12 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

13 Section 1. Findings. The Department of Human Services issued a Request For 14 Proposals (RFP) in 2007 for security services for its facilities. The RFP requested proposals 15 for a long-term fixed-price contract to provide services until June 30, 2012. In April 2008 the 16 San Francisco Board of Supervisors approved a contract between Guardsmark GP, the successful
17 proposer, and the City and County of San Francisco for the term May 1, 2008 through April 30 18 2013 in the amount of $21,100,370 (Resolution # 08-0332). After further negotiations and 19 litigation by an unsuccessful proposer, the contract terms now provide for a one year term
20 effective upon approval of this ordinance with automatic annual extensions through November 21 30, 2013 in the amount of $20,215,000 and also provide that Guardsmark GP may terminate
22 at the end of any contract year without penalty by giving appropriate notice. These terms vary
23 from the original RFP; allow termination for convenience by the contractor; and require a 24 waiver of Administrative Code section 21.9 (2) (b) which, prohibits contracts with provisions
25 that would automatically renew the contract term without further action by the City.

1 Section 2. The Board of Supervisors hereby approves the negotiated contract with 2 Guardsmark GP for a one year term effective upon approval of this ordinance and providing 3 for automatic annual extensions through November 30, 2013, in a not to exceed amount of 4 $20,215,000 and also providing that Guardsmark may terminate at the end of any contract
5 year without penalty by giving appropriate notice. A copy of the contract so approved is 6 located in file # in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.
