[Under Charter Section 2.113(b), this measure must be submitted to the Board of Supervisors and filed with the Department of Elections no less than 45 days prior to deadline for submission of such initiatives to the Department of Elections set in Municipal Elections Code Section 300(b).]

[Initiative Ordinance - Accessory Dwelling Units]

Ordinance amending the Planning Code to allow the construction of Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs, also known as Secondary or In-Law Units) on all lots in the City in areas that allow residential use; amending the Administrative Code to revise the definition of “rental unit” as it applies to ADUs.

NOTE: Unchanged Code text and uncodified text are in plain font.
Additions to Codes are in single-underline italics Times New Roman font.
Deletions to Codes are in strikethrough italics Times New Roman font.
Asterisks (* * * *) indicate the omission of unchanged Code subsections or parts of tables.

Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

Section 1. Legislative Findings.

- (a) San Francisco's total land area is approximately 49 square miles, and much of this land is not open to development because of prohibitive topography or public ownership.
- (b) According to the 2010 United States Census Report, San Francisco is the most densely populated city in California. The San Francisco Bay Area is the second most densely populated metropolitan area in the United States, following only New York City.
- (c) Housing costs in San Francisco are beyond the reach of the vast majority of low- and middle-income households. Approximately 90% of individuals earning less than $35,000 and over 50% of individuals making from $35,000 to $75,000 are spending more than 30% of their income on rent.

(d) San Francisco has a shortage of affordable housing units, exacerbated not only by a shortage of new affordable housing units, but also by the continuing loss of affordable housing units across the City. While approximately 6,300 new affordable housing units were built in the period from 2005 to 2015, over 4,500 rent controlled and otherwise protected affordable units were withdrawn from the housing market.

(e) Policy 1.5 of the City's 2014 Housing Element, which is a required element of the City's General Plan, states that adding new units in existing residential buildings represents a simple and cost-effective method of expanding the City's housing supply. These units could be developed to meet the needs of seniors, people with disabilities and others who, because of modest incomes or lifestyles, prefer or need small units at relatively low rents, while simultaneously enhancing their overall safety and habitability.

(f) Section 65852.2 of the California Government Code provides that any local agency may, by ordinance, provide for the creation of Accessory Dwelling Units (also known as "second" or "in-law" units) in zones that allow for residential use. The State Legislature finds and declares that these units are a valuable form of housing in California.

(g) Expanding the ability to construct Accessory Dwelling Units in San Francisco to all areas that allow for residential use will provide additional housing that may be subject to rent control and other rent stabilization protections, without substantially changing their built character and allowing more residents to live within walking distance of transit, shopping, and services.

(h) Allowing Accessory Dwelling Units within existing residential buildings, subject to restrictions that incentivize their use as additional affordable rental housing, is a pragmatic infill strategy to create more housing for San Francisco residents. This strategy is crucial for San Francisco's housing market in multiple respects.

(i) This infill strategy would create more apartments in the areas of the city that are already built-out without changing the neighborhood character, increasing building heights or altering the built form. Such small-scale residential infill could create additional homes for existing and future San Franciscans spread throughout the city.

(j) A need exists in San Francisco for additional affordable housing. By allowing Accessory Dwelling Units citywide, San Francisco will continue to be a major provider of affordable housing opportunities in the region.

Section 2. The Planning Code is hereby amended by revising Section 207, to read as follows:

SEC. 207. DWELLING UNIT DENSITY LIMITS.

* * * *

(c) Exceptions to Dwelling Unit Density Limits. An exception to the calculations under this Section shall be made in the following circumstances:

(A) Definition. An "Accessory Dwelling Unit" (ADU) is defined in Section 102.

Code Sections 37.9(a)(9) through 37.9(a)(14) under a notice of eviction served within 10 years prior to filing the application for a building permit to construct the ADU or where a tenant has been evicted pursuant to Administrative Code Section 37.9(a)(8) under a notice of eviction served within five years prior to filing the application for a building permit to construct the ADU.

In new construction, one ADU is permitted to be added to a building with five or fewer Dwelling Units; the smallest Unit in the building shall be designated as the ADU.

(ii) Except as authorized in subsection(C)(iii) below, an Accessory Dwelling Unit shall be constructed entirely within the built envelope of an existing building or within the built envelope of an existing and authorized auxiliary structure on the same lot. For purposes of this provision, the "built envelope" shall include all spaces included in Zoning Administrator Bulletin 4, as amended from time to time, as well as any infilling underneath rear extensions.

(iii) On the ground floor of the building only, an ADU may be constructed within the allowable buildable envelope.

~~(i) (iv)~~ An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall not be constructed using space from an existing Dwelling Unit.

~~(v) A building undergoing seismic retrofitting may be eligible for a height increase pursuant to Subsection (c)(4)(E) below.~~

~~(vii) An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall not be permitted in any building in a Neighborhood Commercial District or in the Chinatown Community Business or Visitor Retail Districts if accommodating the Accessory Dwelling Unit would either eliminate a ground-story retail or commercial space or reduce a ground-story retail or commercial space by more than 25%.~~

~~(ii) The Accessory Dwelling Unit is subject to the provisions of the San Francisco Rent Stabilization and Arbitration Ordinance (Chapter 37 of the Administrative Code) if the existing building or any existing Dwelling Unit within the building is subject to the Rent Stabilization and Arbitration Ordinance.~~

~~(iii) (D) Prohibition of Short-Term Rentals. The Department shall require the applicant to disclose on any application for construction of an Accessory Dwelling Unit whether the applicant intends to use, or authorize the use of, the An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall not be used for Short-Term Residential Rentals under Chapter 41A of the Administrative Code, which restriction shall be recorded as a Notice of Special Restriction on the subject lot. ~~a. — An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall not be permitted in any RH-1(D) zoning district.~~

~~b. — An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall be constructed entirely within the existing building envelope or auxiliary structure, as it existed three (3) years prior to the time of the application for a building permit.~~

~~c. — For buildings that have no more than 10 existing Dwelling Units, one Accessory Dwelling Unit is permitted; for buildings that have more than 10 existing Dwelling Units, two Accessory Dwelling Units are permitted.~~

For Accessory Dwelling Units on lots covered by Subsection 207(e)(4)(B)(iii): with a building undergoing mandatory seismic retrofitting in compliance with Chapter 34 of the Building Code or voluntary seismic retrofitting in compliance with the Department of Building Inspection's Administrative Bulletin 094, the following additional provision applies:

~~a. — An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall not be permitted in any RH-1 or RH-1(D) zoning district.~~

~~b. — An Accessory Dwelling Unit shall be constructed entirely within the existing building envelope or auxiliary structure, as it existed three (3) years prior to the time of the application for a building permit. If ~~permitted~~ allowed by the Building Code, a building in which an Accessory Dwelling Unit is constructed may be raised up to three feet to create ground floor ceiling heights suitable for residential use ~~on lower floors~~. Such a raise in height shall be:~~

~~(i1) shall be~~ exempt from the notification requirements of Sections 311 and 312 of this Code; and

~~(ii2) permitted to may~~ expand a noncomplying structure, as defined in Section 180(a)(2) of this Code and further regulated in Sections 172, 180, and 188, without obtaining a variance for increasing the discrepancy between existing conditions on the lot and the required standards of this Code.

~~(F) (vii) Waiver of Code Requirements; Applicability of Rent Ordinance.~~

~~Pursuant to the provisions of Section 307(l) of this Code, the Zoning Administrator may grant an Accessory Dwelling Unit a complete or partial waiver of the density limits and parking, rear yard, exposure, or open space standards of this Code. However, If the Zoning Administrator grants a complete or partial waiver of the requirements of this Code and the subject lot contains any Rental Units at the time an application for a building permit is filed for construction of the Accessory Dwelling Unit(s), the property owner(s) shall enter into a Regulatory Agreement with the City under subsection (c)(4)(G) subjecting the ADU(s) to the San Francisco Residential Rent Stabilization and Arbitration Ordinance (Chapter 37 of the Administrative Code) as a condition of approval of the~~
