

PROPOSAL FOR NAMING CENTRAL SUBWAY CHINA STATION
AFTER FOUNDING FATHER. SUN YAT-SEN
- "FOUNDING FATHER OF THE MODERN CHINA"

September 28, 2016

Dear San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

WHEREAS, San Francisco Chinatown, with 168 years of history since its establishment in 1848, is the oldest Chinatown in North America; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco Chinatown has the largest Chinese community outside of Asia; and

WHEREAS, Chinese Americans have made significant contributions to the United States; and

WHEREAS, Chinese immigrants have lived in San Francisco Chinatown generation after generation; and

WHEREAS, the name of the Central Subway, Chinatown Station is exceptionally important; and

WHEREAS, Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen was the foremost pioneer and the founding father of the modern China; and

WHEREAS, Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen has been widely recognized as the "founding father of the modern China" by the entire Chinese community in the world, including Chinese on both sides of the Taiwan Straits; and

WHEREAS, Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen has been highly acclaimed as one of the greatest leaders in modern China;

WHEREAS, Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen insisted on the necessity of a return to the old Chinese morality and strongly recommended Chinese people to retain all that was good;

WHEREAS, Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen remains a unique uniting figure in modern China for being highly revered amongst the entire Chinese community worldwide, including people from both sides of the Taiwan Straits; and

WHEREAS, Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen lived in San Francisco Chinatown at the beginning of the 20th century, raising support for founding the modern China;

WHEREAS, Chinese Americans in San Francisco Chinatown provided remarkable support and funding to Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen for the mission of founding the modern China; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the chairmen of the majority of the Chinese Community Associations in San Francisco Chinatown have earnestly proposed naming the central subway Chinatown Station after Founding Father Sun Yat-Sen. This naming proposal represents genuine wishes from the entire Chinese community in San Francisco Chinatown as well as in the United States. We respectfully request that San Francisco Board of Supervisors grant our proposal.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Quach Thanh
