20 Section 1. CEQA and Land Use Findings.

21 (a) The Planning Department has determined that the actions contemplated in this 22 ordinance comply with the California Environmental Quality Act (California Public Resources 23 Code Sections 21000 et seq.). Said determination is on file with the Clerk of the Board of 24 Supervisors in File No. ____ and is incorporated herein by reference. The Board affirms this 25 determination.

1 (b) On _____, the Planning Commission, in Resolution No. _____,
2 adopted findings that the actions contemplated in this ordinance are consistent, on balance, 3 with the City's General Plan and eight priority policies of Planning Code Section 101.1. The 4 Board adopts these findings as its own. A copy of said Resolution is on file with the Clerk of 5 the Board of Supervisors in File No. _____, and is incorporated herein by reference.

6 (c) Pursuant to Planning Code Section 302, this Board finds that these Planning Code
7 amendments will serve the public necessity, convenience, and welfare for the reasons set 8 forth in Planning Commission Resolution No. _____, and the Board adopts such 9 reasons as its own. A copy of said resolution is on file with the Clerk of the Board of 10 Supervisors in File No. _____ and is incorporated herein by reference.

12 Section 2. Background and Findings.

13 (a) According to the Planning Department's 2020 Housing Inventory, housing costs in 14 San Francisco have increased dramatically since the Great Recession of 2008-2009, with the 15 median sale price for a two-bedroom house more than tripling from 2011 to 2021, from 16 $493,000 to $1,580,000. This increase in housing costs includes 9% growth from 2019 to 17 2020 alone, even in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic.

18 (b) From 2011 to 2019, the median rental rate for a two-bedroom apartment similarly 19 increased, nearly doubling from $2,570 to $4,500 per month. Despite the COVID-19 pandemic 20 and a temporarily dampened housing market, the median rental rate in 2020 was $3,570. The 21 2019 and 2020 median rental rate far exceed the $2,664 rental rate of a two-bedroom
22 apartment priced to be affordable for a household at 100% of San Francisco's Area Median
23 Income ("AMI") in 2021, according to the Mayor's Office of Housing and Community
24 Development.

1 (c) According to the Planning Department’s 2020 Housing Inventory, while San 2 Francisco met 148% of its 2015-2022 Above Moderate (greater than 120% of AMI) housing
3 goal as of 2020, it met only 39% of its Low Income (less than 80% of AMI) and Very Low
4 Income (less than 50% of AMI) housing goals, and only 27% of its Moderate Income (80-5 120% of AMI) housing goal, as of 2020.

6 (d) In the near future, San Francisco is likely to face steeper challenges to meet its 7 Moderate Income housing goal in light of an anticipated 250% increase in the Regional 8 Housing Needs Allocation for Moderate Income households in San Francisco in the upcoming 9 2023-2031 Housing Element cycle, according to the State of California's revised population 10 growth projections.

11 (e) According to the Planning Department’s Housing Balance Report No. 12, many 12 Supervisorial Districts are experiencing a Negative Cumulative Housing Balance, meaning 13 that the number of units removed from protected status (for example, by means of Ellis Act 14 evictions, Owner Move-In evictions, or housing demolition) exceeds the number of new 15 affordable housing units added to that district in a given period. The following San Francisco
16 Supervisorial Districts, all of which have a large number of single-family homes, had Negative
17 Cumulative Housing Balances between 2011-2020: District 4 (-73.9%), District 1 (-46.8%), 18 District 11 (-18.8%), District 8 (-13.8%), and District 2 (-10.6%).

19 (f) As set forth in Board of Supervisors Resolution No. _____, on file in File No.
20 _____, the Board of Supervisors has expressed its commitment to support low- and 21 moderate-income homeowners as an essential component of addressing the housing
22 affordability and housing stability crisis, and the Board of Supervisors has urged the Planning 23 Department and other City agencies to create a Housing Development Incentive Program for 24 Homeowners (“Program”) that supports San Francisco residents to build new housing, which 25 would include technical assistance (e.g., for predevelopment, construction, and long-term

1 property management) and financial assistance (e.g., grants, no- or low- interest loans), and 2 streamlined permitting through pre-approved plans, with the goal to increase the number of 3 housing units developed by homeowners and local small property owners. The Program
4 would target low- and moderate- income homeowners in RH (Residential, House) Districts
5 and in Sensitive Communities, as defined by the UC Berkeley Urban Displacement Project, 6 and the Program would include financial incentives for homeowners who rent or sell the new 7 units to low- and moderate-income households at an affordable level.

9 Section 3. Articles 1, 2, and 4 of the Planning Code are hereby amended by revising 10 Sections 102 (with a new definition placed in alphabetical sequence), 207, and 209.1, and 11 adding Section 436, to read as follows:

12 SEC. 102. DEFINITIONS.

14 Dwelling Unit, Bonus. A Bonus Dwelling Unit is any Dwelling Unit that is not an Accessory
15 Dwelling Unit and which is permitted to be constructed in an RH District, contingent upon compliance
16 with Section 207(c)(8), in excess of the number of units otherwise permitted by right in the applicable
17 RH District as set forth in Table 209.1. For example, a property owner with a lot in an RH-1 District is 18 permitted to construct one unit per lot, according to Table 209.1. If the property owner elects to 19 comply with Section 207(c)(8) and is thereby authorized to construct four units, the three units
20 authorized under Section 207(c)(8) in excess of the one unit permitted under the RH-1 column of Table
21 209.1 shall be deemed Bonus Dwelling Units. Each Bonus Dwelling Unit shall have a minimum of two 22 bedrooms and shall be subject to the requirements of Planning Code Section 436 and Administrative 23 Code Section 37.3(h). In addition, the property owner shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the 24 City, as a condition of approval of the Bonus Density Units authorized under Section 207(c)(8)
25 (“Regulatory Agreement”). The Regulatory Agreement shall contain the following: (a) a statement

1 that the Bonus Density Units are not subject to the Costa Hawkins Rental Housing Act (California Civil 2 Code Section 1954.50) because, under Section 1954.52(b), the property owner has entered into this 3 agreement with the City in consideration for a waiver of residential density up to four dwelling units or 4 other direct financial contribution or other form of assistance specified in California Government Code
5 Sections 65915 et seq.; (b) a description of the waiver of residential density or other direct financial 6 contribution or form of assistance provided to the property owner; and (c) a description of the 7 remedies for breach of the agreement and other provisions to ensure implementation and compliance
8 with the agreement. The property owner and the Planning Director (or the Director's designee), on 9 behalf of the City, will execute the Regulatory Agreement, which shall be reviewed and approved by the 10 City Attorney's Office. The Regulatory Agreement shall be executed prior to the City's issuance of the 11 First Construction Document for the project, as defined in Section 107A.13.1 of the San Francisco 12 Building Code. Following execution of the Regulatory Agreement by all parties and approval by the 13 City Attorney, the Regulatory Agreement or a memorandum thereof shall be recorded to the title
14 records in the Office of the Assessor-Recorder for the real property containing the Bonus Dwelling 15 Unit and shall be binding on all future owners and successors in interest.

24 Government Code Sections 65915 et seq., and have executed an agreement to comply with the 25 requirements of Planning Code Section 436 and Administrative Code Section 37.3(h), residential density limits shall be waived for up to four dwelling units, not inclusive of any Accessory Dwelling Units as permitted under this Section 207. Projects using the density exception of this subsection (c)(8) shall be subject to the Height and Bulk Limits, Rear Yard, and Side Yard standards applicable to the RH-3 zoning district as set forth in Section 209.1.

SEC. 209.1. RH (RESIDENTIAL, HOUSE) DISTRICTS.

These Districts are intended to recognize, protect, conserve, and enhance areas characterized by dwellings in the form of houses, usually with one, two, or three units with separate entrances, and limited scale in terms of building width and height. Such areas tend to have similarity of building styles and predominantly contain large units suitable for family occupancy, considerable open space, and limited nonresidential uses. ## LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Planning, Administrative Codes - Dwelling Unit Density Exception in Residential Districts and Rent Control of Bonus Dwelling Units]

Ordinance amending the Planning Code to provide a density limit exception for Lots in RH (Residential, House) zoning districts, to permit up to four dwelling units per lot, exclusive of accessory dwelling units and subject to maximum rental rates and sales prices determined to be affordable at 100% of area median income; amending the Administrative Code to limit initial rental rates and rental rate increases for specified units; affirming the Planning Department’s determination under the California Environmental Quality Act; and making findings of consistency with the General Plan, and the eight priority policies of Planning Code, Section 101.1, and findings of public necessity, convenience, and welfare under Planning Code, Section 302.

Existing Law

The Planning Code sets forth different zoning districts throughout the City, where different uses are permitted, conditional or prohibited, and where various controls (such as height, bulk, setbacks, etc.) apply. Residential, House (RH) districts are “intended to recognize, protect, conserve and enhance areas characterized by dwellings in the form of houses, usually with one, two or three units with separate entrances, and limited scale in terms of building width and height. Such areas tend to have similarity of building styles and predominantly contain large units suitable for family occupancy, considerable open space, and limited nonresidential uses.” (Section 209.1). The RH districts are composed of five separate classes of districts, depending on the number of units permitted in each:

- RH-1(D) Districts: One-Family (Detached Dwellings); RH-1 Districts: One-Family; and RH-1(S) Districts: One-Family with Minor Second Unit, which are generally characterized by single-family houses;
- RH-2 Districts: Two-Family, which generally consist of one-family and two-family houses;
- RH-3 Districts: Three-Family, in which structures with three units are common in addition to one-family and two-family houses.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would create a density limit exception to permit up to four units per lot in all RH districts, for property owners that are not seeking or receiving a density bonus. Each unit permitted under this ordinance in excess of the number of units otherwise permitted by right in the applicable RH District (as set forth Planning Code Table 209.1) would constitute a “Bonus Dwelling Unit.” Bonus Dwelling Units would be permitted in addition to any Accessory Dwelling Units authorized under the Planning Code. Under this ordinance, Bonus Dwelling Units would be subject to the following limitations and requirements:

- Lots that include two or more Bonus Dwelling units in the RH-1(D), RH-1, RH-1(S), and RH-2 zoning districts would be subject to the Height and Bulk Limits, Rear Yard, and Side Yard standards applicable to the RH-3 zoning district.
- Sales of Bonus Dwelling Units would be subject to a maximum sales price determined by the Mayor’s Office of Housing and Community Development (“MOHCD”) to be affordable for a buyer at 100% of the median income for San Francisco as published annually by MOHCD and derived in part from income limits and area median income published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for the County of San Francisco. The maximum sales price would be determined using an affordable sales price methodology established and approved by MOHCD.
- At the commencement of a tenancy, Bonus Dwelling Units would be offered for rent at a rate determined by MOHCD for rent for households earning 100% of Area Median Income.
- Subsequent rent increases for Bonus Dwelling Units would be subject to the limitations in Administrative Code subsections 37.3(a) and 37.3(d).
- Property owners in RH zoning districts would not be required to meet any minimum or maximum income criteria in order for their property to be eligible for Bonus Dwelling Units.

Background Information

The ordinance contains findings emphasizing the need to build more housing in San Francisco, particularly for moderate income households, and the fact that five Supervisorial Districts in San Francisco experienced a “Negative Cumulative Housing Balance” between 2011 through 2020, meaning that the number of units removed from protected status exceeds the number of new affordable housing units added to such districts during the subject time period.

This ordinance was introduced alongside a resolution urging the Planning Department, in partnership with the Mayor’s Office of Housing and Community Development and other City agencies, to create a “Housing Development Incentive Program for Homeowners” that supports San Francisco residents’ efforts to build new housing.
