Doreen Woo Ho is a seasoned executive with over 35 years of banking experience. She currently is an independent banking and investment consultant. She is the former President and Chief Executive Officer of United Commercial Bank ("UCB™"), a leading commercial and community bank in the United States serving the Chinese community in America and in Greater China with assets over $12 Billion. The bank served the retail and mass affluent consumers, small business, commercial real estate, construction lending and middle market commercial segments. The bank included 70 retail banking branches and commercial banking offices in six states as well as a branch in Hong Kong, a wholly owned bank in Shanghai and representative offices in Taipei, Beijing and Ho Chi Minh City. Ms. Ho was engaged with the bank from January 2009 until November 2009 when it was sold and merged with East West Bank.

Prior to UCB, Ms. Ho spent ten years with Wells Fargo where she was the President of the Consumer Credit Group and a member of the Wells Fargo Management Committee. She also oversaw the bank's Enterprise Marketing Group, where she was responsible for global branding, advertising and marketing programs, as well as strategic oversight for marketing across all the lines of business in the bank. As the President of the Consumer Credit Group, Ms. Ho built one of the fastest growing and profitable asset groups within Wells Fargo from 1998 to 2007, from an initial portfolio of $11 Billion to over $103 Billion. She took Wells Fargo to number one in market share nationally for prime home equity loans in 2001 from fifth place in 1998, leveraging a multi-channel distribution strategy and customer-centric value proposition, covering all 50 states. In addition, Ms. Ho was also responsible for multi business portfolio, including personal lines and loans, student loans and a corporate trust business. Total portfolio managed under her leadership exceeded $103 Billion, generated over $1 Billion in net income for Wells Fargo, employed over 8000 team members and included 12 operations centers across the country, as well as the servicing of $2 Trillion + of corporate securities.

Ms. Ho started her banking career with Citibank and underwent both international banking operations and corporate credit management training programs. During her 25 year career with Citibank, she spent over ten years in corporate banking and lending, handling international correspondent banking, trade finance, multi-national corporations, health care, high tech and middle market companies. She subsequently moved to consumer & retail banking where she was a member of the management team for Citibank California and held multiple senior management positions in residential mortgage lending, multi family lending, consumer credit, risk management, marketing, retail banking and business banking. She was also was the Chief Credit Officer for Citibank Regional Banking in California. She built a de novo small business banking group in California from scratch and grew it to over $1 Billion in deposits and assets in 3 years. Her last assignment with Citi was SVP/National Marketing Manager for Business Banking, covering California, Nevada, New York, Florida, Chicago and Washington DC.

Before joining Citibank, Doreen was a correspondent for Time magazine and CBS Radio News based in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, from 1972 to 1973.

During her tenure with Wells Fargo, Ms. Ho was the highest ranked Asian American banker in North America among the top five banks. In October 2007, Ms. Ho was ranked among the top five of the 25 "Most Powerful Women in Banking" by U.S. Banker magazine, recognition that she received consecutively for five years since 2003. The same year, she was recognized by the San Francisco Business Times as one of the Bay Area's 100 Most Influential Women, an honor she has received every year since 2003 through 2009. Ms. Ho has received numerous honors and awards from the National Association of Asian American Professionals (2010), Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics, Inc. (2007), Asian Real Estate Association of America (2007), San Francisco Financial Women's Association (2004), Chinese Historical Society of America (2002), the Chinatown Community Development Corp (2003), and the Organization for Chinese Americans (2003 & 2007).

Active in the community, Ms. Ho has served on the board of the San Francisco Opera since 1993. She has chaired the Audit Committee, the Directors & Officers committees and served twice on the Search Committee for the General Director of the Opera. She is also one of the founding board members of the Asian & Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund (APIASF), which administers the Gates Millennium Scholarship funds for Asian Americans as well as its own national scholarship program. She has chaired the Audit Committee and Strategic Planning Task force for APIASF.

She is also a Vice Chair and Board member of C100, an organization of Chinese American leaders dedicated to improving US/China relations and promoting the full participation of Chinese Americans in American society. She co-chaired the 2010 Annual Conference for C100 in San Francisco and currently serves as Co-Chair of the Membership Committee. She also serves on the Smith College President's Council.

She has served previously on the boards of the Hamlin School (Treasurer), the SF chapter of the World Affairs Council, the International Institute of Education, Fort Mason Center and the San Francisco Zoo.

She has been a frequent speaker at various forums, including the National Association of Asian American Professionals, US Banker "Most Powerful Women in Banking", Consumer Bankers Association, Inman Real Estate Conference, the Thomson Mortgage Technology Conference and the Financial Women's Association of San Francisco. She has also appeared as a guest commentator on CNN FN, Bloomberg Radio, and CNBC's "Closing Bell" and "Squawk Box" programs.

Ms. Ho is a graduate of Smith College and Columbia University, where she earned a bachelor's degree and master's degree respectively in Chinese History and East Asian Studies.

Doreen is married to James K. Ho, President of the Board of Chinese Hospital and former Deputy Mayor of San Francisco. The Ho's have three children.

Subject: Doreen Woo Ho's Nomination to the San Francisco Port Commission

Dear Supervisor Kim, Supervisor Eisbernd and Supervisor Farrell:

I am writing this letter of support for the nomination of Doreen Woo Ho, the retired President of the Consumer Credit Group at Wells Fargo, to the San Francisco Port Commission. I am unable to appear personally at the Rules Committee hearing on her nomination, but would like to make the following statement on her behalf.

During her ten year tenure at Wells Fargo, Doreen demonstrated a keen interest personally in the community and was also very actively involved on behalf of Wells Fargo. She served on the Board of the San Francisco Opera and was instrumental in facilitating Wells Fargo as the season sponsor, a sponsorship that Wells continues today. She also represented Wells Fargo as the founding corporate board member for the Asian Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund, which is the national scholarship fund for Asian Americans. Doreen also chaired a successful United Way campaign inside Wells Fargo, when I was the Bay Area Regional Chair for the United Way. She has been a tireless champion for diversity and inclusion within the company and was a founder of Asian Connections, the Asian American employee resource group within Wells Fargo. In the Bay Area alone, Asian Connections has approximately 1000+ team members. We are proud of Doreen's efforts and her contributions to making Wells Fargo a leader in corporate diversity and social responsibility in our community.

I also believe that Doreen's business acumen will benefit the City and the San Francisco Port Commission. She has been involved with real estate finance for many years, understands the planning and execution process for complex projects, partnered well within Wells Fargo, and is very strategic in her thinking. She is someone whom I believe has the integrity and character to properly balance the interests of diverse groups and be fair in her judgment and conclusions. I think the SF Port Commission is a wonderful step for her to take to do public service for our city and is a strong match for her community passion and her business skills. I certainly endorse her nomination and recommend that you approve her candidacy to the full Board of Supervisors.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

cc: Mayor Ed Lee

Dear Supervisors Kim, Elsbernd, and Farrell,

I am pleased to express my support for Mayor Lee's recent appointment of Doreen Woo Ho to the Port Commission. I hope you will vote to confirm her appointment in your upcoming meeting of the Rules Committee on May 5.

I have come to know Doreen well as a key supporter of the San Francisco Opera. In addition to being a longtime patron and donor, Doreen has served as an active member of the San Francisco Opera Association board since 1993. For nearly twenty years, Doreen has devoted her time and talents to our mission of maintaining the Opera as a world class arts organization in San Francisco. Doreen is equally committed to seeing the Opera continues to hold a leadership role in young artist training, community arts education and audience development.

Doreen has held key leadership positions in her time on the Opera board, including as the past chair of our Directors & Officers and Audit Committees, and as a member of the Search committees for two General Directors. Doreen has also played a critical role on our Corporate Council fundraising committee, perhaps most notably taking the lead on developing the Opera's largest and longest-running major corporate sponsorship with Wells Fargo Bank. Outside of these committees, Doreen has also lent her sound judgment to innumerable matters of general strategic importance for the Opera.

I am grateful to have someone with Doreen's breadth of community service and activity on the Opera board. In addition to the skills she brings from her distinguished banking career, Doreen is always serving as an ambassador for the Opera, introducing us to new potential patrons and advising us on how we can make the Opera more accessible and appealing to the broadest audiences possible. It is this rare combination of business acumen and deep community connections that makes her invaluable to the Opera. I expect this same combination will prove extraordinarily beneficial to the City and County of San Francisco if she is confirmed to serve on the Port Commission, especially as we look forward to the America's Cup in 2013.

Sincerely,

David Gockley
General Director

Re: Nomination of DOREEN WOO HO to San Francisco Port Commission

Dear Honorable Supervisor Kim,

I write in strongest support of Doreen Woo Ho's nomination to the San Francisco Port Commission. Doreen Woo Ho has distinguished herself as a high achieving, strategic thinking business executive as well as a strong community leader. She has developed a well deserved reputation for exercising good judgment and skillfully balancing wishes with practical reality. This unique perspective makes her uniquely suited to the challenging role of Commissioner and the diverse needs of the land, operations and numerous constituents of the Port, a key and vibrant feature of San Francisco's identity.

In particular, I would like to draw your attention to the instrumental role that Doreen played in the founding and growth of the Asian and Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund ("APIASF"). Doreen Woo Ho was on the initial Board of Directors of APIASF, during its formative phase, when the Board through necessity was a hands-on-working group of volunteers charged with fundraising, establishing strategic goals, and setting operating guidelines and practices, including serving as readers of hundreds of completed scholarship applications. Doreen served on the Executive Committee and as Chair of the Audit Committee where she exercised fiscal and strategic judgments that helped the organization grow in a bold, but conservative and fiscally responsible way.

Today, APIASF is the largest national scholarship fund specifically providing college scholarships to Asian and Pacific Islanders throughout the United States and its territories. APIASF administers two award programs, the APIASF Scholarship and the Gates Millennium Scholarship ("GMS"); the latter program is funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Since 2003, APIASF has awarded three million dollars in direct scholarships to 1,331 deserving students and administered nearly $30 million of GMS awards to more than 2,500 students. This year we received over 5,100 applications and anticipate awarding one million dollars in scholarships to more than 500 students.

During her five years on the APIASF Board, I was impressed by Doreen's dedication and tireless efforts to build a financially sustainable and effective fund that addresses the needs of the Asian and Pacific Islander communities. Doreen is a "power vortex," intellectually capable, with a creative and flexible mind, an ethical leader and team player, able to hear the views of others, and to make effective decisions.

Doreen is always professional and an absolute pleasure to work with, I urge you to vote in support of her nomination --- she will be a strong leader and contributor to the San Francisco Port Commission. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Jacinta Titilii Abbott
APIASF Chairperson
