not drug infested. I felt hopeless because I could never own anything in the city I was born and raised.

6. How can we help other people transition from prisons and jails more successfully? How can we help people permanently exit the criminal justice system? Provide them with encouragement opportunities to excel beyond what is expected, such as opportunities for living wages, home ownership, business entrepreneurship, degree completion, etc. Also, create more opportunities for the family to stay intact during drug treatment.

7. What do you hope that the Reentry Council will achieve? I hope that they will address and improve the disproportionate rate of incarceration among Black people in San Francisco.

5. What was your experience transitioning back to San Francisco after having been incarcerated? What helped you? What were the barriers?

My transition was facilitated by the fact that I knew the director of a sober living environment which would provide housing a day after I was released. My transition was also greatly facilitated by having my fiancé there to assist me with moral, material, and logistical support (after 20 years of incarceration). Barriers that I've encountered are: lack of housing immediately following release (having to register as homeless because I am outside county of commitment and no family); not being provided resources to navigate around the city but yet expected to report to various locations at various times; not being able to visit my family despite my laudable programming on parole (full-time student at SFSU and part-time employed); no credit and background checks prevent housing opportunities; having a gap in my employment history (I was incarcerated at the age of 17 and released at 37).

6. How can we help other people transition from prisons and jails more successfully? How can we help people permanently exit the criminal justice system?

Eliminating the "conviction" question on employment applications; forbidding parole agents to contact employers unless circumstances warrant such contact; provide material resources (transportation tokens, tools, food vouchers, etc.) while parolee establishes employment; implement "re-integration" programs as opposed to just "re-entry" programs.

7. What do you hope that the Reentry Council will achieve?

A reduction in the recidivism rate, a reduction in substance abuse, a reduction in the crime rate in San Francisco, and the implementation of "re-integration" programs that will mend the relationship between offender and community and result in the aforementioned.

If necessary, please attach supplemental sheet(s) and/or attachments.

DeAngelo A Cortijo

1. What was your experience transitioning back to San Francisco after having been incarcerated? What helped you? What were the barriers?

Every area of my life was impacted after my release. My family and old associates were unfamiliar and the environment was overwhelmingly different. The juvenile court imposed dozens of limitations on me, including GPS monitoring. It was difficult to adjust to the workforce which resulted in me hopping from job to job. During this time my grandfather passed which had a silently devastating impact on me. I was lonely because I did not possess interpersonal relationship skills. I was put on a long wait list for independent housing and struggled with gaining access to health care.

What helped me the most was the motivation to change my life and help others. The opportunity came when I was invited to Boston (see attachment) to attend a learning exchange to address correctional and reentry education. I was able to share my story and broaden my perspective on the Juvenile Justice System. I was subsequently invited as a guest speaker to Gate Way High School, San Francisco State University and Ella Baker Center. These experiences provided me with more motivation, hope and knowledge.

There are several barriers preventing me from autonomy:

- Housing
- Health Care
- Full Time Employment
- Safe Transportation
- Probation

2. How can we help other people transition from prisons and jails more successfully? How can we help people permanently exit the criminal justice system?

Successful reentry starts with effective programs prior to release. The individual must also be fully committed to changing. We can aid successful transitioning by gaining community and governmental support in the following areas:

- Housing
- Counseling
- Health Care
- Employment
- life Skill classes
- Traveling

3. What do you hope that the Reentry Council will achieve?

I hope the reentry council will gain the support of the community and develop effective strategies to unifying reentry/transitional organizations. I hope that the council can develop programs, gain funding and community input. The success of this council will play a factor in crime reduction, personal development and safer communities.

STANLEY GOFF, J.D., M.A., B.A., A.A. (Attorney, Motivational Speaker, Reentry Consultant, Author)

Stanley Goff is a former inmate who was in and out of juvenile facilities and county jails, a former fugitive on the run for two years, who ultimately wound up serving a total of eight years in California state prisons for selling cocaine which stemmed from me serving two prison terms (One term from 1993 to 1995) and the (other term from 1996 to 2001). However, while he was incarcerated in 1996, and waiting for his 2001 release date, a change took place in his life. He decided that he no longer wanted to serve "life" on the installment plan and that he wanted to be a positive example for his then three-year old son. He started to take steps to self-educate himself while he was locked up. He read hundreds of social and politically conscious books in order to increase his vocabulary, reading comprehension and general understanding of political and social issues in the United States and around the world. He also worked on his own criminal appeal and provided legal help to other prisoners, which sparked an interest inside him to study law. It was during this time period that he decided that he wanted to go to law school and become an attorney. However, this objective was going to be a difficult one, because the highest level of education that he had at that time was a G.E.D. with an extensive criminal history.

Upon his release from prison in December of 2001, He decided to enroll in college to increase his chance at successful reentry, be an example to others facing the same challenges and to pursue his goal of becoming an attorney.

He obtained an A.A. degree in Paralegal Studies from City College of San Francisco in 2004, a B.A. degree in Political Science from San Francisco State University in 2005 and an M.A. degree in Political Science from San Francisco State University in 2007. He then went on to obtain a Juris Doctorate degree from John F. Kennedy University in 2009. He passed the Feb 2013 California Bar Exam and he is now a practicing attorney. Stanley Goff is also a Motivational Speaker addressing reentry related issues such as the importance of post secondary education to those who are incarcerated, have been incarcerated or who are at risk of incarceration and he is the author of "Punishment Beyond the Crime" "The Non-Democratic Treatment of Ex-Felons in the United States." Stanley Goff has lectured to at-risk youth in San Francisco about the importance of staying away from crime, as well as given motivational speeches to parolees at Parole Orientation Meetings.
