Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

San Francisco's charter requires that its appointive boards reflect the diversity that makes this city great. Like many San Franciscans, I am not a native. I grew up in Los Angeles, spent nearly a decade on the East Coast (in school and as an ESL teacher), and moved to San Francisco in 2013 because I dreamed of spending the rest of my life here. I now own an apartment in the Mission, live in Duboce Triangle, and have worked downtown and in the Tenderloin; as a result, I have witnessed the challenges and successes of a range of neighborhoods within the city. In addition, I am a cancer survivor and in that sense represent others in San Francisco struggling with disease and disability. As a white person and U.S. citizen, I know that I enjoy myriad advantages that others (including my former students) do not; in response, I strive to acknowledge these advantages, as well as hear and amplify the voices of those who are not similarly privileged.

Business and/or professional experience:

I am a former elementary school teacher now working as an education lawyer. My commitment to ensuring that all children receive a quality education motivated me to become an ESL teacher in the Bronx after graduating cum laude from Yale University. Frustrated by the limited impact that I had in the classroom, I enrolled at NYU Law in order to study education law and policy. I previously worked as an education litigator at a large law firm and then clerked for a federal judge and now work at a school law firm where I assist school districts with board governance, special education, charter school, and labor matters.

It would be a privilege to put my skills and passion to work on the OAC. Through my teaching and legal work experiences, I am well versed in teaching best practices, data analysis, strategic planning, curriculum development, Common Core, teacher training and evaluation, and ESL and special education programs.

Civic Activities:

-Vice President, Board of Education, Thomas Edison Charter Academy (a 700-student, TK-8 charter school in the Mission)

-Volunteer Tutor, SMART (a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing low-income students with access to an exceptional education)

-Member, Leadership for Educational Equity (a nonprofit leadership development organization working to end the injustice of educational inequity by inspiring and supporting a diverse set of leaders with classroom experience)

-Member, the Tartines (beauty shop quartet)

Have you attended any meetings of the Board/Commission to which you wish appointment? Yes No

Dear Ms. Caminong,

I am writing to apply to serve on the Children and Youth Fund's Oversight and Advisory Committee. I am a former elementary school teacher now working as an education lawyer, and I believe that my varied education policy experiences would allow me to be a strong contributor to the OAC.

I have long been committed to ensuring that all children receive a quality education. This commitment motivated me to join Teach For America as a second grade ESL teacher after graduating cum laude from Yale University. Teaching was inspiring and humbling, and remains the hardest thing I've ever done. Frustrated by the limited impact that I had in the classroom, I enrolled at NYU Law in order to study education law and policy. I then worked as an education litigator at a large law firm and clerked for a federal judge. Currently, I work at a public interest law firm that represents California school districts. I serve in a general counsel role, assisting districts with board governance, special education, charter school, and labor matters.

In addition, I serve as Vice President of the Thomas Edison Charter Academy's Board of Education, in which role I oversee the academic and fiscal success of one of San Francisco's largest public charter elementary schools. I also serve as a volunteer tutor at SMART, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing low-income students with access to excellent educational opportunities.

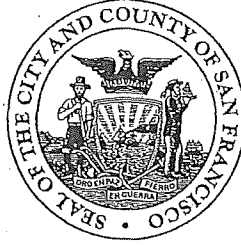

My professional experiences have allowed me to hone a range of skills that would serve me well as a member of the OAC. I am hardworking, reliable, and attentive to detail. Even more importantly, I work well on diverse teams; I listen actively, communicate constructively, use time wisely, and help maintain the group's focus on top priorities.

Thank you for your consideration. It would be an honor to serve children in my community through membership on the OAC.

Sincerely,
Joanna Powell

Re: Application of Joanna Powell to serve on the DCYF Oversight and Advisory Committee

To Whom it May Concern:

It is with extraordinary pleasure that I write to recommend Ms. Powell's appointment to the Oversight and Advisory Committee. Fagen Friedman & Fulfrosts was founded on the ideal of providing legal representation to school districts in order to enhance educational outcomes for students throughout California. Ms. Powell sought us out expressing a strong commitment for improving the lives of children and youth. Her background speaks volumes about her desire to serve the youth in our community. Ms. Powell formerly taught English as a Second Language, tutors at an organization in San Francisco supporting low-income students and serves on the Board of a charter school.

Ms. Powell has an incredibly strong work ethic. She manages complex cases and completes projects promptly. Her work is simply superior. She excels in all aspects of the law and is highly respected by colleagues and clients. Most important, Ms. Powell is a kind, compassionate and strong person with good values. She will surely be an invaluable addition to the committee.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you desire additional information.

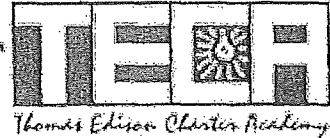

Respectfully,

To the Attention of: Rules Committee, San Francisco Department of Children, Youth, and Families

Regarding: An Outstanding Leader for Children and Education

It is with pleasure that I write a letter of recommendation for Ms. Joanna Powell. Ms. Powell began serving on Thomas Edison Charter Academy's (TECA) Board of Education during the 2017-18 school year. Although I have only known Ms. Powell for just over a year, her energy and passion for improving educational outcomes for children distinguishes her from other professionals. As a former ESL teacher, as an education lawyer, or as a tutor at a San Francisco organization supporting low-income students, she is dedicated to making a positive difference for children in every role she has chosen to undertake.

Here at TECA, we have positively benefited from Ms. Powell's commitment to the service of our students and families:

- she has a very strong work ethic and does a tremendous amount of work for our school and district outside of board meetings,
- she always comes prepared to board meeting and has not missed one meeting since she joined the board,
- she is respectful and collegial during meetings, with other board members and the public, but expresses her opinions, always keeping students at the center of the discussion,
- she has lead the effort to revise our board bylaws - with her good judgement and good advice, TECA now has clear and concise bylaws that are comprehensible and on-point, and
- she is an extremely responsive board member, whether it be to emails or phone calls, or during urgent situations or emergencies, Ms. Powell's follow-through is steady and fantastic.

Should you be so fortunate as to engage Ms. Powell to serve the San Francisco Department of Children Youth and Their Families, I have no doubt that you will find her character and experience to be of tremendous value to your organization. Please do not hesitate to call me should you wish to further discuss this candidate's ability to positively impact your organization.

Thank you,

Anastasia Shattner
Superintendent/Executive Director

Dear Rules Committee,

For over a year now, I have had the privilege to work alongside Joanna Powell on the Board of Education at the Thomas Edison Charter Academy (TECA) in San Francisco. Within just months of joining the board, Ms. Powell was quickly confirmed as our Vice President and has excelled in this position.

As President of the Board, I have been able to see first hand Joanna's dedication and commitment to the work of the board and outcomes of the school. With a keen eye for detail on policies, MOUs, and reports, I am always confident in their quality with Joanna's review and stamp of approval. Joanna's experience in education and law adds an important layer in this confidence in her work on TECA's board.

Having worked in nonprofit fundraising at Safe & Sound and Holy Family Day Home, as well as sitting on the Board of Directors at Tandem, Partners in Early Learning, I have worked alongside many board members in different capacities. Joanna is a prime example of an exemplary board member. She attends every board meeting, quickly responds to communications, meets deadlines on projects and is always willing to step in when needed. On top of all of this, Joanna is an active member in board meetings, asking important questions and engaging in all discussions with a willingness to learn and openness to diverse opinions. Her respectful demeanor, careful thought process, and consistent engagement adds incredible value to our Board at TECA.

Joanna Powell is passionate and dedicated to the education and well being of children in San Francisco. Not every individual spends their day-to-day work to improve outcomes for children, volunteer tutoring children, and then spend countless hours of free-time to give advice on difficult topics that a school board faces. Joanna does, and the city of San Francisco is fortunate to have her as a resident. The Board of Education at TECA is fortunate to have Joanna as our Vice President, and the Oversight and Advisory Committee at DCYF will greatly benefit from having Joanna Powell's expertise included as a member.

Sincerely,
