Subject: Support for Renaming Alleys

Dear Supervisors - David, Jane & Scott:

Although I will not be in town for the long awaited renaming of the three Chinatown/North Beach Alleys, I wanted to write you this email letter of support for the proposed alleys: Old Chinatown Lane to its former name honoring "Donaldina CAMERON" alley; Bartol alley to "ENID NG LIM" alley and Merchant alley next to the Hilton for BUD MOOSE (Geoff's mentor).

I personally met Ms. Cameron in my late teen years at Cameron House where I have worked at as a pastor & youth director... and last year, a new book on her life was written acknowledging her courageous work in old Chinatown when many girls were sold into indentured servant hood, prostitution... She helped to create one of the first Asian Women's Shelter in the country at Cameron House.

Regarding, Cameron Alley, (Old Chinatown Lane), The board and staff asked me if the alleyway could be renamed from old Chinatown lane to acknowledge the work of Ms. Cameron and Cameron House in time for their February 8, 2014 celebration of 140 years of service to the community.

Regarding Enid -- I knew and loved her very much as my co-worker. I knew Enid Lim at Cameron House, the Presbyterian Church in Chinatown and as my colleague working at Chinatown CDC. She really was like the "mom" in our young team of organizers & planners at CCDC back in the '90s. Her wisdom and ability to relate to so many people city wide astounded us young activist back then. She knew everyone -- from Nob Hill to City Hall folks to everyone in Chinatown.

In the 1990s, I got to co-emcee the Chinese New Year Parade with her every year... and as I still emcee the review stand, I always think of her.

She pulled together many collaborations working on "clean streets & alleyways" to "historic preservation". She led both Chinatown TRIP and the Chinatown Environmental Control Task Force...

She has unselfishly worked for the community's & San Francisco's interest for so many decades... This renaming is so "right" for her.

After Enid passed away, we at CCDC have always hoped for an opportunity to honor her legacy and it is quite appropriate that we honor her at Bartol alley for a number of reasons: She helped to save 1000 Montgomery for the Community and afterwards - On Lok located there where she lived during her last year of life. On top of that, she was part of CCDC when we worked to renovate that particular Alley.

Although I did not know Harold Bud Moose, I know Geoff Palermo who owns the Hilton and Geoff has been so generous to the Chinatown Community. He is very community minded and is now working well with the Chinese Cultural Center whose executive director Mabel Teng recently told me -- is also endorsing the renaming of Merchant Alley.

Thank you President Chiu for paving the way through these renaming resolutions to honor these heroes.

Supervisors Wiener, Kim and Chiu,

I am writing to express Mayor Lee's support for the resolutions renaming three streets in Chinatown after Donaldina Cameron, Harold 'Bud' Moose and Enid Ng Lim for their many contributions to the Chinatown neighborhood and the City of San Francisco.

Donaldina Cameron devoted her life to helping immigrant Asian women who were vulnerable upon their arrival to the United States. In 1874, she created a foundation to help Asian women who were victims of discrimination and violence. That organization has since grown into a multi-service agency which serves Chinatown's low income residents.

Harold 'Bud' Moose was a commercial real estate developer whose proudest achievement was the development of a 27-story hotel and Chinese Cultural Center. The cultural center, which was established in 1973, provides a space for art, education, and community engagement.

Enid Ng Lim fought tirelessly for the improvement of transportation in our city. Her advocacy for the most under-served areas in our city led to the creation of new bus routes and improved paratransit accessibility.

These three San Franciscans contributed to the success of our City and are well deserving of these honors. Mayor Lee urges the Board of Supervisors to approve these resolutions.

Hey Javier,

Thank you for letting me know. Yes, I understand, since the honorary name changes aren't "official."

Hope all is well with you too... happy holidays ☺

Subject: Land-Use Hearing of 12-9-13

Hello Alisa,

I hope that you are doing well and enjoying the holidays.

It was brought to my attention that three honorary street name resolutions are going to the Land-Use committee today. I just want to take a moment to remind you that DPW does not have anything to do with these honorary names due to the fact that nothing official changes (DPW basemap, emergency services, US mail, etc. all continue to use the original and official street name). DPW does not receive an application and therefore does not circulate these types of honorary naming.

Since DPW has not processed these resolutions I do not intend to be present at the hearing. Feel free to contact me if you need any info from me or my department.
