 22 seq., "CEQA") pursuant to Section 15308 of the CEQA Guidelines (California Code of 23 Regulations, Title 14, Sections 15000 et seq.), as an action taken by a regulatory agency for 24 the protection of the environment (in this case, landmark designation). Said determination is

1 on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in File No. 220287 and is incorporated herein
2 by reference. The Board of Supervisors affirms this determination.

4 the proposed landmark designation of 2868 Mission Street, Assessor's Block No. 6516, Lot
5 No. 007 ("Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts"), will serve the public necessity,
6 convenience, and welfare for the reasons set forth in Historic Preservation Commission
7 Resolution No. 1228, recommending approval of the proposed designation, which is 8 incorporated herein by reference.

9 (3) The Board of Supervisors finds that the proposed landmark designation of 10 2868 Mission Street is consistent with the General Plan and with Planning Code Section
11 101.1(b) for the reasons set forth in Historic Preservation Commission Resolution No. 1228.

12 (b) General Findings.

13 (1) Pursuant to Charter Section 4.135, the Historic Preservation Commission
14 has authority "to recommend approval, disapproval, or modification of landmark designations
15 and historic district designations under the Planning Code to the Board of Supervisors."

16 (2) The Landmark Designation Fact Sheet was prepared by Planning
17 Department Preservation staff. All preparers meet the Secretary of the Interior's Professional 18 Qualification Standards for historic preservation program staff, as set forth in Code of Federal 19 Regulations Title 36, Part 61, Appendix A. The report was reviewed for accuracy and 20 conformance with the purposes and standards of Article 10 of the Planning Code.

21 (3) The Historic Preservation Commission, at its regular meeting of February
22 16, 2022, reviewed Planning Department staff's analysis of the historical significance of 2868
23 Mission Street pursuant to Article 10 as part of the Landmark Designation Fact Sheet dated
24 May 6, 2020.

1 (4) On January 20, 2021, after holding a public hearing on the proposed
2 initiation, the Historic Preservation Commission initiated of the proposed landmark designation
3 of 2868 Mission Street by Resolution No. 1166. Said resolution is on file with the Clerk of the
4 Board in File No. 220287.

5 (5) On February 16, 2022, after holding a public hearing on the proposed
6 designation and having considered the specialized analyses prepared by Planning
7 Department staff and the Landmark Designation Fact Sheet, the Historic Preservation
8 Commission recommended designation of 2868 Mission Street as a landmark under Article 10
9 of the Planning Code by Resolution No. 1228. Said resolution is on file with the Clerk of the 10 Board in File No. 220287.

11 (6) The Board of Supervisors hereby finds that 2868 Mission Street has a 12 special character and special historical, architectural, and aesthetic interest and value, and
13 that its designation as a Landmark will further the purposes of and conform to the standards
14 set forth in Article 10 of the Planning Code. In doing so, the Board hereby incorporates by 15 reference the findings of the Landmark Designation Fact Sheet.

17 Section 2. Designation.

19 Center for Latino Arts”), Assessor’s Block No. 6516 Lot No. 007, is hereby designated as a
20 San Francisco Landmark under Article 10 of the Planning Code. Appendix A to Article 10 of 21 the Planning Code is hereby amended to include this property.

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Planning Code - Landmark Designation - 2868 Mission Street (“Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts”)]

Ordinance amending the Planning Code to designate 2868 Mission Street (“Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts”), Assessor’s Parcel Block No. 6516, Lot No. 007, as a Landmark under Article 10 of the Planning Code; affirming the Planning Department’s determination under the California Environmental Quality Act; and making public necessity, convenience, and welfare findings under Planning Code, Section 302, and findings of consistency with the General Plan, and the eight priority policies of Planning Code, Section 101.1.

Existing Law

Under Article 10, Section 1004 of the Planning Code, the Board of Supervisors may, by ordinance, designate an individual structure that has special character or special historical, architectural or aesthetic interest or value as a City landmark. Unless prohibited by state law, once a structure has been named a landmark, any construction, alteration, removal or demolition for which a City permit is required necessitates a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Historic Preservation Commission. (Planning Code § 1006; Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, § 4.135.) Thus, landmark designation generally affords a high degree of protection to historic and architectural structures of merit in the City. There are currently approximately 295 individual landmarks in the City under Article 10, in addition to structures and districts in the downtown area that are protected under Article 11. (See App. A to Article 10.)

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance amends the Planning Code to add a new historic landmark to the list of individual landmarks under Article 10: 2868 Mission Street (“Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts”), Assessor’s Block No. 6516 Lot No. 007.

The ordinance finds that the Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts is eligible for designation as it is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of San Francisco history (National Register Criterion A). Specifically, designation of the Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts is proper given its association with Latinx history and culture in San Francisco, as the foremost art and cultural center for the Latinx community in San Francisco. The Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts is significant for its association with the social and ethnic history of the Mission District as a predominately Latinx enclave, along with the development of Latinx arts in San Francisco in association with California’s Latinx cultural center movement of the 1970s.

FILE NO. 220287

As required by Section 1004, the ordinance lists the particular features that shall be preserved, or replaced in-kind as determined necessary.

Recommendation: Recommend Landmark Designation to the Board of Supervisors

Property Description

On January 20, 2021, the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC) adopted Resolution No. 1166 to initiate landmark designation of 2868 Mission Street, known historically as the Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts, MCCLA (“subject property”), pursuant to Article 10 of the Planning Code. Under Article 10, initiation and recommendation are two distinct steps of the landmark designation process which require separate hearings and resolutions.

The item before the HPC is consideration of a Resolution to Recommend Article 10 landmark designation of the subject property to the Board of Supervisors under Article 10 of the Planning Code, Section 1004.1.

Issues and Other Considerations

The MCCLA at 2868 Mission Street, owned by the City and County of San Francisco, has funding and is presently in the planning stages of construction work. The scope of work for repairs to the building managed by Public Works include structural improvements, replacement of all exterior steel windows, storefront and doors, complete ADA barrier removal, replacement of interior finishes, doors and casework, and painting the exterior concrete walls, other than murals.

The first and largest scope of anticipated work is at the Mission Street storefront. While not yet designed, the present cross-bracing would be replaced with a stronger structural system likely involving a “grade beam” which will act as a rigid steel rectangle, partly below the floor and surrounding the storefront opening. This, and other seismic work to the building will not be subject to a Certificate of Appropriateness provided that proposed work is consistent with the Architectural Design Guide for Exterior Treatments of Unreinforced Masonry Buildings during Seismic Retrofit. These guidelines were developed by the AIA San Francisco Chapter and adopted for use by the Planning Commission in 1991.¹ The second standard for review is Planning Code Section 145.1 which, in part, requires storefront transparency and active uses. The designating ordinance considers this pending work and proposes to exempt it from requiring a Certificate of Appropriateness.

The second-most major anticipated project is a rehabilitation of the interior spaces. For example, in the ground floor Theater, the interior as present limits the relationship between audience and performance. The present tiered floor would be replaced with a more flexible arrangement that will also improve accessibility for the audience.

As the basis for significance of the MCCLA is rooted in associations, the building at 2868 Mission Street, while having been the shell significant events and cultural activities occurred within, the building itself as the container is the primary character-defining feature. Individual elements of interior finishes are therefore not identified for protection. Further, rehabilitation of these features and spaces will not be subject to a Certificate of Appropriateness so that the MCCLA can maintain its basis for significance – as a significant living cultural center and home for Latinx community activities.

Environmental Review Status

The Planning Department has determined that actions by regulatory agencies for protection of the environment (specifically in this case, landmark designation) are exempt from environmental review, pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15308 (Class Eight - Categorical).

Basis for Recommendation

The Department recommends that the Historic Preservation Commission recommend to the Board of Supervisors landmark designation of the Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts as it is individually eligible for listing in the National Register under Criterion A at the local level of significance in the areas of Social History, Art, Performing Arts, and Ethnic Heritage: Hispanic for its association with the social and ethnic history of the Mission District as a predominately Latinx enclave, along with the development of Latinx arts in San Francisco in association with California’s Latinx cultural center movement of the 1970s.

Prior HPC Actions:	Recommended NR nomination to the Keeper

Significance Criteria:	A. Property is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history
Period of Significance:	1977-1987 beginning with the occupancy of the building by the Mission Cultural Center and concluding initial major renovations which established the standardized uses and long-standing spatial relationship
Statement of Significance:	Mission Cultural Center (later Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts) is located in the Mission District, a large and diverse neighborhood in the east-central portion of San Francisco. The building was constructed in 1947 as a furniture store and converted into the Mission Cultural Center (MCC) in 1977. The building is a predominately two- and three-story, reinforced concrete building with a partial fourth floor. It is L-shaped in plan and has a flat roof with skylights. The primary façade faces Mission Street while the larger rear (west) façade faces Osage Alley. The Mission Street façade features three structural bays. The building’s fenestration is concentrated at the center of the ground floor, crowned with a neon marquee reading “Mission Cultural Center.” This is flanked on either side by the primary entrances. The building is predominately clad with concrete and stucco. The upper portion of the primary and east façades features a large and significant mural depicting Latino cultural themes. Significant interior and exterior alterations were made during a major renovation from 1984 to 1987, during which the MCC operated from temporary quarters several blocks away on Harrison Street. More modest modifications were made to the building in 1992 and 2015. The building is in good condition and retains all aspects of integrity.

Assessment of Integrity:	Location: The property retains integrity of location as it has never been moved. Design: The property retains sufficient integrity of design. While the storefront that existed during the period of significance has been altered with seismic bracing and a new storefront system, the basic historic configuration of a glazed ground floor with a stucco wall above remains intact. Likewise, the massing of the exterior is almost entirely unchanged. Importantly, the building retains the 1982 Spirit of the Arts mural, which is arguably its most prominent exterior character-defining feature. The interior was altered by life/safety renovations that took place 1984-1987. These renovations did not change the overall interior configuration. The theater remains on the first floor in essentially its original location. Galería Museo remains on the second floor, and classroom and studio spaces remain on the upper floors. The fourth-floor space for Mission Gráfica, a highly significant graphic arts studio, remains largely unaltered. The most prominent interior alteration was bridging the open mezzanine space to expand Galería Museo. The essential layout of the building has been retained. Setting: The property retains integrity of setting. The building continues to be located in the midst of a busy and predominately Latino commercial corridor. Nearly all of the buildings located on the 2800 block of Mission Street that were in place at the time the Mission Cultural Center was opened remain extant. Materials: The property retains integrity of materials. The exterior of the building retains its concrete and scored stucco materials. Historic photos indicate the interior featured wood flooring(carpeted in places), and concrete walls. They remain the predominate interior materials, although drywall partitions have been added in some areas. Workmanship: The property retains integrity of workmanship. The single most important character-defining feature of the building is the exterior Spirit of the Arts mural, installed in 1982. The mural was restored by the original artists in 2017. Likewise, stylized graphics present on the exterior during the period of significance were recreated following later alterations. The only other notable exterior evidence of workmanship is the scored stucco on the primary façade, which remains intact. Feeling: The property retains integrity of feeling. The retention of essential features and spaces, such as the murals, graphic decorations, theater, studio spaces and graphics workshop all combine to convey the building’s historic character as a neighborhood cultural center with an overtly Latino focus. Association: The property retains integrity of association. It continues to function exactly as it did during the period of significance: as a neighborhood cultural center focused on supporting and promoting the full spectrum of Latino arts, including visual and graphic arts, music, theater and dance, writing and poetry, and cultural festivals.
Character-Defining Features:	(1) All exterior elevations, form, massing, structure, rooflines, architectural ornament, and materials of 2868 Mission Street identified as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) The reinforced concrete shell of the building; (B) The mural on the upper façade on Mission Street “Spirit of the Arts”; (C) A transparent storefront; (2) The volume and spatial relationships of three major interior spaces, being the Theater (first floor), the Gallery (second floor), and Studio “D” together with Mission Gráfica Printmaking Studio (third floor and partial mezzanine).
