Biography of William E. Adams, ILWU International Secretary-Treasurer

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, William E. Adams moved to Tacoma, Washington in 1978 where he worked on the docks as a longshoreman for 24 years.

In 1998, Adams was elected by co-workers to serve on their local union Executive Board, then chosen in 2000 to serve on the union's International Executive Board. Adams was also elected to serve as one of three Trustees who oversee the ILWU's finances.

In addition to his financial and legislative responsibilities, Adams has been a passionate cultural advocate. He produced the "Celebrations of Black History and Labor" programs in Tacoma in 1991, 1992 and 1993, and again in 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2005. The events featured leading cultural and political figures including Danny Glover, Paul Robeson, Jr., Yolanda King (Martin Luther King Jr.'s daughter), hip hop icon Chuck D, and Betty Shabazz (daughter of Malcolm X). The programs received national attention and critical acclaim.

Adams is also executive producer of several documentary films, including one exploring the life of African American writer Langston Hughes, "Hughes' Dream Harlem," and "The Black Composers," which tells the story of African American film score composers. Adams is currently involved with a full-length dramatic film exploring the life of labor leader Harry Bridges.

Adams' cultural work has been recognized by the cities of Los Angeles and Tacoma which have issued proclamations and awards honoring his cultural contributions.

In 2003, ILWU members elected Adams to serve as their International Secretary-Treasurer at the union headquarters in San Francisco, where he has responsibility for the organization's finances, oversees the union's political action work, and represents the union at international functions. Adams has represented the ILWU during visits with workers in South Africa, Australia, Spain, Cuba, Vietnam and China. In addition to his union duties, Adams serves on the Board of TransAfrica, where he works closely with Board Chairman Danny Glover and Board member Harry Belafonte.

In 2009, Adams was appointed by Mayor Gavin Newsom to a position on the San Francisco Film Commission which he still holds today. Adams has resided in San Francisco since 2003.

The Honorable Edwin Lee
Mayor, City of San Francisco
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 200
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Mayor Lee:

On behalf of the Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO, I am writing to offer our unequivocal support for William Adams, International Secretary Treasurer of the International Longshore and Warehouse Union (ILWU), to the San Francisco Port Commission. His knowledge of the maritime industry, years of inspirational leadership in the ILWU, as well as his work as a member of the San Francisco Film Commission, give him the vision and acumen to serve the Bay Area exceptionally well on the San Francisco Port Commission.

It has been my pleasure to work with Mr. Adams over the years. I have always been impressed by his gentle humility and keen insight when addressing difficult issues. As the International Secretary Treasurer of the ILWU, he has been a stalwart advocate for working people and the maritime community, always searching for ways to improve working relationships with the ports. Willie clearly understands that investing in our ports is absolutely essential to the economic vitality of the Bay Area as we create innovative ways to connect tourism and commerce.

The City and the people of San Francisco would be well served by Mr. Adams on the Port Commission. He brings with him decades of experience and dedication to making things better for working people and for the larger community.

Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Mr. Willie Adams
International Secretary-Treasurer
International Longshore and Warehouse Union
1188 Franklin Street
San Francisco, California 94109

Dear Mr. Adams:

I am pleased to offer my congratulations to you on your appointment to San Francisco's Port Commission by Mayor Lee.

Your extensive experience as a longshoreman and marine clerk, as well as your leadership as International Secretary-Treasurer of the International Longshore Warehouse Union, will greatly benefit our City. The Port Commission is essential to maintaining our City's economic health and protecting our Bay, especially as the Port undergoes redevelopment and San Francisco prepares to host the 2013 America's Cup.

Thank you for your outstanding leadership and your willingness to serve as a commissioner at this important juncture in our maritime history.

Best regards,

NANCY PELOSI

Re: Support for William Adams, San Francisco Port Commission

Dear Supervisor Avalos:

I am writing on behalf of Teamsters Joint Council 7 to voice our strong support for the for the appointment of William Adams, International Secretary-Treasurer of the International Longshore and Warehouse Union, to the San Francisco Port Commission. We believe Mr. Adams long experience in the maritime industry as both a member and officer of the ILWU and his strong background in service to our community makes him particularly well suited to serve as a Port Commissioner.

As a leader in the maritime and labor communities, his expertise is unparalleled when it comes to understanding the important ties the port brings to the Bay Area. The relationships that are fostered with labor and the maritime industry are essential for the future of our ports. In addition, as a member of the James R. Herman Cruise Terminal task force, he continues to advocate for investments in the maritime industry and recognizes the significance of connecting tourism to the community. His familiarity with the various elements that connect the Bay Area make him an instrumental component on the Port Commission.

Moreover, as a member of the San Francisco Film Commission for the past three years, Mr. Adams has worked diligently on a host of different projects that have benefitted the Bay Area.

With his experience and resources, we believe Mr. Adams will contribute valuable insight to the Port Commission on Bay Area projects in the future.

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors:

I am writing in support of the appointment of William Adams, International Secretary-Treasurer of the ILWU, to the San Francisco Port Commission. His positive contributions to the San Francisco Film Commission as well as his maritime background as a longshoreman make him a strong and qualified candidate for the San Francisco Port Commission.

During his term at the San Francisco Film Commission, Mr. Adams advocated and supported various projects that have benefitted the Bay Area. A leader in the maritime and labor communities, Mr. Adams has the experience and knowledge to understand the important role that the port has to our city.

In addition, as a member of the James R. Herman Cruise Terminal task force, Mr. Adams has served as a strong advocate for investments in the maritime industry and recognizes the significance of connecting tourism to the community.

I believe that Mr. Adams will be an excellent addition to the San Francisco Port Commission. Thank you for your consideration.
