[Declaring Most Holy Redeemer Parish Day]

Resolution commending Most Holy Redeemer Roman Catholic Parish for one hundred years of service and declaring January 13, 2001 Most Holy Redeemer Parish Day in San Francisco.

WHEREAS, The Roman Catholic community of Most Holy Redeemer Parish with its time honored tradition of inclusiveness is celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of the formal dedication of its church building by Archbishop Patrick W. Riordan in January of 1902; and,

WHEREAS, In its one hundred years, Most Holy Redeemer Parish has provided countless social services to the poor, homeless, sick, and others in need, and has offered education and spiritual guidance to many generations of San Franciscans; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to running a convent and parish school from 1925 to 1979, this Parish has operated numerous institutions of social service including the Diamond Senior Center established in 1980, Most Holy Redeemer AIDS Support Group founded in 1985, the Coming Home Hospice founded in 1986, and Monsignor Lyne Community Housing established in 1989; and,

WHEREAS, Most Holy Redeemer Parish has been on the front lines in the battle against AIDS addressing both physical and spiritual needs, including the revival of the medieval ritual
