As someone who has been operating an independent business in the 94103 neighborhood for more than a decade, I am happy to support Bar Agricole and Thad Vogler in his application for a 21 liquor license.

We feel nothing is better for the area than committed, independent businesses. I know that Bar Agricole will not just be another liquor store. Their mission has been to help people enjoy distilled spirits in a way that is adult and communal.

We are in the coffee roasting business and I can vouch for Bar Agricole and Thad's reputation in the San Francisco food and beverage industry. I am certain their operation of a retail spirits store would compliment our business and the neighborhood.

Thank you,

Letter of Support – Bar Agricole

To whom it may concern,

I am a local business owner at 10 Washburn Street in San Francisco, 2 blocks away from Bar Agricole's new location. I am writing today to express my support for Bar Agricole as a new business in my work neighborhood.

This area of town has struggled with commercial vacancies, abuse of our public spaces, and a general lack of services for as long as I have lived and worked in this city. With Bar Agricole our neighborhood has received a business that provides an amazing gathering place as well as a location to learn about and procure spirits from all over the world. They are more than a bar/ restaurant, and they are more than a liquor store. To me they also act as educators and hosts for the community, taking a novel and thoughtful approach to making the hospitality business worthwhile. They are a locally owned business employing and serving people who live here.

I place great value on the fact that this is a local organization inhabiting challenging ground floor commercial in a new development, where all we usually might see are multinational chains. Bar Agricole is a creative and welcome addition here. I hope that they thrive.
