Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

Section 1. The San Francisco Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Sections 30.30 through 30.35, to read as follows:

Chapter 30: Centralization of Workforce Development

Article III: Public Service Academies

SEC. 30.30. FINDINGS.

(a) The Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor reported that the proportion of Americans between 16 and 24 years old who were employed in July of 2009 was 51.4 percent, the lowest July rate on record for the series, which began in 1948.

(b) In November of 2009, the unemployment rate for Americans between 16 and 19 years old was over 40 percent, which is the highest rate of teenage unemployment in the United States since World War II.

(c) The Fall 2008 YouthVote Student Survey found that 84 percent of San Francisco Unified School District ("SFUSD") students said they "would enjoy skill or job-training classes at school."

1 (d) A national survey of 1,379 parents of children in public school conducted by Public Agenda
2 in 2006 found that 71 percent of parents agreed that "updating high school classes to better match the
3 skills employers want" will improve high school education.

4 (e) Training programs focused on preparing high school students for public safety or public
5 health careers would provide real-life applications for students' coursework and encourage them to 6 finish their education.

7 (f) Training programs for public safety or public health careers would provide students with
8 relevant knowledge and experience to enter into high-quality careers working for the City and County
9 of San Francisco.

10 (g) A 2007 report by the Career Academy Support Network and the California Center for 11 College and Career found that students enrolled in California Partnership Academies (three-year high 12 school programs that integrate academic and career-focused education) outperformed students
13 statewide in a number of areas:

14 (i) Sophomores enrolled in CPAs were more likely to pass the California High School
15 Exit Exam (CAHSEE) on the first attempt compared with sophomores statewide.

16 (ii) The improvement in performance on the CAHSEE by CPA students was most 17 significant for African American and Latino students.

18 (iii) Fifty percent of CPA graduates fulfilled the University of California's General
19 Subject Areas requirements (known as "A through G" requirements) compared with 35 percent
20 of high school graduates statewide.

21 (h) The Department of Human Resources reports that there are a significant number of San 22 Francisco public safety employees who are at or nearing retirement age and whose positions will
23 potentially need to be filled over the next five years:

24 (i) There are 358 San Francisco police officers who are currently eligible to retire with 25 maximum benefits, and 661 officers who will be eligible within 5 years.

1 (ii) There are 168 San Francisco firefighters who are currently eligible to retire with
2 maximum benefits, and 348 firefighters who will be eligible within 5 years.

3 (iii) There are 100 San Francisco Deputy Sheriffs who are currently eligible to retire
4 with maximum benefits, and 191 Deputy Sheriffs who will be eligible within 5 years.

5 (i) The Department of Human Resources reports that a minority of San Francisco firefighters
6 and police officers live in San Francisco: 34 percent of firefighters and 25 percent of police officers.

7 (j) Training SFUSD graduates will provide the City and County of San Francisco with 8 potential employees who have valuable personal experience with life in San Francisco and are 9 uniquely prepared to work with San Franciscans and to respond to emergencies or natural disasters.

YOUTH COMMISSION MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Members, San Francisco Board of Supervisors

CC: Alisa Somera, Clerk, Land Use and Economic Development Committee

FROM: Peter Lauterborn, Education Policy Coordinator, Youth Commission
Mario Yedidia, Policy Coordinator, Youth Commission

DATE: February 2, 2010

RE: Proposed ordinance File No. 100054 [Workforce Development—Public Service Academies]

At our regular meeting of Monday, February 1, 2010, the San Francisco Youth Commission voted unanimously to support proposed ordinance file no. 100054.

We are particularly passionate about this ordinance because of our sustained work in developing a comprehensive school-to-career policy. In the spring of 2009, the Youth Commission drafted a resolution calling on the City and County of San Francisco to coordinate with the San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) to expand Career Technical Education opportunities and promote public sector career opportunities for SFUSD graduates. The final version of this resolution (which was also approved unanimously by the Youth Commission on Monday, February 1, 2010) is attached to this memorandum.

Along with our support, the Youth Commission also wants to express its interest in seeing amendments to this proposed ordinance that reflect the full scope of the Youth Commission's recommendations concerning youth workforce development.

Our recommendations include investing the Office of Economic and Workforce Development with a number of critical tasks: locating internships and possible job placements in various City departments for qualified SFUSD graduates, while coordinating with the SFUSD, San Francisco City College and other local post-secondary institutions; creating and managing—in coordination with the Controller and the Budget Analyst—tuition support mechanisms (like college loans) for SFUSD graduates; and developing a ten year implementation plan in collaboration with other City departments, the SFUSD and local post-secondary schools that will prepare native San Franciscans for public service jobs that require advanced degrees. For the full scope of our recommendations, please see the attached resolution.

Finally, the Youth Commission is working in partnership with the SFUSD to draft a policy complementing this ordinance and the Youth Commission's suggested amendments.

20 of both high school and higher education; and
