10 WHEREAS, The U.S. Senate and the House of representatives will soon be 11 considering a bipartisan reform of our Immigration laws which calls for legalization of 12 12 million people who have been present in the U.S. as of January of 2007; and

13 WHEREAS, The U.S. congress has yet to determine the fate of individuals who would 14 qualify under the proposed Immigration Reform but have outstanding orders of removal; and,

15 WHEREAS, The uninterrupted removal of individuals with or without removal orders
16 can prevent them from applying for the Immigration Reform currently under consideration; 17 and,

18 WHEREAS, The removal of parents of U.S. children, from the United States, will 19 subject these children to irreversible psychological trauma, emotional hardship and 20 permanently disrupt their educational, economic, civic and cultural development; and

21 WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco will be additionally burdened with 22 the obligation of providing financial, physical, emotional and legal-guardian assistance to U.S.
23 citizen children rendered homeless and parentless as a result of the premature removal of 24 their parents from the U.S.; now, therefore, be it

25

1 RESOLVED, That it is hereby resolved that the USICE should enforce a moratorium
2 on all removal orders until such a time as both houses of Congress can agree on the eligibility
3 requirements under the Comprehensive Immigration Reform that is now under consideration.
