

1 [Lunar New Year 2026]

2
3 Resolution celebrating 2026 as the Year of the Horse and recognizing February 17,
4 2026, as the start of Lunar New Year 4724.

5
6 WHEREAS, 2026 marks Lunar New Year 4724, the Year of the Horse, which begins on 7 Tuesday February 17, 2026; and

8 WHEREAS, Celebrations for the Lunar New Year begin with the New Moon on the first 9 day of the new year and end on the full moon 15 days later; and

10 WHEREAS, The first Chinese New Year Parade took place in San Francisco's 11 Chinatown in 1885 with a 15-day celebration and block-long golden dragon preceded by the 12 red pearl of potentiality; and

13 WHEREAS, In an effort to celebrate Chinatown and draw visitors to Chinese-owned 14 businesses, the Chinese Chamber of Commerce transformed the Chinese New Year 15 celebration into a Street Carnival at Portsmouth Square in 1953; and

16 WHEREAS, To further its efforts to promote Chinatown, the Chinese Chamber of 17 Commerce launched the first Miss Chinatown, U.S.A beauty pageant in 1958 as part of the 18 New Year Festivities; and

19 WHEREAS, The Chinese New Year parade draws a larger crowd each year with 20 increasingly more marching units and floats, and the San Francisco Chinese New Year 21 parade is the largest parade celebrating Chinese New Year outside of Asia; and

22 WHEREAS, The celebration of Chinese New Year in San Francisco has become a 23 culturally significant event and its grand parade is now a recognized civic pride event of our 24 city; and

1           WHEREAS, The annual Chinese New Year Festival and Parade that has historically 2 included the Miss Chinatown Pageant and Coronation Ball, has now expanded to nearly 3 month-long festivities that encompass a Flower Market Fair, Choy Sun Doe, Basketball 4 Jamboree, a Chinatown YMCA Run, and Community Street Fair, have provided an economic 5 boost to our local economy beyond just Chinatown; and

6           WHEREAS, The Lunar New year may be known as Chinese New Year, but it is also 7 celebrated as Seollal in Korean communities, with the Tet Festival by the Vietnamese, and as 8 Losar in Tibet; and

9           WHEREAS, The Lunar New Year, also known as the Spring Festival, is a significant 10 holiday for Asian families to gather together, honor their ancestors, welcome the New Year 11 with hopes of prosperity and good health, and celebrate traditions and traditional foods; and

12           WHEREAS, The Year of the Horse promises to bring energy, freedom, and forward 13 momentum; now, therefore be it

14           RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
15 bids farewell to 2025, Year of the Snake, and commits to celebrate Asian families and Lunar
16 New Year Festivities; and, be it

17           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San 18 Francisco wishes all families good luck, prosperity, and continued health in the Year of the 19 Horse; and, be it

20           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San 21 Francisco celebrates 2026 as the Year of the Horse and recognizes February 17, 2026, as the 22 start of Lunar New Year 4724.
