I have lived, taught, commuted, and walked for pleasure in San Francisco for 28 years. Our city's density and visual splendor make it ideally suited for walking. Still, we are one of the 50 most dangerous cities for pedestrians in the United States. Even more troubling is the inequitable concentration of pedestrian injuries and deaths in my home community - the South of Market. In 2007, I was hit by a car traveling 50 mph while riding my bicycle. I suffered a broken neck, broken back, and a Traumatic Brain Injury. I am very lucky to still have the capacity to complete this application. As a teacher at Bret Harte Elementary School in Bayview Hunters Point, a student died while crossing Gilman Avenue. The same happened at Buena Vista Elementary School in the Mission on Potrero Avenue.

Business and/or professional experience:

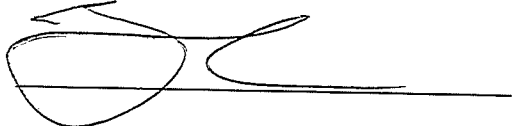

- I am a 19 year educator in the San Francisco Unified School District. Every year, I travel across the city multiple times with 20 students in tow as we explore The City on various field trips.
- I am the Teacher Coordinator for Safe Routes to School responsible for the Walking School Bus program, Bike & Pedestrian Safety Education, and 2 school-wide school surveys studying student transit
- I was a regular teacher participant in Trips 4 Kids bike trips serving low income students on rural Marin bike trips.

Civic Activities:

- I am a San Francisco Bicycle Coalition member, bike ambassador, bike valet volunteer, phone bank volunteer, and Young Leaders member.
- I am a member of the D6 Pedestrian Safety Workgroup
- I participated in the crafting and collecting community input on the Western SoMa Transportation Plan
- I have participated in multiple Piers 30-32 project meetings with special attention to transit issue relating to a new Warriors stadium
