1 [Appointments, Sheriff's Department Oversight Board - Ovava Etere Afuhaamango, William
2 Monroe Palmer II, Jayson Wechter, and Michael Nguyen]

3 Motion appointing Ovava Etere Afuhaamango and William Monroe Palmer II, terms
4 ending March 1, 2023, and Jayson Wechter and Michael Nguyen (residency
5 requirement waived), terms ending March 1, 2025, to the Sheriff's Department
6 Oversight Board.

8 MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco does
9 hereby appoint the hereinafter designated person to serve as a member of the Sheriff's 10 Department Oversight Board, pursuant to the provisions of Charter, Section 4.137, for the 11 term specified:

12 Ovava Etere Afuhaamango, seat 1, new appointment, shall be a member of the public,
13 for the unexpired portion of a four-year term ending March 1, 2023;

14 William Monroe Palmer II, seat 3, new appointment, shall be a member of the public,
15 for the unexpired portion of a four-year term ending March 1, 2023;

16 Jayson Wechter, seat 2, new appointment, shall be a member of the public, for a four-
17 year term ending March 1, 2025;

18 Michael Nguyen (residency requirement waived), seat 4, new appointment, shall be a
19 member of the public with experience in labor representation, for a four-year term ending
20 March 1, 2025; and, be it

21 FURTHER MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors makes the following findings:

22 1. The membership of the Sheriff's Department Oversight Board has a goal to be
23 representative of the diversity of the City and County of San Francisco.

- 1 2. Applicant Michael Nguyen, who is not a resident of San Francisco, is a person with
2 experience that uniquely qualifies them to serve on the Sheriff's Department Oversight
3 Board.
- 4 3. The Sheriff's Department Oversight Board has attempted to fill the position, for which 5 Michael Nguyen was nominated, with an individual who is City a resident and who has 6 the specific experience, skills, and qualifications, but has been unable to do so at this
7 time. The Rules Committee has certified that Michael Nguyen is qualified to serve on 8 the Sheriff's Department Oversight Board.
- 9 4. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Supervisors concludes that there is no
10 other possible representatives who is a resident of San Francisco, who has the specific 11 experience, skills, or qualifications possessed by this applicant, and who is willing to 12 serve on the Sheriff's Department Oversight Board at this time; and, be it
13 FURTHER MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors waives the residency requirement
14 for Michael Nguyen, as is allowed in cases where no qualified City resident who is willing to 15 serve can be found, pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(2), that otherwise requires 16 person(s) appointed to boards, commissions, and advisory bodies established by legislative
17 act of the Board of Supervisors to be resident(s) of the City and County of San Francisco.

As a first-generation American of Tongan and Samoan descent, I was born and raised in San Francisco, where I lived in Portola District, went to school in the Mission, church in the Sunset, and visited family and friends in Sunnydale, Hunter's Point, and Army Street housing projects. Being exposed to different social settings, backgrounds, and class, my definition of community stretched far and wide.
I was lucky enough to pursue a college degree through City College of San Francisco and then later transferred to University of California, Los Angeles where I completed my degree. When I attended UCLA, I became conscious of the wealth gap and majority of homogenous student experiences.
I have a huge interest in giving back to the community that gave so much to me, especially in the welfare of Black and POC communities.

I first moved to San Francisco in 2004, for law school, and I have made it my home, living in several different neighborhoods, including SOMA, Nob Hill, the Inner Sunset, Lower Pac Heights, and now the Bayview. As a public defender I work with populations that are all too familiar with policing practices, and I am familiar with the courtroom and jail/prison settings in which people interact most frequently with the Sheriff's office. As a straight, white male I have always benefitted from the privilege of being given the benefit of the doubt by government institutions, and I have tried to put that privilege to use in criminal justice reform advocacy, including in support of actions organized and led by groups such as Wealth and Disparities in the Black Community - Justice 4 Mario Woods. My lived experience certainly does not encompass the great diversity of San Francisco, but I have always, and will always, focus on understanding the perspective of others, rather than centering my own, as that understanding makes me a better advocate.

Business and/or professional experience:

I began my career as a research attorney with the California Supreme Court in 2007. After two years I moved to my current office, the Office of the State Public Defender. As a Senior Deputy State Public Defender I work on complex litigation, preparing appeals from capital cases to the California Supreme Court. This work requires continual legal education as to California criminal law, the ability to digest huge case files and records, formulate creative legal arguments and navigate the labyrinthine postconviction systems. I have argued cases before several courts of appeal as well as the California Supreme Court. My work has ingrained in me a deep commitment to the right of due process, the protection of individuals from unfair and arbitrary use of systemic power. My experience has taught me that no one is irredeemable, everyone is more than their worst mistakes. Finally, my long exposure to the criminal justice system, particularly the death penalty system, has made it abundantly clear that our current systems are not adequately serving the goal of advancing public safety and, in some cases, harm the very communities these systems are charged with protecting.

Civic Activities:

I have been a member of California Attorneys for Criminal Justice for over six years, including as a Board member for three years. CACJ provides continuing education for the criminal defense bar and advocates in support of making our criminal justice system more fair. As a member of the legislative committee, I authored letters in support or opposition of proposed state legislation and participated in other advocacy work. I used to volunteer planting trees with Friends of the Urban Forest and in 2015 joined the advocacy team that helped strategize and advocate for a plan for what would eventually become 2016's Proposition E that resulted in the City adopting responsibility for the maintenance of street trees. In 2016 I joined the re-formed San Francisco chapter of the Democratic Socialists of America and helped create the Justice Committee within that organization, dedicated to local criminal justice issues. The most significant project we undertook was opposition to equipping SFPD with Tasers, starting with advocacy before the San Francisco Police Commission and culminating in the creation of a ballot opposition campaign to oppose 2018's Proposition H, which would have stripped the Police Commission of its power to regulate Taser policy. I currently volunteer with the San Francisco-Marin Food Bank, helping to deliver groceries to neighbors in need.

I am a 45-year resident of San Francisco.
I have worked for four decades in the criminal justice system in San Francisco, as an Investigator in the San Francisco Public Defender's Office, a court-appointed defense investigator in criminal cases, and as an investigator with the San Francisco Department of Police Accountability, investigating complaints against San Francisco police officers. All of this work has made me sensitive to the issue of bias in the criminal justice system, especially bias based on race, ethnicity and gender identity. I have attended community meetings throughout San Francisco following officer-involved shootings by SFPD Officers and attended a series of meetings organized by UCSF and the San Francisco District Attorney's office following the racist text scandal in the SFPD. (See attached sheet)

Business and/or professional experience:

I have been a professional (and licensed) investigator in California for 40 years.
I worked for eighteen years, from 1998 to 2017, as an investigator with the San Francisco Department of Police Accountability (previously known as the Office of Citizen Complaints), an agency which investigates complaints against San Francisco police officers. I conducted over five hundred investigations, including allegations of unnecessary force, unwarranted detentions, searches and arrests, biased policing (including racial profiling), discourtesy and failure to perform a duty. (see attached sheet)

Civic Activities:

In additions to volunteering on campaigns to establish, strengthen or defend civilian oversight of the San Francisco Police Department (described above), I also participated in the process of drafting and campaigning for Proposition D, the Charter amendment that established the Sheriff Department Oversight Board and Inspector General. I participated in meetings with Supervisor Walton to discuss the drafting of the Charter Amendment, reviewed and suggested (adopted) changes to its language, and campaigned for its passage, including co-signing a letter with other former DPA employees advocating for its passage. (Continuation):

At all of these events, I listened attentively to concerns from community members about law enforcement in San Francisco.

I have played an active role in the law enforcement oversight community at the local and national level. I campaigned for the creation of the Office of Citizen Complaints (now the Department of Police Accountability) when the charter amendment to establish it was on the ballot in 1982. In 2003, I worked on the campaign to pass Proposition H, the police reform and accountability measure which gave the Board of Supervisors the power to appoint three of the 7 Police Commissioners, making that body more representative of San Francisco's diverse communities. In 2018, I volunteered with the campaign against Proposition H, the POA-sponsored measure regarding Tasers that would have seriously undermined the authority of the Police Commission and civilian oversight in San Francisco.

As an Investigator at the Public Defender's Office and as a criminal defense investigator, I have been a member of the criminal defense community in San Francisco, serving indigent clients, many of them people of color.

I have a deep commitment and tremendous passion for civilian oversight of law enforcement and am a long-standing and active member of the law enforcement oversight community.

Business and/or professional experience:

(Continuation):

I created a formal training program for new investigators, wrote performance evaluation criteria for investigators and wrote explanations of agency procedures for police officers and complainants. I also served as the SEIU 1021 Shop Steward for the agency.

I also worked for the Office of Citizen Complaints as a supervising investigator during its first year of operation, from 1983 to 1984, where I wrote its first policy recommendation, mandating that SFPD officers wear their star numbers in visible numerals on their helmets.

After leaving DPA in 2017, I worked for three years for East Bay Municipal Utility District as a Senior Human Resources Analyst, investigating EEO complaints of discrimination and harassment. Since retiring from that position, I have been working on a temporary basis for the Oakland Community Police Review Agency (CPRA) investigating the Oakland Police Department's handling of protests following George Floyd's murder.

I worked as an Investigator for the San Francisco Public Defender's Office for three years, conducting investigations for indigent defendants, most of them people of color. For 13 years, I was in private practice as an investigator, specializing in criminal defense investigation, typically for indigent clients represented by court-appointed attorneys. I also did considerable work on death penalty cases at the trial and appellate level, preparing a detailed and comprehensive life history of an individual charged with a capital offense. This involved conducting interviews with dozens of family members, friends, teachers, employers and institutional personnel, and gathering every relevant public and private document related to the defendant's life, ranging from school to criminal justice to medical to institutional records.

I have been an active member of the National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement since 2003. I served on its Board of Directors for seven years, chaired its Professional Standards Committee, drafted its Qualification Standards for Oversight Investigators and Supervising Investigators, and its Recommended Training for Board and Commission Members. I also played a major role in drafting NACOLE's Code of Ethics. I currently serve on NACOLE's Training, Education and Standards Committee, and have conducted three NACOLE webinars since 2017, most recently in August 2021 on Conducting Effective Interviews. I have given training presentations at multiple NACOLE conferences and given presentations about civilian oversight of law enforcement to community groups in San Diego, Sonoma and Napa.

I also operate a small business conducting team-building events which teaches effective collaboration, problem-solving and decision-making skills.

Civic Activities:

(Continuation):

For over 30 years, I have organized the annual Chinese New Year Treasure Hunt, which has benefitted San Francisco-based non-profit agencies including Hamilton Family Center, Riley Center for Battered Women, Bay Area Women's and Children's Center, the San Francisco Food Bank and the San Francisco Circus Center. This event draws hundreds of participants (1800, at its height) who solve clues leading to overlooked treasure spots (many connected with local history and culture) in Chinatown and North Beach on the night of the annual Chinese New Year Parade.

I have also organized similar treasure hunts in Oakland (benefitting Game Theory Academy, an Oakland-based education nonprofit that teaches economic and strategic decision-making skills and creates job opportunities for East Bay youth), Sonoma (benefitting the Sonoma Community Center), and Berkeley (benefitting Berkeley public schools).

As a Muslim, formerly incarcerated and community organizer for all human rights, I am the symbol of the unified voice for freedom and justice from San Francisco and throughout the nation. After being incarcerated for over 31 years, advocating for judicial reforms for youth offenders and serving my San Francisco community on the Re-entry Council, I am humbled to have the endorsement of the San Francisco Jail Justice Coalition as an appointee to the Sheriff's Department Oversight Committee.
I have direct professional experience working for nonprofit organizations and civic departments where I directly and personally assist formerly incarcerated individuals, contribute to better policy practices and the passing of reform bills. I believe we must work to reduce recidivism and enact sentencing reform through the appropriate governmental channels to ensure justice and safety for all. As a former youth offender whose length of incarceration was deemed unconstitutional as cruel and unusual by the California Appellate Court and upheld by the California Superior Court, I am especially passionate about justice and equity in sentencing. I bring an essential perspective to the SDOC as an individual who was formerly incarcerated and as an individual who personally navigated the struggles of reintegration and works daily to assist others in their transition from the criminal justice system into society.
It is imperative that voices of those that were formerly incarcerated, and a member of the public that is currently working diligently within governmental structures are carefully considered to establish non-bias evaluations of the work of the OIG and review the Inspector General's individual work performance. Furthermore, compile and recommend law enforcement custodial and patrol best practices, after conducting thorough community outreach and receive community input regarding SFSD operations and jail conditions, by holding public meetings and soliciting input from persons incarcerated in the City and County. I am extremely fortunate to have direct experience studying sentencing patterns and working directly with nonprofit organizations (including Legal Services for Prisoners with Children and Oakland Private Industry Council) that combat recidivism and mass incarceration. It prepared me for my membership on the Subcommittee for Direct Services. We have taken on the task of creating a public education campaign to education the community of San Francisco. This outreach will be a model for the state and nation to better serve the re-entry community, formerly incarcerated, homeless and others. I have built a reliable infstructure to best carry out the duties while holding a seat on the SDOC.
I am the voice of our times.

Business and/or professional experience:

My experiences and skills that support my candidacy on the Sheriff's Department Oversight Committee:

Policy Fellow, promoted to Communications Fellow, for Legal Services for Prisoners with Children. 1. Respond to correspondence from incarcerated men and women and return appropriate self-advocacy manuals. 2. Community Organizer, All Of Us Or None, memberships in coalitions on criminal justice issues. 3. Host of One Community One Mic a live webinar on Facebook, a think tank to share and discuss strategies for community organizing. 4. Direct organizations and coalitions to shape policy language on numerous bills and proposals with: Abolishing Bondage Coalition for ACA's to remove involuntary servitude for the California Constitution; San Francisco Jail Justice Coalition with Sheriff Miyamoto; RESPECT-Close DJJ the Right Way; a youth justice coalition to reform the department of juvenile justice through legislation to pass SB 823, advocating for voting rights for parolees and organizing to educate California citizens on Proposition 17; lobby for youth offender reform; and founding member of Abolish Slavery National Network, a national effort to remove involuntary servitude and slavery as punishment for those convicted of crimes from the US and California constitution.

An active member of San Francisco Re-Entry Council: Sentencing Commission; Co-Chair of the Legislation, Policy and Practices Sub-committee; and Direct Services Sub-committee.

Re-Entry Coach, Oakland Private Industry Council. 1. Direct assistance and reintegration of parolees back into society. For example, welcome parolees, ensure they have proper ID, driver license, social security card and assist with employment placing. 2. I was responsible for designing the Apricot platform which is a database system for non-profits to submit reporting to grant funders. I conduct weekly reporting to track the system's effectiveness. In my non-profit positions, I often conduct oral and written reports to staff management, and clients to provide status updates on efforts to reduce recidivism and reintegrate formerly incarcerated individuals back into society. 3. Direct experience combating recidivism. Working with parole officers to write effective plans for employment, teach classes on obtaining employment and resume writing and navigating classes and resources.

Experiences within prison that position me perfectly for a seat on this commission: 1. Obtaining Associates Degree with emphasis in Business Administration. 2. Men's Advisory Council, writing proposals, agendas from meetings with administration, holding town hall meetings, liaison between incarcerated and administration and dispute resolution and mediation. 3. Independent Study Program - Created this program at Solano State Prison to give inmates ability to use governor waiver form to get free community college education and provided a physical space for study hall, use computers, tutoring and proctoring. 4. Insight Gardening Program - Created first meditating garden inside Solano State Prison. Sense of fulfillment and stewardship for the earth and for a strong sense of self-sufficiency. 5. Entrepreneurship and Leadership with Defy Ventures - Award winning Entrepreneur-in-Training, elected as event coordinator and peer facilitator to teach the program after I graduated. Why is it important to teach these skills? Because it combats recidivism!

My period of incarceration has prepared me for my purpose in life: to reform the criminal justice system with fair sentencing for juveniles, adults and life term inmates while maintaining public safety and justice. I have the skills and dedication the SDOC requires. I'm the best person for this job. In this moment of great American awakening around the injustices towards disenfranchised citizens, the committee must find it imperative to lift the voices of those who have transformed, educated themselves and worked diligently within the proper governmental channels to achieve justice for all.

April 2, 2021

President Shamann Walton
Board of Supervisors
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear President Walton,

It is with great enthusiasm that the undersigned organizations recommend William Palmer to serve as a representative to the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board.

Each of our organizations are members of the San Francisco Jail Justice Coalition, which is comprised of community groups and formerly incarcerated people who work to uplift the needs of justice-involved people in San Francisco. William has been an active and influential participant in our Coalition. We have had the privilege of benefitting from his lived experience in our work to make reforms to our local jail system, including recommendations around the implementation of San Francisco's first-in-the-nation reforms to make jail phone calls free and eliminate commissary markups.

After serving 31 years of incarceration as a youth offender, William has worked passionately to move our criminal system towards more equitable outcomes. This is demonstrated by his work in local organizations advocating for criminal legal reform, such as Legal Services for Prisoners With Children and All of Us or None. Over the past year, William has thoughtfully contributed to the work of the SF Jail Justice Coalition, serving as a subject matter expert and bringing his insight from years of community organizing. He draws on his direct experience being impacted by the criminal system to effectively advocate for reform. We highly value his input and recommendations, and he has been instrumental in moving our jail system towards more just and fair outcomes for incarcerated people and their families.

Through his work in our Coalition, William has participated in regular meetings with Sheriff Miyamoto and other senior command staff at the Sheriff's Office. We know that the Sheriff's Office highly values engagement with impacted individuals and people with lived experience. William's engagement and interactions with the Sheriff's Office have always been professional, supportive, and productive: traits that make him well suited to serve on the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board.

William has already served San Francisco, his adopted home city, through his appointment to the San Francisco Sentencing Commission, where he is a Co-Chair of the Subcommittee on Legislation, Policy & Practices and a member of the Subcommittee for Direct Services. Furthermore, William has created landmark revisions to Title 15 rules and regulations for Youth Offender Hearings (SB260) with In re William Palmer (2) and established constitutional excessive punishment and parole policy with In re William Palmer (3). William is also a proud member of United Playaz. William has already strengthened San Francisco's most vulnerable communities and our Coalition strongly believes that our City and the Sheriff's Office would greatly benefit from having William on the Sheriff's Office Oversight Board.

We are confident that William's experience working directly with government partners and community groups will allow him to make a strong and impactful contribution to the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board. Please feel free to contact Anne Stuhldreher at Anne.Stuhldreher@sfgov.org if you have any questions. We would be happy to expand on our recommendation.

Sincerely,

All of Us or None

Dear Honorable Members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors:

I am writing to ask that Mr. Hanley Chan be appointed to the San Francisco Sheriff Department Oversight Board. Hanley's qualification, background, community involvement, and law enforcement experience make him supremely qualified to be part of your oversight board. Hanley's extensive experience shows his commitment to the community and his knowledge of what the oversight board does. As a San Francisco native I believe this city needs a person that will work hard to make the Sheriff department better. During a time of deep racial tension and the Asian-American community's feeling vulnerable throughout the country, Hanley's being a Chinese-American will bring diversity and much-needed representation of the Asian Pacific-Islander community in San Francisco, which has the largest Chinese population in the United States. Hanley Chan is the perfect community leader for the San Francisco Sheriff Department Oversight Board will give the board. I urge you to appoint him to your oversight board.

Dear Honorable Members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors:

I am writing to ask that Mr. Hanley Chan be appointed to the San Francisco Sheriff Department Oversight Board.

Hanley's qualification, background, community involvement, and law enforcement experience make him supremely qualified to be part of your oversight board. Hanley has experience in law enforcement and has been a proactive community police officer when he started his career as a San Francisco Patrol Special Police Officer in the Lower Polk neighborhood and gained the trust and respect of residents and merchants in the neighborhood. Now, more than ever, understanding the importance of community policing is paramount to give law enforcement officers more credibility in order to gain the community's trust and serve the community in the best way possible without compromising safety.

Service above self is also important during this tumultuous time between law enforcement officers and the people they serve. Hanley's many years of service to the City and County of San Francisco is evident in the responsibilities he has undertaken that have focused on good government as a former Grand Juror on the San Francisco Civil Grand Jury and member of the San Francisco Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. Further, his service to our country in the United States Navy and the California National Guard shows his love for our country and the State of California. Thankfully, this service has been rewarded by his being appointed to the San Francisco Veterans Affairs Commission and to the United States Selective Service Board by President Obama. Hanley's accomplishments have shown that he values, and believes in, service above self.

Hanley's qualifications to serve on your oversight board show his commitment to the community and his knowledge of what the oversight board does. However, during a time of deep racial tension and the Asian-American community's feeling vulnerable throughout the country, Hanley's being a Chinese-American will bring diversity and much-needed representation of the Asian Pacific-Islander community in San Francisco, which has the largest Chinese population in the United States.

Hanley Chan is the perfect community leader for the San Francisco Sheriff Department Oversight Board will give the board. I urge you to appoint him to your oversight board.

Dear President Walton,

It is with great enthusiasm that the undersigned organizations recommend Valentina Sedeno to serve as a representative to the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board.

Each of our organizations are members of the San Francisco Jail Justice Coalition, which is comprised of community groups and formerly incarcerated people who work to uplift the needs of justice-involved people in San Francisco. Valentina has been an active participant in our Coalition and her perspective and advocacy was instrumental in making San Francisco the first city in the nation to put people over profits by making jail phone calls free and eliminating commissary markups.

Through the SF Jail Justice Coalition, Valentina has participated in regular meetings with Sheriff Miyamoto, former Sheriff Hennessy, and other senior command staff at the Sheriff's Office. We know that the Sheriff's Office highly values engagement with impacted individuals and community, and Valentina often draws on both her professional experience working with justice-involved people and personal experience supporting justice-involved family members. Valentina's engagement and interactions with the Sheriff's Office have always been professional, supportive, and productive: traits that make her well suited to serve on the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board.

Should she be appointed, Valentina's experience working directly with vulnerable San Franciscans will undoubtedly make her an effective and respected voice on the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board. She currently serves as a Reentry Program Manager at Young Community Developers, where she works to support high at-risk and in-risk individuals who have been involved with the criminal justice system through job readiness training, subsidized work experience, and employment and education placement services. Previously, she also served as the Director of the Precita Center for Mission Neighborhood Centers, overseeing educational and recreational programming and legal advocacy for underserved young people and their families. Valentina is prepared to serve on a City commission, having done so before when she was appointed by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors to the Close Juvenile Hall Working Group.

We are confident that Valentina's experience working directly with government partners and community groups will inform an impactful contribution to the San Francisco Sheriff's Office Oversight Board. Please feel free to contact Anne Stuhldreher at Anne.Stuhldreher@sfgov.org if you have any questions. We would be happy to expand on our recommendation.

Re: Support for Jessica Pishko for Sheriff Oversight Board

Dear Chairperson Peskin and Hon. Supervisors:

On behalf of Secure Justice, I write in strong support of Jessica Pishko's application to serve on the Sheriff Oversight Board for San Francisco.

Ms. Pishko is one of the nation's foremost experts on Sheriff oversight and reform. I have personally relied on her research for a number of years, and during this year's state legislative cycle, we had the pleasure of collaborating on Senator Wiener's SB 271 (now turned into a 2-year bill), which would have changed the election criteria for candidates seeking the office of Sheriff. The Senator selected Ms. Pishko to be one of our expert witnesses at committee, and she continues to advise our statewide coalition as we prepare for our return next session.

Ms. Pishko is local, she has taught at San Quentin and San Francisco City College, and she continues to advise Bay Area activists, academics, and legislators on Sheriff and jail reform matters.

For these reasons, we are in strong support of Ms. Pishko's application to serve on the oversight board. Please contact me for any questions about our position.

Dear Supervisor Aaron Peskin, Supervisor Rafael Mandelman,
and Supervisor Connie Chan:

I wanted to thank you for the opportunity to discuss my interest in the Sheriff's Department Oversight Board and give you some background on me and my work.

As a lawyer, advocate, and journalist, I have witnessed how mass incarceration is the most pressing problem of our time, impacting families, communities, and governments around the nation, and, particularly, California.

By way of background, I attended Harvard Law School, where I got my JD, and Columbia University, where I received an MFA in writing. Much of my prior work as a lawyer in New York City was representing clients on appeal from death sentences and working with survivors of domestic violence to obtain child custody, protection order, and support.

I lived in San Francisco full time from 2013 through 2019 (Inner Sunset) where I taught at City College and San Quentin in addition to working as a journalist reporting on the criminal legal system. (We have been splitting time between the Bay Area, staying in Marin, and Dallas, where my parents live and have needed assistance. We are actively in the process of moving back to San Francisco.) These experiences taught me the importance of listening to the voices of the incarcerated and the struggles of returning citizens. Much of my advocacy work prior to sheriffs was around the prosecutorial elections and advancing information about the importance of prosecutorial discretion.

When I first began working on sheriff accountability issues, I discovered that there was a lack of information about sheriffs and, as a result, a lack of public awareness about what questions to ask of a sheriff's office and how to begin reform. During a non-resident fellowship at the University of South Carolina School of Law, I worked with experts in policing and gathered information on sheriff requirements, training, and removal procedures in every state. This was the first project to gather this information in one place.

Since then, I have worked with the Justice Collaborative, the ACLU, Campaign Zero, and other local grassroots groups to educate the public on the role of sheriffs and the need for sheriff oversight and accountability. I regularly present information to community groups so people can learn about their sheriff, including issues like LGBTQ concerns, harm reduction, and mental health. I have also done the only scholarship on the role of sheriffs in evictions. During the pandemic, I helped gather a group of sheriffs who signed on in a pledge to decarcerate their jails to reduce the threat of COVID-19 to staff, those incarcerated, and the public at large. I also assisted with policy and testimony for Senator Weiner's SB 271, which would widen the pool for sheriff candidates in California. For many local groups, I have helped design policy platforms for future demands and recruit new candidates to run for sheriff.

This month, I am assisting with the launch of Communities for Sheriff Accountability, which is a coalition of grassroots groups – including Faith in Action, the Advancement

Project, and the Workers' Party – to help create more public awareness of the role of sheriffs.

As you know, California is on the vanguard for sheriff oversight, and this is both exciting and overdue. For a long time, sheriffs have operated their offices in the shadow, even though what they do is immensely important. For one thing, sheriffs operate jails, which are mass incarceration's front door. So many more people will experience the inside of a jail cell than they will state prison. Substantial research shows that jails are incredibly dangerous and the site of a great deal of trauma – more people will commit suicide within the first few days of arrest – in addition to the prevalence of individuals with mental health challenges, those experiencing poverty and homelessness, and those in withdrawal. And, because of realignment and other California policies, jails in California hold more people, who have greater needs, for longer periods of time.

Second, sheriffs are important in many civil and criminal enforcement matters. Sheriffs oversee weapons permits and protective orders. They also carry out evictions. These are matters that impact so many people, but especially those already experiencing trauma and who have been neglected by other systems.

My vision for the San Francisco Sheriff Department – and the Civilian Oversight Committee – is to align on goals for accountability and transparency. While the San Francisco Sheriff has already done a great deal to improve the availability of data to the people of the country, it is important to do more, both to help people in the community understand what happens inside jails and to help the office improve. Tracking who is in jail, for how long, and what happens once they see a judge, are vital to helping out community.

Of immense importance – critical to the health of the entire community – is to think about the conditions of the San Francisco jail system and how to alleviate the trauma for those who are incarcerated and who work there. Indeed, jails are dangerous for everyone; the pandemic has made this very clear. And, for those who are already experiencing disproportionate harm, jails compound the concerns. LGBTQ individuals, for example, experience great violence in society and even more so inside jails, where they are more likely to be assaulted or have traumatic experiences that make returning to the community so difficult. People with long-term mental health diagnoses and substance use disorder often end up in jail, are unable to pay bail, and may stay for longer periods of time.

Jails are, in fact, a vital part of the community. It may seem strange to put it this way, but society as a whole cannot tackle challenges rooted in racism and inequity without examining its jail and policing systems. COVID-19 had made it plain that communities are interconnected. We are none of us an island, and we must all work together to achieve the vision that I, you, and so many San Francisco residents want for our children.

I look forward to working with you, discussing my vision for the sheriff's office, and sharing in the important work you do to improve our community. Thank you for the time, and please reach out if you have questions or want to discuss.

Best,
Jessica Pishko

RE: File # 210481 – Appointments, Sheriff's Department Oversight Board

Supervisors,

I write to recommend Jessica Pishko for the Sheriff's Department Oversight Board. As you know, the Sheriff's Department Oversight Board would advise and make policy recommendations to the sheriff and Board of Supervisors concerning department operations, complaints against employees and contractors, and in-custody deaths. For years Ms. Pishko has reported on California jails and prisons and the criminal legal system, and she has therefore received an up-close look at the issues plaguing Sheriff's Departments across the nation. That deep knowledge of the issues that other departments have faced give her the capacity to identify gaps in policy that can be corrected prior to problematic incidents.

Ms. Pishko is deeply invested in this work. I recall a conversation with her last year wherein we discussed the formation of a new organization representing elected progressive prosecutors in California. She expressed a similar need for elected Sheriffs due to the traditional, tough-on-crime values that most Sheriffs Associations espouse. Sheriff Miyamoto is incredibly capable and is committed to modernizing and reforming the department. Those providing oversight of the department should be equally capable and knowledgeable of the issues facing Sheriff's Departments. Ms. Pishko is exceedingly capable and knowledgeable, and I recommend her without hesitation.

Sincerely,

Max Szabo, Esq.

Re: Support for Jessica Pishko for Sheriff Oversight Board

Dear Chairperson Peskin and Hon. Supervisors:

I write to support of Jessica Pishko's application to serve on the Sheriff Oversight Board for San Francisco. It is hard to think of a more qualified candidate.

Jessica is a veteran journalist who has reported extensively on the criminal justice system, with a particular focus on the California jails and prisons. She is also an expert in the myriad legal issues pertaining to sheriffs, and having held a fellowship at the University of Southern California in sheriff accountability, is very familiar with how sheriff's offices operate in California. Her newsletter is a go-to for those seeking expertise on this topic. She is writing a book about sheriffs for a general public audience that will be published by Dutton.

Jessica is also a team player. She has been a consultant on a number of sheriff campaigns, working closely with non-profits including the ACLU, Campaign Zero, and RFK. She was also a co-founder of Communities for Sheriff Accountability, which is an umbrella organization for grassroots groups that are seeking to bring reform and transparency to sheriff's offices.

Dear Rules Committee,

We at the Grover Cleveland Democratic Club of San Francisco are deathly concerned about the seating of the Sheriff's Oversight Committee. While the voters of San Francisco approved Prop D, many of our members, including many API individuals concerned with rising crime in the city and hate murders, voted no on the charter amendment, and it is likely in the city's high crime environment, the taxpayers of the city would vote no on this misguided policy were it on the ballot today, and we ask for a continuance given these pressing concerns.

We are seeing many Asian-Americans, who are greater than 1/3 of the electorate, getting beaten, raped, and murdered. Retail theft has gotten so bad that Walgreens and Target have to either close early or shut their doors altogether. Given the circumstances, the public is hardly clamoring for coddling of lawbreakers, and we at the Grover Cleveland Democratic Club believe that one shouldn't do the crime if they can't handle the rigors of doing time. No crime victim will be crying for some criminal who was forced into a gladiator fight.

With that said, should you decide to appoint somebody to the new Sheriff's Oversight Board, why not a deputy sheriff? Michael Nguyen is a good guy, and a team player who does everything by the book, and we think that we must have someone with the perspectives from the front lines. After all, we supported front-line workers during the COVID crisis, we should support those who know and apply department policy. We think that sheriffs should govern sheriffs, police should govern police, firefighters should govern firefighters, and street cleaners should govern streetcleaners once M.

Haney's Clean Streets Commission gets enacted.

In closing, it's best if, out of respect for our retail workers and crime victims, that this kangaroo commission not be seated, but if you must seat them, we must have good sheriff's deputies like Michael Nguyen serving on them.

The Grover Cleveland Democratic Club Of San Francisco is a forum for moderate and conservative Democrats who feel left out of the elite circles of the city we call home. We support clean streets, toughness on crime, business friendly taxation and regulations, common sense, and a better quality of life for all in this city. We must secure a safe and prosperous future for our children in San Francisco.
