Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

Out of twelve seats on the BAC, currently zero are occupied by women. Zero. This means one half of the city's population is not being represented on the committee at all. As a female, I can speak to the specific challenges we face as bicyclists and pedestrians, namely safety and family. I can also speak to what is keeping many women from the decision to bike.

Business and/or professional experience:

I currently work as the Organizer for SF Transit Riders (SFTRU), a grassroots advocacy group working to improve public transportation in San Francisco. As their only staff person, I handle a little bit of everything, ranging from outreach, community relations, communication, membership, social media, event planning, and public hearings. Before that I interned with Clean Transportation at the Department of the Environment, working in outreach and communication. In 2013, I recieved a Master of Fine Arts in Social Practice from California College of the Arts.

Civic Activities:

In addition to working for SF Transit Riders, I am an active member the SF Bike Coaliton and Walk SF. I create and lead public tours throughout the city. I helped to co-organize the last Sewer Tour Bike Ride. I also created a series of five public walks spanning the city with my project Lines Made by Walking. I am a frequent visitor to City Hall for public hearings on causes I care about, like transportation, traffic, land usage, energy usage, waste management, and housing. I consider myself a civic artist, working to empower other citizens to actively engage with the systems they are a part of.
