10 heritage of Bayview's indigenous populations; and,

11 WHEREAS, The Candlestick Point Subarea Plan and Hunters Point Shipyard Area
12 Plan, part of the City's General Plan, establish as City policy the need to "assure appropriate 13 treatment of archeological resources and resources important to native populations as unique, 14 irreplaceable records of the past and of ongoing cultural significance" while developing the 15 area. These documents are on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in File No.
16 100574; and,

5 Monitoring or Data Recovery Program; and,

9 State native American Heritage Commission (NAHC) be notified; and,

10 WHEREAS, San Francisco currently does not have a center dedicated to the culture
11 and history of Native Americans. Such a center could house resources including a

25 Redevelopment Agency to foster an ongoing and rigorous public participation process
