LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Amending the Charter definition of voter.]

A proposal to amend the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco at an election to be held on November 2, 2010 by amending Article XVII to change the definition of "voter."

Existing Law

The Charter defines "voter" as "an elector who is registered in accordance with the provisions of state law." An elector is a person registered to vote in the City and County of San Francisco. State law establishes eligibility requirements and procedures for registering to vote. It also establishes a voter registration deadline of fifteen days before an election.

Under current law, voter registration in the City and County of San Francisco is conducted according to state law. There are no local registration procedures that differ from state law.

Amendments to Current Law

This proposal would change the definition of voter to include persons registered to vote in accordance with municipal law, as well as persons registered to vote in accordance with state law. This would permit San Francisco to establish local voter registration procedures for exclusively municipal elections. If San Francisco established local registration procedures, a person registered according to these local procedures would be a "voter" under the new Charter definition.

Background Information

This charter amendment would permit San Francisco to establish local voter registration procedures for exclusively municipal elections. For example, San Francisco could adopt same day voter registration for municipal elections.
