

CDC 21-2103

Integrated Viral Hepatitis Prevention and Surveillance Grant

Agenda item #7- Accept and Expend Request

Katie Burk

Viral Hepatitis Coordinator

San Francisco Department of Public Health

Population Health Division/Community Health Equity and Promotion

CDC 21-2103: Integrated Hepatitis Prevention and Surveillance

Total Grant Amount—$315,000

- Component 1 – Prevention $115,000
 - Focus on hepatitis C elimination planning
 - Supporting Strategic Director Position for End Hep C SF
- Component 2 – Surveillance $200,000
 - Focus on regular hepatitis data reporting, negative RNA results
 - Supporting new hire of an Epidemiologist II in hepatitis surveillance

CDC 21-2103: Integrated Hepatitis Prevention and Surveillance Activities

- Hepatitis B and C elimination planning and implementation
- Outbreak response planning
- Core surveillance support and reporting
- Integration of negative hepatitis C RNA results
- Focus on perinatal hepatitis C
- Focus on microelimination of hepatitis C among people living with HIV

CDC 21-2103 Benefits to SFDPH

- First time SFDPH is funded for hepatitis prevention work
 - Joining cohort of 49 state and 8 city awardees
- Supporting the crucial work around hepatitis B and C elimination
- Measuring and addressing racial disparities in both hepatitis B and C
- Improving surveillance capacity will better enable
 - Measuring true hepatitis B and C prevalence
 - Understanding progress on hepatitis C elimination by accounting for number of individuals treated
 - Alignment of best practices in viral hepatitis surveillance already practiced in other HDs

Thank you!

Katie Burk

Viral Hepatitis Coordinator

Community Health Equity and Promotion Branch, Population Health

katie.burk@sfdph.org

Rachel Grinstein

Hepatitis C Data Manager

Community Health Equity and Promotion Branch, Population Health

rachel.grinstein@sfdph.org