7 WHEREAS, At present, nearly 60% of families that need licensed child care are unable 8 to find it; and

9 WHEREAS, The City is in desperate need of affordable child care locations to keep 10 working families in San Francisco; and

11 WHEREAS, After the closure of Children’s Village (over 100 child care spaces), we 12 truly cannot afford to lose more opportunities for licensed child care for SF’s working families, 13 and

14 WHEREAS, The Board of Education is considering utilizing SFUSD surplus property at 15 1155 Page Street as subsidized teacher housing; and

16 WHEREAS, This site has the potential to become a premium affordable child care 17 space as it has the necessary outdoor area required for a licensed child care center; and

18 WHEREAS, The wishes of the surrounding community for the property to be made 19 available for child care purposes to help meet the neighborhood’s growing demand is a 20 longstanding desire well known to the Board of Education; and

21 WHEREAS, Child care is a community-wide problem, as is housing for teachers; now, 22 therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That Board of Supervisors strongly urges the Board of Education to 24 engage in designing a joint community solution that can address both issues concurrently:
25 providing facilities for child care and housing for teachers.
