Resolution recognizing and celebrating Black History Month in the City and County of San Francisco during the month of February 2025.

WHEREAS, African American scholar and historian Dr. Carter G. Woodson founded the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, later renamed the Association for the Study of African American Life and History, which has historically worked to preserve, sustain, and commemorate African American history and culture; and

WHEREAS, On February 12, 1926, Dr. Woodson designated the second week of February, chosen to coincide with the birthdays of the prominent abolitionist Frederick Douglass and President Abraham Lincoln, as Black History Week, to honor the contributions made to our country and the world by African Americans; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month was first proposed by Black educators and the Black United Students at Kent State University in February 1969, and the first celebration of Black History Month took place at Kent State one year later in 1970; and

WHEREAS, In 1976, Black History Month was officially recognized nationwide in educational institutions, centers of Black culture and community centers, with President Gerald Ford calling upon the public to honor the accomplishments of Black Americans throughout history during the celebration of the United States Bicentennial; and

WHEREAS, The month of February is also significant for the birthdays of great African American pioneers and institutions, including William Edward Burghardt (W.E.B.) Du Bois, Langston Hughes, Eubie Black, Rosa Parks, Alice Walker, Leontyne Price, Toni Morrison, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the first Pan African Congress; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco has a rich Black history, with the Fillmore District once known as the "Harlem of the West," a vibrant cultural and jazz hub that nurtured artists such as Duke Ellington, Billie Holiday, and John Coltrane; and

WHEREAS, The Bayview-Hunters Point neighborhood has been a cornerstone of San Francisco's Black community, historically serving as a center for Black homeownership, business development, and community activism, and continues to be a focal point in the fight for environmental justice, housing equity, and economic empowerment and encompassing the African American Arts and Cultural District; and

WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco has historically been home to a strong and resilient Black community that has contributed immensely to civic life, arts, culture, and social justice movements, including civil rights activism, labor organizing, and political leadership; and

WHEREAS, February is now internationally recognized as Black History Month throughout the United States and various parts of the world; and

WHEREAS, During Black History Month and throughout the year, the City and County of San Francisco reflects on Black history, heritage, struggles, and contributions of Black Americans; and

WHERAS, In 2024, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors passed Resolution No. 86-24 formally issuing an apology on behalf of the Board and the City and County of San Francisco to African Americans and their descendants for systemic and structural discrimination, targeted acts of violence, and atrocities, and committing to the rectification and redress of past polices and misdeeds; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors and the City and County of San Francisco commit to recognizing and celebrating Black History Month during the month of February 2025; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors and the City and County of San Francisco recognize the inequities that exist in the African American community due to the legacy of systemic oppression, displacement, and past discriminatory City policies and therefore commit to supporting reparations, equity initiatives, and policies that improve the lives of Black people in the City, not just during Black History Month but year-round.
