15 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

16 Section 1. Background and Findings

17 (a) Beginning January 1, 2018, state law has mandated that youths 15 years of age or 18 younger consult with legal counsel prior to a custodial interrogation or a waiver of Miranda
19 rights. Cal. Welf. & Inst. Code Section 625.6. The state law mandate does not cover youths 20 aged 16 and 17. But there are compelling reasons to extend the same type of mandate within 21 the City to youths who are 16 or 17.

22 (b) Developmental and neurological sciences suggest that the brain's cognitive 23 function continues to develop through young adulthood.

24 (c) Youths aged 16 and 17 generally have not yet formed the mental capacity, on their 25 own, to understand Miranda rights. Youths aged 16 and 17 also often lack the experience and maturity to understand Miranda rights. The Flesch-Kincaid readability test, which is one

1 of the most widely used tools for assessing readability of written materials, indicates that to 2 understand Miranda rights, a person must have at least a twelfth-grade reading 3 comprehension level. Most 16- and 17-year-olds are in the tenth and eleventh grade, and 4 many lack a twelfth-grade reading comprehension level.

5 (d) An extensive body of literature demonstrates that juveniles are more suggestible 6 than adults, may easily be influenced by questioning from authority figures, and may provide 7 inaccurate reports when questioned in a leading, repeated, and suggestive fashion. (In J.D.B.
8 v. North Carolina, 131 U.S. 2394 (2012)). Recent research has shown that more than one-9 third (35%) of proven false confessions were obtained from suspects under the age of 18.
10 (Drizen & Leo, The Problem of False Confession in the Post – DNA World (2004) 82 N.C.L.
11 Rev. 891, 902, 944-945. fn 5. The leading study of 125 proven false confession cases, cited
12 by the Supreme Court in Corley v. U.S., 129 U.S. 1558 (2009) and J.D.B. v. North Carolina
13 131 U.S. 2394 (2012), found that 63% of false confessors were under the age of 25 and 32%
14 were under 18. In another respected study of 340 exonerations that have taken place since 15 1989 (Samuel R. Gross et al., Exoneration in the United States 1989 Through 2003, 95.
16 J.Crim. L. &Criminology 523-53 (2005)), researchers found that juveniles under the age of 18 17 were three times as likely to falsely confess as adults; a full 42% of juvenile exonerees had 18 falsely confessed, compared to only 13% of wrongfully convicted adults. In another study, an 19 examination of 103 wrongful convictions of factually innocent teenagers and children found 20 that a false confession contributed to 31.1% of the juvenile cases studied, as compared 21 against only 17.8% of adult wrongful convictions. (Joshua A. Tepfer, Laura H. Nirider, &
22 Lynda Tricarico, Arresting Development: Convictions of Innocent Youth, 64 Rutgers L. Rev.
23 887, 904 (2010).

24 (e) State law requires police officers to notify a minor’s parent, guardian, or a 25 responsible relative when the minor is taken into custody, and also gives the minor the right to

1 make two phone calls. Cal. Welf. & Inst. Code Section 625.6 9(a)(b). State law does not 2 require that parents be permitted to be with their minor child, while the child is in police 3 custody.

5 Section 2. The Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Chapter 96C,
6 consisting of Sections 96C.1, 96C.2, 96C.3, ~~and 96C.4,~~ and 96C.5, to read as follows:

8 CHAPTER 96C: POLICE INTERROGATION OF YOUTH - JEFF ADACHI YOUTH RIGHTS
9 ORDINANCE

11 SEC 96C.1. TITLE OF CHAPTER 96C.

12 This Chapter 96C shall be known as the Jeff Adachi Youth Rights Ordinance.

14 SEC. 96C.2. ~~96C.1.~~ RESTRICTIONS ON INTERROGATION.

15 (a) The Police Department (“SFPD”) may not subject a person 17 years of age or younger
16 (“Youth”) to a custodial interrogation or question or engage in unnecessary conversation with Youth 17 who are not free to leave, unless and until the following two conditions have been met:

18 (1) The Youth consults with legal counsel in person, by telephone, or by video
19 conference, which consultation must occur before the waiver of any Miranda rights. This consultation 20 with legal counsel may not be waived.

21 (2) Following the ~~legal~~ consultation with legal counsel, SFPD shall allow the parent
22 a Responsible Adult, defined as: (A) the Youth’s parents; (B) a relative 18 years of age or over 23 who is related to the youth Youth by blood or adoption, or affinity within the fifth degree of 24 kinship, including stepparents, stepsiblings, and all relatives whose status is preceded by the 25 words “great,” “great-great,” or “grand,” or the spouse of any of these persons described in

1 this subsection (a)(2)(B) even if the marriage was terminated by death or dissolution; (C) or a 2 person 18 years of age or over who has a mentoring or an established familial relationship
3 with the Youth or a relative of the Youth or a familial or mentoring relationship with the youth;
4 (D) the Youth's teacher, medical professional, clergy, neighbor, social worker, or mental 5 health clinician; or (E) or child advocate from an employee of a non-profit or community 6 organization whose primary focus is assisting youth. The Responsible Adult may not be who 7 is not a person of interest or a suspect in the incident or subject matter giving rise to the 8 custodial interrogation or questioning of the Youth. If the Youth does not object to the 9 identified Responsible Adult's presence, the Responsible Adult may be present either in 10 person, by telephone, or by video conference during the custodial interrogation and when 11 SFPD questions or engages in unnecessary conversation with the Youth who is not free to 12 leave. immediate access to the Youth by the parent, guardian, or a responsible relative 13 (collectively, "parent") to be present either in person, by telephone, or by video conference
14 during the custodial interrogation and when SFPD questions or engages in unnecessary
15 conversation with the Youth who is not free to leave. But while this subsection (a)(2) allows 16 parental attendance by the Responsible Adult while SFPD subjects the Youth to a custodial 17 interrogation or when SFPD questions or engages in unnecessary unnecessary conversation with the 18 Youth who is not free to leave, this subsection (a)(2) also recognizes that the parent Responsible 19 Adult may not violate California Penal Code Section 148, which forbids willfully delaying or 20 obstructing a police investigation.

21 (3) For purposes of this subsection (a), "unnecessary conversation" means 22 communications with the Youth that are not designed to address the Youth's physical needs or to give 23 the Youth directions relating to operation of the facility where the Youth is detained.

24 (b) The restrictions imposed by subsection (a) do not apply to a custodial interrogation or when 25 SFPD questions a Youth who is not free to leave, when:

1           (1) An SFPD officer questions a Youth after reasonably concluding that the information 2 the officer is seeking is necessary to protect life or property from an imminent threat; and

3           (2) The SFPD officer limits the questions to those reasonably necessary to obtain that 4 information. Other questions to the Youth, if any, are subject to the restrictions imposed by subsection 5 (a).

6           SEC. 96C.3. 96C.2. PROVISION OF COUNSEL.

7           The Public Defender's Office shall provide ~~counsel~~ legal advice limited in scope for the 8 Youth during the consultation and custodial interrogation referenced in subsection (a) of Section
9 96C.296C.4. The Youth may instead retain private counsel, but not at the expense of the City, absent 10 appointment by the court.

11           SEC. 96C.4. 96C.3. UNDERTAKING FOR THE GENERAL WELFARE.

12           In enacting and implementing this Chapter 96C, the City is assuming an undertaking only to 13 promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an 14 obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any person who claims that such breach 15 proximately caused injury.

16           SEC. 96C.4. 96C.4. SEVERABILITY.

17           If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Chapter 96C, or any 18 application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a 19 decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining 20 portions or applications of the Chapter. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have 21 passed this Chapter and each and every section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and word not 22 declared invalid or unconstitutional without regard to whether any other portion of this Chapter or 23 application thereof would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.
