LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Health Code - Retroactive Increase in Patient Rates for Certain Mental Health Services]

Ordinance amending the Health Code to retroactively increase patient rates charged for mental health care.

Existing Law

Section 128 of the Health Code sets the reasonable amounts to be charged to persons for services furnished by the Department of Public Health.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposed amendments to Section 128 increase certain rates retroactively to reflect the State's change in methodology for calculating reimbursements for certain mental health services.

Background Information

Patient rates are being revised mid-fiscal year due to a change in the rate methodology used by the State to reimburse Short Doyle Medi-Cal mental health services. In the past, Short Doyle Medi-Cal mental health services were capped at a State Maximum Allowed (SMA) reimbursement. The Department of Health Care Services recently published a new rate methodology using county-specific interim reimbursement rates which are based on historical costs. Interim rates for San Francisco for outpatient mental health services are significantly higher than the prior year SMA. As a result, the patient rates for these services require amendment for fiscal years 2012-13, and 2013-2014, retroactive to July 1, 2012. Patient rates are the Usual and Customary Rates (UCR) used for Community Behavioral Health Services.

Item 6
File 13-0261

Department:
Department of Public Health (DPH)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Legislative Objectives

- The proposed ordinance would retroactively amend Section 128 of the City's Health Code to allow the City, through the Department of Public Health (DPH) to (a) charge the State higher reimbursement rates in FY 2012-13 and FY 2013-14 for outpatient mental health services, and (b) be consistent with the State's recently revised reimbursement method.

Key Points

- The State reimburses DPH for mental health services provided to Short-Doyle Medi-Cal beneficiaries. In October, 2011, the Governor signed AB 1297, which changed the method by which the State sets reimbursement rates. The new method allows DPH to claim reimbursement for the lesser amount of (1) DPH's actual incurred costs or (2) the Upper Payment Limit, which is a federally-defined reimbursement cap imposed at the state level. As a result of the change, DPH can claim a higher reimbursement from the State.
- DPH is eligible for reimbursement for mental health services under the new reimbursement methodology, retroactive to July 1, 2012. Because DPH will not know its actual cost for providing these services until 18 months after the end of the fiscal year, DPH may file claims at the interim reimbursement rate, which will subsequently be reconciled based on DPH's actual costs.

Fiscal Impact

- The proposed ordinance would increase outpatient mental health service reimbursement rates by between 20.1 and 31.6 percent.
- DPH estimates that the proposed ordinance would increase the amount that the State will reimburse the Department by approximately $1,323,321 or 17.5 percent in FY 2012-13, from $7,555,277 under the prior rates to $8,878,598 under the new rates.

Recommendation

- Approve the proposed ordinance.

MANDATE STATEMENT / BACKGROUND

Mandate Statement

In accordance with Section 2.105 of the City's Charter, any amendments to the City's Health Code are subject to approval by ordinance of the Board of Supervisors.

Background

The State reimburses the City, through the Department of Public Health (DPH), for outpatient mental health services provided to Short-Doyle Medi-Cal beneficiaries¹. Prior to FY 2012-13, DPH could not claim more than the State Maximum Allowed (SMA) which is less than DPH's actual costs of providing these services.

In October 2011, the State enacted AB 1297, which requires the State Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) to reimburse DPH at a rate that more closely approximates the actual costs incurred by DPH.

The new annual State reimbursement method allows DPH to claim reimbursement for the lesser amount of (1) DPH's actual incurred costs or (2) the Upper Payment Limit (UPL), which is a federally-defined reimbursement cap imposed at the State level.²

DPH is eligible for State reimbursement for outpatient mental health services under the new reimbursement method, retroactive to July 1, 2012. Because DPH will not know its actual cost for providing these services until 18 months after the end of the fiscal year, DPH will file claims using the State's interim reimbursement rate in FY 2012-13 and FY 2013-14.

The State has published interim rates for each county, which are based on a reasonable approximation of the counties' actual costs.³ The State will reconcile the difference between the interim claims submitted by DPH based on these rates and DPH's actual costs after the close of the fiscal year.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

The proposed ordinance would amend Section 128 of the City's Health Code retroactive to July 1, 2012 to allow DPH to charge the State DHCS higher reimbursement rates in FY 2012-13 and FY 2013-14 for outpatient mental health services, consistent with the interim rates established by the State. The State notified DPH of the revised reimbursement methodology in August 2012. According to Ms. Anne Okubo, DPH Deputy Financial Officer, DPH is only now submitting legislation to the Board of Supervisors to increase DPH rates for outpatient mental health services because DPH was waiting for additional, official guidance from the State DHCS. DPH is submitting the ordinance now to codify the rates in Section 128 of the City's Health Code before the close of the fiscal year.

Table 1 below summarizes the proposed reimbursement rates to be paid to the City for the City's provision of outpatient mental health services.

¹ The State enacted the Short-Doyle Act in 1956. As a result, local governments are eligible for a 50 percent reimbursement on costs of providing services to people with mental health issues. The State reimburses the City using Medi-Cal funds, which is the State's Medicaid pass-thru program. The overall effect is a Federal reimbursement to local governments for mental health service costs.

² Since the UPL method was previously not applied to mental health services, the DPH does not know what its UPL will be.

³ When the claim for reimbursement is for a service provided by a contract provider, DPH must pay the contractor prior to submitting the claim for reimbursement to the State.

Table 1: Proposed FY 2012-13 and FY 2013-14 Reimbursement Rate Funding From State for Costs of Providing Outpatient Mental Health Services

FY 2012-2013
Outpatient Services	Current Rate / Hour	Proposed Rate / Hour	Increase Amount	Percent Change

Mental Health Services	202	245	43	21.3%
Therapeutic Behavioral Services	202	245	43	21.3%
Medication Support	361	475	114	31.6%
Crisis Intervention	$375	$375	-	0.0%
FY 2013-2014
Outpatient Services	Current Rate / Hour	Proposed Rate / Hour	Increase Amount	Percent Change
Case Management Brokerage	$155	$185	$30	19.4%
Mental Health Services	204	245	41	20.1%
Therapeutic Behavioral Services	204	245	41	20.1%
Medication Support	364	475	111	30.5%
Crisis Intervention	$305	$375	$70	23.0%

FISCAL IMPACT

Based on the State's new interim reimbursement rates, DPH would realize estimated increased FY 2012-13 revenues of $1,323,321, as shown in Table 2 below.

Table 2: Estimated FY 2012-13 Increase in Revenues If Proposed Ordinance is Approved

Outpatient Services	Current Estimated Revenues Under State Reimbursement Rate	Proposed Estimated Revenues	Estimated New State Revenues	Percent Change
Case Management Brokerage	$1,655,139	$ 1,934,579	$ 279,439	16.9%
Mental Health Services	3,324,794	3,831,743	506,949	15.2%
Therapeutic Behavioral Services	-	-	-	-
Medication Support	2,287,007	2,805,227	518,219	22.7%
Crisis Intervention	288,337	307,050	18,713	6.5%
Total	$7,555,277	$8,878,599	$1,323,320	17.5%

Ms. Okubo advises that the State DHCS may increase the interim FY2012-13 reimbursement rate again prior to the end of the fiscal year.

Approving the proposed resolution would result in maximizing State reimbursements to DPH for outpatient mental health services. DPH will request Board of Supervisors funding approval for any future increases to State reimbursement rates.

RECOMMENDATION

Approve the proposed ordinance.
