9 WHEREAS, The California Victim Compensation Board provides financial support and

20 WHEREAS, The application process for accessing these services can be lengthy and 21 burdensome; and

22 WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. (SB) 993 improves access to support and

1 WHEREAS, SB 993 would increase the compensation cap, improve access to financial 2 assistance for mental health services and expand access to lost income or support services

3 WHEREAS, SB 993 would allow community organizations to provide direct cash 4 assistance to violent crime survivors with minimal administrative burden; and

5 WHEREAS, The bill would streamline the claims process for Victim Compensation 6 Board benefits; and

9 disqualification, denials related to law enforcement cooperation, discretionary denials that 10 blame the victim for their own victimization; and

11 WHEREAS, Improve support for exonerees, including compensation for time spent on 12 parole or probation and for attorney's fees associated with overturning a conviction or 13 securing a pardon; now, therefore, be it
