Application: Mental Health Board, Family Member

I am graciously applying for the Family Member seat on the San Francisco Mental Health Board. My own ongoing relationship with mental health care and my family's mental health issues, should respectfully qualify me to this appointment.

It is through this Board, and my voice, I genuinely hope to help support new and innovative programs, promote effective services and therapy, and most importantly, share my knowledge and informed opinion to assure that every opportunity to promote better care is not overlooked or misguided.

Background: In 2003 I became permanently disabled after playing and recording music for almost 35 years. When you lose the one thing you love in life, it has a profound negative effect on your very being. I fell into depression, suffered anxiety and panic attacks, and became extremely uncomfortable outside of the safety of my room. I thought a 'normal' life was something I would never see again.

Through my caregivers, I began volunteering on the Tom Waddell Urban Health Center Community Advisory Board over nine years ago, as a way to repay the compassionate care I had received. I've since been re-elected Presiding Chair three consecutive years, and I am proud and grateful to say our efforts have had a measurable and beneficial effect on staff and clients alike; our shared ideas, and opinions, have positively affected nearly every person who relies on that Clinic for their healthcare.

Through the Clinic I was recommended to the Community Mental Health Worker Certificate program at City College, in 2011. Supervised by program creator Dr. Sal Nunez and his wife, Edith, this course is the premiere educational resource that puts people, like myself, back into the Community helping the very people we represent. I received my certificate this past September, 2013, and have continued for over seven semesters at City College with a perfect 4.0 GPA

Unfortunately, this seat is not really about me. My own personal journey opened my eyes to the mental health problems family members were quietly dealing with. And the lack of proper diagnosis and treatment became more and more apparent as I worked through my own recovery.

My Parents both suffered from depression: My Dad suffered serious depression after nearly 5 years of battling bladder cancer, although he never once admitted it. He was given a clean slate after 3 years of extensive chemo, until a tiny spot appeared on a CT Scan. Another year of experimental chemo, and my father just got tired of fighting. Had he been properly diagnosed and received therapy I believe he may have had the will and strength to beat cancer for good.

My Mom, after losing her husband of over 50 years, became withdrawn, lonely, and felt her life no longer had purpose. Denial from family members led to a late diagnosis of depression and dementia, and she was eventually confined to a nursing home where her condition became worse. She passed recently, a week before her 87th birthday.

My sister, 4 years my junior, followed in my footsteps with drug and alcohol addiction. She was utterly opposed to any form of treatment despite the numerous and desperate attempts of my parents, and she died at age 42 of pancreatitis from overexposure to alcohol. And my second youngest sister went through years of postpartum depression after her first child was born.

Closing

When I look back at all the knock down personal battles I've had, they somehow seem small, inconsequential, and unimportant compared to the desire I feel for every one of my family to have lived healthy, happy lives. If some had accepted their illness, as I have, and gotten proper treatment, perhaps the sorrow and remorse I routinely feel would not be so overwhelming. It is with their hearts and thoughts in mind, that I strive to assure no one feels the sense of loss and uselessness I often feel when thinking of my Family. I hope that with their memories I can take this opportunity, as member of the Mental Health Board, and make a difference. I hope I can bring a sense of worth, value and responsibility to those in our communities that need it.

Thank You for your consideration.

I am trained in Marriage and Family Therapy and have provided mental health services to individual and ethnic families for the past 2 years. I also had a brother who was diagnosed with Bi-polar Disorder and passed away in 2004. My experience in community organizing and mental health has led me to my passion of advocating and working with Asian American families and underserved populations.

Business and/or Professional experience:

I have conducted therapy with at-risk youth and their families, in the Asian American and Latino communities for the past 2 years. Since 2006, I founded and managed a grass-roots non-profit organization, Rock Your Awareness, that bridges the gap between health community services and youth through music. I worked closely with health organizations such as Planned Parenthood, The HealthTrust, AACI and SF AIDS Foundation, etc. I also work with mental health providers on expanding their marketing reach to clients.

Civic Activities:

Through Rock Your Awareness, I organized monthly youth volunteer events and partnerships. I also volunteer with charity events such as Rebuilding Together, Thanksgiving dinner for the homeless, mental health conferences, Silicon Valley AIDS Walk, SF AIDS Walk and more.

Re: Family Seat, District 1, SF Mental Health Board

Dear Supervisor Mar:

I am thrilled to apply for the Family Seat, under your district, on the SF Mental Health Board. As a sibling who lost her young brother to Bi-Polar Disorder in 2004, I am passionate about mental health services and reducing the stigma around mental health. I can offer my personal experience as a family member affected by mental illnesses and share advocacy for mental health services in Asian American and diverse communities. For the past 10 years, I have been involved in community organizing and volunteering in San Francisco and the Bay Area in the health area. In 2006, I started a grassroots non-profit organization, Rock Your Awareness, to bridge the gap between youth and health services in the Bay Area. I am also trained as a Marriage and Family Therapist, conducted mental health services with at-risk youth and families for over 2 years.

I would be honored to join the SF Mental Health Board and work with you closely to bring even more multi-culturalism, diversity, and presence for services in the Asian American and multicultural communities. I believe my fresh perspective, community organizing experience and mental health service training will be valuable to the board.

Thank you for your consideration and I look forward to connecting with you.

Sincerely,

Vanae Tran
