[Commendation]

Resolution declaring May 16, 2001 as Unity Jam Day in San Francisco

WHEREAS, an estimated 4,000 young people in the city of San Francisco are affected by the co-factors of discrimination & prejudice, low self-esteem & self-image, substance abuse, violence, homelessness & displacement, mental & physical abuse, and STDs & HIV; and

WHEREAS, on May 16, 2001, hundreds of youth, community leaders, service providers from San Francisco/Bay Area will gather at the Ramada Inn at 8th and Market Streets in San Francisco for Unity Jam 2001, to address this reality in a spirit of hope unity, & collective power; and

WHEREAS, Unity Jam 2001 will provide workshops, performances, and resources covering such topics as self-defense, substance use, queer awareness, spirituality, teen violence, & body image, and will promote the notion that health and well-being are not just about physical fitness, but healthy and informed choices; now

RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors declares in honor and recognition of the invaluable contributions of Health Initiatives for Youth, May 16, 2001 as Unity Jam Day in San Francisco.
