9 and care of others; and

10 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Veteran Affairs Health Care System (SFVAHCS), 11 located on historic Fort Miley and officially opened on November 11, 1934, has served the 12 veterans of San Francisco and the greater Bay Area for over 90 years, standing as a 13 cornerstone of compassionate, expert medical care for those who have served our nation; and

15 in the Sierra Pacific VA Health Care Network, and remains a nationally recognized center of 16 excellence in research, education, and clinical care; and

17 WHEREAS, The nursing staff of the SFVAHCS has continued to provide exemplary, 18 unwavering care to our nation's veterans despite facing significant uncertainty about their 19 employment and job security in the wake of the change in federal administrations, 20 demonstrating a commitment to their patients and their profession that transcends institutional 21 disruption; and

22 WHEREAS, Through this period of uncertainty, the nurses of the San Francisco VA 23 have shown resilience, dedication, and an abiding professionalism that reflects the highest 24 ideals of the nursing profession and honors the veterans in their care; and 25

1 WHEREAS, In January 2026, the SFVAHCS was notified by the American Nurses

3 designation, a recognition specifically designed to foster healthcare environments where 4 nurses can thrive, grow professionally, and deliver the highest standard of patient care; and

5 WHEREAS, Attaining this designation marks a monumental milestone for the 7 supports the growth, well-being, and empowerment of its nursing staff, and in turn, enhances 8 the quality of care provided to our veterans; and

9 WHEREAS, the SFVAHCS is now one of only 16 VA hospitals in the entire national VA

19 FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the San
