9
10 WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco (the "City"), along with many other 11 cities in the state of California, have struggled to provide affordable rental units for their 12 workforce and families; and

13 WHEREAS, According to the 2019 Census Bureau survey estimates, approximately 14 two-thirds of San Francisco housing units were occupied by renters; and

15 WHEREAS, San Francisco has approximately 170,000 units of rent-controlled housing 16 units making it the largest source of affordable rents in the city; and

17 WHEREAS, San Francisco General Plan's current Housing Element includes Objective 18 3 to "protect the affordability of the existing housing stock, especially rental units;" and

19 WHEREAS, The Ellis Act has adversely affected the city's supply of rental housing, 20 especially rent-controlled housing, by converting rental units to ownership units; and

21 WHEREAS, Between 2010 to 2021, Ellis Act eviction notices ranged from 54 to 231 22 per year; and

23 WHEREAS, The Ellis Act allows property owners to evict tenants in order for landlords 24 to transition out of the rental business; and

25

1 WHEREAS, A 2014 report from Tenants Together, a statewide organization for renters'
2 rights, found that 51% of the City's evictions begin within the first year of new ownership and 3 78% start within the first five years of new ownership; and

4 WHEREAS, The report found that 30% of all Ellis Act evictions come from investors 5 who have entered and exited the rental business more than once, rather than going out of the 6 landlord business altogether as designed; and

7 WHEREAS, The Ellis Act creates no new housing and only increases property values 8 through speculative change of use; and

9 WHEREAS, Ellis Act evictions typically target long-term tenants so disproportionately 10 impact the city's most vulnerable residents including seniors, disabled and those living with 11 HIV; and

12 WHEREAS, California State Assembly Bill No. 2050 aims to curb property speculators
13 by prohibiting the use of the Ellis Act to evict tenants until the property has been owned by all 14 owners of record for at least 5 continuous years, and

15 WHEREAS, California State Assembly Bill No. 2050 acknowledges that part of the Ellis 16 Act was implemented to support long-time "mom and pop" landlords who might not be able to 17 sustain a rental property to transition out of the business; and

18 WHEREAS, California State Assembly Bill No. 2050 does contain some exemptions for 19 those who may be considered small "mom and pop" landlords; and

20 WHEREAS, California State Assembly Bill No. 2050 aims to preserve existing 21 affordable housing units by curbing speculator evictions under the Ellis Act and respecting the 22 rights of small scale landlords; now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors shall support California State Assembly Bill
