

1 [Supporting California Assembly Concurrent Resolution 123, Duanwu Jie - Dragon Boat
2 Festival Day - June 19, 2026]

3 Resolution recognizing the Dragon Boat Festival's role in strengthening community
4 and generational bonds through cultural celebration; supporting Assembly Concurrent
5 Resolution (ACR) 123, introduced by Assembly Member Phillip Chen, recognizing June
6 19, 2026, as Duanwu Jie in the State of California; and further declaring June 19, 2026,
7 as Dragon Boat Festival Day in the City and County of San Francisco.

8
9 WHEREAS, The Dragon Boat Festival, also known as Duanwu Jie, is one of the 10 biggest festivals celebrated in China, with dragons serving as important symbols of power, 11 prosperity and good luck in Chinese culture; and

12 WHEREAS, It is celebrated on the fifth day of the fifth month of the traditional Chinese 13 calendar and was the first traditional Chinese festival recognized by UNESCO as an 14 Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity; and

15 WHEREAS, The Festival originated as a celebration to ward off evils and bad omens;
16 and it historically has ties to Qu Yuan, a key poet and statesman whose work remains 17 formative to Chinese culture and literature and whose legacy emphasizes innovation, 18 creativity, and loyalty; and

19 WHEREAS, During the celebration, dragon-shaped boat races take place, sticky rice 20 wrapped in bamboo leaves, or zongzi, are made to be eaten, and different traditional 21 herbs are both hung and worn to ward off evils; and

22 WHEREAS, The modern tradition of dragon boat racing traces many of its strongest 23 living practices to the Lingnan region of Southern China, particularly Guangdong Province, 24 where dragon boat culture has flourished for centuries as a celebration of community 25 solidarity, athletic excellence, and cultural heritage; and

1 WHEREAS, Dragon boat racing has grown into an internationally celebrated sport, 2 practiced in more than 80 countries and regions worldwide, uniting people of diverse 3 backgrounds through competition, teamwork, cultural appreciation, and a shared commitment 4 to community engagement; and

5 WHEREAS, The observance of the Dragon Boat Festival serves as a heartfelt time for 6 community gathering, sharing of traditions, and the perseverance of culture; and

7 WHEREAS, The Festival is also an important time for small businesses, as in 8 preparation to the celebration, there is a significant uptick in revenue and consumer spending; 9 and

10 WHEREAS, The Dragon Boat Festival emphasizes the importance of representation 11 and creates an intentional cultural and social space for community members to connect 12 through organized competitive boat racing, express their creativity, and form meaningful 13 bonds through making zongzi together; and

14 WHEREAS, The Dragon Boat Festival continues to serve as a celebration spanning 15 across generations; and with California being home to the largest Chinese diaspora 16 community in the United States, celebrations in the State remain an integral aspect of 17 connecting communities with their cultural heritage; and

18 WHEREAS, The history of San Francisco is inseparable from the contributions of 19 Chinese immigrants, many of whom originated from Guangdong Province and neighboring 20 regions of Southern China; and

21 WHEREAS, The continued celebration of the Dragon Boat Festival serves as a 22 meaningful bridge between past and present, honoring the legacy of early immigrants while 23 strengthening cultural understanding and community connection for future generations; now, 24 therefore, be it

1 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
2 recognizes the Dragon Boat Festival's role in strengthening community and generational 3 bonds through cultural celebration; and, be it

4 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby supports 5 Assembly Concurrent Resolution (ACR) 123 introduced by Assembly Member Phillip Chen,
6 recognizing June 19, 2026, as Duanwu Jie in the State of California; and, be it

7 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors declares June 19, 2026, as 8 Dragon Boat Festival Day in the City and County of San Francisco; and, be it

9 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors hereby directs the Clerk of the 10 Board to transmit a copy of this Resolution to the California Senate President pro Tempore
11 Monique Limón, California Assembly Speaker Robert Rivas, Governor Gavin Newsom, 12 Assembly Member Phillip Chen, and the primary sponsors of this bill.