5 High Speed Rail Authority and supporting the work of the Authority to build a high-
6 speed rail system in California.

7
8 WHEREAS, The Honorable Quentin Kopp is a citizen and former elected official 9 residing in San Francisco; and

10 WHEREAS, Judge Kopp's election in 1986 represented election of the first non-11 incumbent Independent to the legislature since 1944, his re-election in 1990 constituted the 12 first time an Independent was re-elected to the legislature in the history of California. That 13 historic milestone was reiterated by his re-election as an Independent to a third term in the 14 State Senate in 1994; and,

15
16 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Board of Supervisors have repeatedly expressed their 17 support for building a 770-mile high speed rail system between San Francisco and Los 18 Angeles as a safe, reliable, transportation option for Californians; and,

19 WHEREAS, A high speed rail system environmental, social and technological benefits 20 are numerous, including decreased dependence on foreign petroleum, decreased energy use, 21 decreased emissions of air pollutants, decreased suburban sprawl, decreased impacts to 22 wetlands and biological resources compared to highway and airport expansions; and,

23
24 WHEREAS, As author of the 1993 SCA6 (Kopp) and 1996 SB1420 (Kopp) establishing 25 the legislation to study the feasibility of high-speed rail and creating the California High Speed
