

Tim Reyff

Tim Reyff was born and raised in San Francisco's Sunset neighborhood and attended Archbishop Riordan High School.

Tim has worked off and on in various labor jobs for over 20 years; joining the Carpenter's Union in 2002. He currently is in good standing as a member as well as a Leadership San Francisco graduate, a program facilitated by the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Reyff has completed the Dry Wall/Lathing Apprentice Program in 2004 and is "paying it forward" by serving as the Chairman for the San Francisco/ San Mateo County's Assistant Apprenticeship Committee.

Tim has worked on numerous dry wall contracts around the Bay Area including hospitals, shipping centers and multi-unit, affordable and mixed-use residential housing projects in San Francisco.

He is the proud father of a son, who is a student at City College; they live in the Richmond District.
