Section 1. The Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Chapter 110, consisting of Sections 110.1 through 110.8, to read as follows:

CHAPTER 110: FORGIVABLE LOAN FOR FIRST-TIME HOMEBUYERS

SEC. 110.1. FINDINGS.

(a) The economic and social disparities associated with homeownership access and housing instability in San Francisco are well-established and well-documented, as reflected in the Planning Department's General Plan demographic data on persons experiencing homelessness, rent burdens, evictions, and exposure to environmental pollutants, and low homeownership rates.

1 (b) The history of disparate access to homeownership in San Francisco generally mirrors
2 that of the United States. Discriminatory practices of limiting access to wealth accumulation through
3 home purchasing have greatly contributed to wealth gaps. These practices were sustained primarily
4 through residential redlining and restrictive covenants.

5 (c) Residential redlining refers to the discriminatory real estate practices of public and
6 private institutions that identified non-white communities as financially high-risk areas of investment,
7 leading to the withholding of financial services necessary to acquire real estate in communities of
8 color. Racially restrictive covenants were included in property deeds to restrict the racial composition
9 of potential homebuyers. These practices were pervasive and longstanding in San Francisco as well as 10 other areas of the country.

11 (d) The Planning Department’s 2023 General Plan, in Objective 2.B, identifies access to 12 homeownership for communities that have been harmed through targeted economic disruption,
13 displacement, and manufactured barriers to accumulating intergenerational wealth.

14 (e) This ordinance intends to provide down payment assistance to communities that have 15 been harmed through targeted economic disruption, displacement, and manufactured barriers to 16 accumulating intergenerational wealth so that San Francisco can address multigenerational inequities
17 in access to homeownership and to narrow and ultimately close homeownership wealth gaps.

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Administrative Code - Forgivable Loan for First-Time Homebuyers Fund and Program]

Ordinance amending the Administrative Code to establish the Forgivable Loan for First-Time Homebuyers Program and the Forgivable Loan for First-Time Homebuyers Fund to assist low, moderate, and middle-income first-time homebuyers who would otherwise not be able to purchase a primary residence in San Francisco; and to require the Human Rights Commission to establish policies and procedures to issue and possibly forgive loans from the Fund, and to provide oversight, monitoring, and forgiveness of such loans.

Existing Law

While the City and County of San Francisco (the “City”) provides a first time home buyer, down payment assistance loan program through the Mayor’s Office of Housing and Community Development, there is currently no fund or down payment loan program administered by the Human Rights Commission to assist low-, moderate-, and middle-income first-time homebuyers who have been harmed through targeted economic disruption, displacement, and manufactured barriers to accumulating intergenerational wealth.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposed ordinance would establish a Forgivable Loan for First-Time Homebuyers Program to assist low-, moderate-, and middle-income first-time homebuyers, or persons who would otherwise not be able to purchase a primary residence in San Francisco (the “Program”).

Under the Program, a borrower’s maximum household income may not exceed 200% of the area median income for San Francisco as set annually by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”), adjusted for household size. A borrower who meets one of the following five criteria would have priority for a loan under the Program:

1. A person who holds a ‘Residential Certificate of Preference,’ or is a descendant of a household that held a ‘Residential Certificate of Preference,’ as defined in the Certificate of Preference (“COP”) Program rules and was displaced in Western Addition, South of Market (“SOMA”), or Bayview Hunters Point by the former San Francisco Redevelopment Agency.
2. A current or former recipient of the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program of the San Francisco Housing Authority (“SFHA”).
3. A current or former public housing resident relocated by the SFHA due to the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program or a current or former member of HOPE SF sites, as defined in Chapter 39, Section 39.4(b) of the Administrative Code.
4. A member of a household paying more than 50% of the household’s income in rent;

5. A person 55 years old or older and a current or former resident of Western Addition, South of Market (SOMA) or Bayview Hunters Point.

The ordinance would also require the Human Rights Commission (“HRC”) to administer and manage the Program. The Director of HRC would establish regulations setting forth the policies and procedures of the Program (“Program Regulations”) to issue loans from the Fund and to provide oversight, monitoring, and forgiveness of such loans. The Director of HRC would prepare all loan documents, require that loans be secured by a deed of trust and other security instruments for the benefit of the City, and monitor compliance with all loan agreements, Program Regulations, and applicable laws.

In addition, this ordinance would establish the Forgivable Loan for First-Time Homebuyers Fund (the “Fund”) that would provide funding for the loans provided under the Program. The Fund would be a category eight fund, and the Director of HRC would approve expenditures of the Fund.
